

The Kingston Daily Freeman.

VOL. XLV.—No. 132.

CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 20, 1916.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

10,000 U. S. TROOPS ARE IN MEXICO

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Galveston, Tex., March 20.—American troops hunting Francisco Villa now number more than 10,000, according to advices received here today. These stated that since the first column left Columbus, N. M., additional forces have crossed the border as rapidly as they could detain and be equipped for the march. The original force under command of General Pershing numbered about 5,000 men. Today's reports indicate that these have been more than doubled. Several regiments are still on the border, it is said, awaiting the order to advance.

MISSING WOMAN FOUND BY POLICE

After searching all Saturday night and Sunday morning Mrs. Michael J. Duffey, who wandered away from her home, No. 212 Foxhall avenue, was finally found at the Rose farmhouse on the Flatbush road through the efforts of the local police force who had been notified of her disappearance.

Mrs. Duffey has been in poor health for some time. Saturday evening she was alone in the house as her husband, who works nights, had left and her son had gone out for a short time. When the son returned he found his mother missing. She had not taken any wraps with her and wore no hat but had thrown a shawl over her head.

A general alarm was sent out when the police were notified while her husband returned home and with the assistance of several neighbors searched throughout the night and early morning, but without success. Sunday afternoon a telephone call was received by Superintendent Thomas H. Edmonston at the City Home asking him if one of the woman inmates was missing. He replied there was not and called upon Sergeant Hanley about the matter. The telephone call to the City Home was from Mr. Rose.

It seems that while Mr. Rose was driving along the Flatbush road he found Mrs. Duffey sitting in a snow pile and got her to get in his sleigh and drove her to the farm house where she was well treated. In an effort to ascertain where she came from she was closely questioned by Mr. Rose, but without success as she refused to talk.

When Sergeant Hanley received the telephone message from Superintendent Edmonston he notified Mr. Duffey and the husband with Simon Wood, the patrol wagon driver, went out to the house and found that the woman Mr. Rose had picked up along the road was Mrs. Duffey.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

Unusual Events Briefly Told in Telegraph Despatches.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Bayonne, N. J., March 20.—A "velvet trail" for converts, instead of a "sawdust trail," is provided by the Rev. E. S. Doloway, who is conducting a revival at the People's Baptist Church here.

Middletown, N. Y.—"It costs three times as much to keep the gods of this country as it does the Christian ministers," declared the Rev. R. I. Watkins of St. Paul's Methodist Church.

Franklin, Mo., March 20.—Mrs. Herbert Crowell has raised a lemon weighing 16½ ounces on a potted tree in her home.

Change in Organists.

Prof. E. F. Kuehn, for a number of years organist of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church of Kingston, has resigned that position and accepted the position as organist of the Wurts Street Baptist Church. Prof. Dodge goes to the Episcopal Church as organist. Prof. Kuehn was well liked by the large choir of the Clinton Avenue Church and will be greatly missed by both choir and members of said church. They wish him the very best success in his new position, which he will take the first Sunday in April.

Sanitarium Auxiliary Meeting.

A special meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Benedictine Sanitarium will be held at the sanitarium on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. If stormy, the meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. N. D. J. Murphy on Andrew street. As business of great importance is to be discussed a full attendance is desired.

Mr. Atkins at Conference.

Attorney D. G. Atkins will be in Peekskill this week where he will attend sessions of the laymen of the New York Conference of the M. E. Church. Mr. Atkins will represent St. James's Church and is also a district delegate as well, to which post he was elected at the last quarterly conference.

Trinity M. E. Church Fair.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Trinity M. E. Church will hold its annual fair and oriental festival in the church parlors on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 11 and 12.

INDEPENDENCE UNION MEETING

Casino Audience Hears England Roasted and the United States Criticized by Jeremiah O'Leary of the American Truth Society.

Eight hundred men and women, whose sympathies wherever they may be were plainly not with England and England's conduct of the war, made up an enthusiastic audience Sunday afternoon in the Casino theater on Broadway where they listened to speakers on neutrality, peace and the proper attitude for this country to hold toward the European belligerents. The Hon. Jeremiah A. O'Leary, president of the American Truth Society of New York, was the principal speaker and was given a warm reception as was also the Rev. Father John P. Neumann, rector of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, who made an address in German. The Rev. Frederick P. Wilhelm, pastor of the Livingston Street Lutheran Church, presided over the meeting which was the sixth and most successful of a series being held by the Kingston branch of the American Independence Union. A set of resolutions were passed and a letter from Congressman Charles B. Ward was read without action.

In introducing the speaker, the Rev. Mr. Wilhelm who presided stated that the gathering was in the interest of peace and to express opposition to the machinations of those who would force this country into the war on the side of the Allies. He paid a compliment to the American Truth Society for its cutting down the amount of the loan made by this country to the Allies and then presented Mr. O'Leary who was warmly greeted. His subject was "Why America Should Stay Out of the Present World War."

Tall and slender, with an earnestness born of an enthusiastic belief in his cause, Mr. O'Leary opened with an expression of pride in his country and outlining his interest in the subject which interested, he said, was surely that of an American citizen. He congratulated Kingston upon the large outpouring of residents in the name of American justice and American neutrality as well as a striking recognition of the duties of citizenship.

The American people, the speaker declared, are not mules to be driven but a free people according to their theories of government and the ship of state could not be directed by anybody else no matter how powerful a clique of politicians or newspaper editors. The most intelligent vote ever recorded in this country, he said, would not fall manifest itself in most unmistakable terms in deciding the political fates of those entrusted with the responsibilities of public office who have been derelict in their duties. The applause which greeted this statement was not lessened by the speaker's statement that he had no intention of criticizing the president of the United States.

Some pro-Ally Americans, Mr. O'Leary said, thought the European war a baseball game or a horse race where they had bet on the losing team or the losing horse and were seeking to have this country start their horse afresh. This was being attempted through turning over to one set of the belligerents all of the resources of this country, he said. To carry out this was merely to make the rich richer and the poor poorer in the U. S. A., a statement which elicited more hand-clapping.

"The day we dip our hands into England's gold chest that day will the war be over," was one sentence which called forth applause. After losing all our legitimate trade with the central empires, Turkey and neutral nations of Europe in return for the munitions manufactures, the speaker declared: "England has now announced her intention of buying all the gasoline John D. has to sell!"

Speaking of the munitions traffic, the speaker continued: "Do they favor this blood traffic that who favor this blood traffic that who would be unneutral if we did not sell them munitions. Whoever heard of a nation violating neutrality by the exercise of a sovereign right? Whoever heard of a nation violating neutrality by placing an embargo on its exports? It has also been suggested that we should sell them because some day we might want to buy them ourselves."

"The absurdity of this contention becomes apparent from an analysis of the situation that would confront with reference to imports. In the event of a war with a foreign power, if we controlled the seas, no foreign army could invade our shores or if a foreign army did invade our shores by an unexpected landing, no foreign army could be maintained here. Under these circumstances, we would not need any munitions, or, if any, we could well supply ourselves."

On the other hand, if our enemy obtained control of the seas by defeating our fleet, we could not secure arms any more than Germany is able to secure them today. This meets effectively the hypocritical suggestion that we should sell arms for our own future salvation. Let us look this traffic squarely in the face without cant or hypocrisy. Let us admit it is a stigma upon the fair name of the Republic. Let us admit that it places the Republic in a position utterly inconsistent with its traditions, in that we are supplying the sinews of war to monarchies in order that greater and stronger monarchies might live. Let us also admit that if the traffic is popular at all it is because of the fact that Great Britain ever since the beginning of the war and long before the war has controlled the American press and by that control, has exercised an undue influence over the minds of the American people. The truth of the matter is that the minds of the American people have been poisoned by British lies and that poison has created a prejudice against the German nation, which finds pleasure in sending arms and munitions to its enemies to crush it. "Let us admit frankly that to all intents and purposes we consider Germany our enemy and that we are aiding in Germany's destruction. Let every American citizen who is in favor of the exportation of munitions examine his conscience and ask himself the questions—'Is it honest? Is it fair? Is it neutral?' It is consistent with the traditions of the Republic? Are we not doing to Germany what England did to the United States in the Civil War? Is it humane? Is it consistent with the duty that we owe to our American fellow-citizen of German birth or descent, whose kinship their blood and gave their energies to the creation, construction and development of our common country."

INTERROGATING MEXICANS

QUESTIONING SUPPOSED MEXICAN BANDITS.

The picture shows three Mexicans arrested at Columbus, N. M., being questioned by the military authorities. Shortly after this picture was taken and after the Mexicans had released, two of them were found, shot dead, in the outskirts of the town.

"There is another important feature. I refer to the American money which has been loaned to the Allied nations to pay for the munitions which are intended to be aimed at Germany's heart. There are two great requisites in the conduct of war—money and men. By manufacturing munitions for one side we enable that side to send men to the battle-lines, who otherwise would have to be employed to make munitions of war."

"By furnishing money we multiply the resources of the side we loaned it to. We are therefore furthering the Allies with money and with men, or, I might say, with money, munitions and men, with everything that a nation needs to carry on a successful and bloody war. You will remember the billion dollar loan that was asked for by the Allies with a perfectly serious face? I daresay that at this very moment, the amount of credit extended to the Allies by American financiers amounts to at least two billions of dollars. Are we not doing to Canada, by arranging to borrow seven-fifty millions of dollars. At this very moment, Canadian and South American securities owned by British investors are being unloaded at high prices upon the American public. Have the American people become actually imbecile in their mad and unreasoned prejudice against the German Empire."

"Do the American people realize what Wall Street is now doing to the country? Do they realize that the money of the country is being slowly drained by Wall Street for the purpose of financing the Allied governments of Europe. Do they realize that American enterprises and American resources are being deliberately neglected and discriminated against, in order that the Allied governments may have all their wishes gratified. If we were receiving anything in return for this imbecile generosity of ours, there might be some reason for it, but what are we receiving. Over in England they tell us that we are too proud to fight. Our president has been scoffed at. Criticisms have been made by Americans of the policies of the president, but he has been lampooned and attacked to such an extent in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations have been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships commandeered by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was perpetrated upon us while we were a weak nation prior to the war of 1812, by the British government, has been repeated in this war, save one thing, and this is, Great Britain has not impressed American citizens formerly subjects into the British service.

"To cap the climax, as it were, the United States is now, by its foreign policies, actually protecting British merchant ships which carry guns to destroy submarines and insure the delivery of huge cargoes of munitions to the battle fronts in Europe. The extraordinary feature of the attitude of our government towards submarines is that the submarine was invented by John P. Holland, an Irish-American, who developed the first workable model in 1875. I refer all who desire information on this subject to the Encyclopedia Americana, volume 8, and to the name therein, John P. Holland. Away back in 1813, Thomas Jefferson in a letter to Robert Fulton, another Irish-American, and the inventor of the steamboat, urged Fulton to devise a submarine as a weapon to destroy the naval power of England. The only instrument at our disposal today to protect the riches and the grandeur and the peace of our nation is the submarine. Why should the United States limit the use of the submarine?"

"I entirely agree with the president that our merchant ships should not be sunk without warning and should not be sunk until non-combatants were given every opportunity to escape. But every man of war has the right to visit and search a merchant ship upon the high seas. This right cannot be exercised by a submarine where the merchant ship is armed. The arming of the merchant ship for the purpose of resisting the right of visiting and searching, makes that merchant ship a war ship because it makes it in every sense a strong instrument of attack as well as defense, than the submarine itself."

"Have the American people become merely economists and sophists without hearts and without consciences? I doubt it. I believe the American people are as true today to the traditions of fair play and justice as they have been in days gone by. I believe that the American people, given a fair chance to form their own conclusions, with British lies eliminated, with the facts of the situation in Europe presented calmly and without prejudice, would reverse many of the decisions which have been made by those who have guided our ship of state, since this cruel war began. I do not mean to criticize the president. I realize that he has great problems to solve. I realize that he has been criticized by both extremes in this country. He was recently criticized by the speakers at a mass meeting of the American Rights Committee, held in New York city, because he did not actually go to war against Germany."

"In expressing my views as I have, I feel that I am performing a duty that I owe to my citizenship, to the land of my birth and the land where God willing, my posterity will live for generations to come and I yield to no man in my allegiance and my devotion to the Stars and Stripes. Too long have our citizens been silent. Too long have they permitted our ship of state to drift and drift along with newspaper editors at its helm, with the voice of conscience stifled by the clinking of the dollars, with the independent functions of our congress destroyed, paralyzed by the nervous tremblings of a vacillating foreign policy. Too long has our peace been endangered and threatened by indecisive and halting diplomacy."

"This is the great opportunity of the republic. There is an old saying 'That while the cat's away, the mice will play.' While the monarchies of Europe are destroying themselves in a suicidal war, let the members of republicanism upon the western hemisphere strengthen the principles of the nation by accumulating the sinews of strength. Let us build up an American merchant marine. Let us construct our logical trade with South America. Let us develop a more normal foreign trade by insisting upon our rights to trade with the neutral and belligerent nations of Europe. Let us send milk to the babies of Germany, if they are dying for the want of it. Let us send medical supplies to the wounded and dying in Austria and Germany. Let us insist that our mail ships, as treaties provide, be unmolested and inviolate. Let us use American money to develop peaceful American resources and let us finally attest our devotion to the sacred cause of truth and justice, following the wishes of Washington, the father of our country, by maintaining an equal and impartial neutrality with all nations, drawing our inspiration from the political philosophy of Lincoln: 'With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right.'"

Letter From Congressman.

When the applause had died away, the Rev. Mr. Wilhelm asked for three cheers for the speaker, which were given with a will. He then presented a set of resolutions urging upon congress the propriety of action upon the matter of warning Americans against sailing on armed merchantmen and upon embargoes upon munitions exports.

A letter was read from Representative Charles B. Ward in which the latter declared his vote on the McLea more resolution was given after careful consideration and prompted by patriotic impulse.

"I shall make no comment on the letter," said Pastor Wilhelm, "but it will be considered at the meeting of the union at the Hotel Eichler Monday night."

After a rising vote had been taken on the resolutions, a rising vote of the men in favor was asked and more than 300 men rose in their places to express approval of the sentiments therein contained.

The Rev. Father Neumann Speaks.

The Rev. John P. Neumann, rector of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, was introduced following the singing of "The Star Spangled," in which the entire audience joined. The Rev. Mr. Neumann's address was in German and in the main his sentiments coincided with those of the main speaker of the afternoon.

After a collection had been taken to defray the expenses of the meeting, "America" was sung and then an illustrated lecture was given by Mr. O'Leary on the subject, "Uncle Sam and John Bull." The illustrations were for the most part caricatures, instancing the support which the speaker declared this country was lending England to its great loss in the present as well as in the future. The meeting was pronounced one of the most successful in the series.

GERMAN AVIATORS MISSED TRANSPORT

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, March 20.—The spectacular German air raid over the southeast coast on Sunday in which nine persons were killed outright and 31 wounded, has developed the fact that the French war office has sent a corps of experienced French aviators to England to help protect the coasts. One French machine was engaged in the aerial battle which followed the dropping of bombs at Ramsgate, where a military hospital was struck.

Bombs dropped into Dover harbor fell near a transport loaded with troops. Many projectiles were thrown into the Dover harbor from a height of 6,000 feet, evidently aimed at warships anchored there.

Of the four German aeroplanes which took part there are believed to have escaped back to their base; the fourth was shot down into the North Sea.

Bombs were also dropped at Deal and Margate, where there are big munitions plants.

Historic Seward Home Burned.

The famous old home of the late Frederick W. Seward, son of William H. Seward, secretary of state in President Lincoln's cabinet, at Montrose, opposite Stony Point, was destroyed by fire with a loss of $75,000. Many valuable curios collected by Mr. Seward in the last fifty years together with valuable paintings, a magnificent stock library, and autograph letters of notables in the history of the country were burned.

DAY'S WAR NEWS AT A GLANCE

Vienna—Austrian submarine sunk French torpedo boat in Adriatic. Violent bombardment of Austrian positions on Bessarabian frontier by Russian artillery under way.

Geneva—Austro-Hungarian troops began attack on outer defenses of Valona, Albania.

Berlin—Five more Allied aeroplanes been shot down. French attacks against German positions around Donauwassertal and Vaux repulsed. Russians continuing attacks on northern end of line despite heavy losses.

San Antonio, Tex.—American cavalry regiments set world's record in march into Mexico in pursuit of Villa.

Paris—Germans preparing for another great assault on west bank of Meuse. Opened vigorous bombardment in that region last night. French checked attack on Pepper Heights.

London—Fifty Allied aeroplanes bombarded German positions on Belgian coast. All aeroplanes returned safely. French, British and Norwegian steamers sunk, presumably by submarines.

PERSHING MAKES A WORLD RECORD

General Funston Says the Expedition in Pursuit of Villa Could Not Have Hurried More Than It Did.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
San Antonio, Tex., March 20.—"Black Jack" Pershing and his American cavalry regiments set a world's record on their march into Mexico in pursuit of Francisco Villa. Major General Frederick Funston made this fact known today when he was asked to comment on Washington despatches stating that the government had requested more haste in chasing Villa.

"I don't see," said the general, "how I can speed up any more. The main column made a world's record march. I do not see how it could have hurried more."

Wireless communication between General Pershing and General Funston is now effective. There was considerable trouble at first in getting radiograms from the expedition in Mexico, but this has practically been eliminated. The latest reports from Pershing have removed certain anxieties which Funston had entertained and it is expected that the latter will soon leave San Antonio for the south.

According to reports at Fort Sam Houston, Villa was on Saturday at the Candelario Hernandez ranch, one of the Terrazas properties in Chihuahua southeast of Galeana. He is said to have looted the ranch, killing a large number of cattle.

General Funston believes that an engagement will soon take place between the American troops and Villa's bandits or sympathizers. The United States column is now in the heart of the district where Villa has long been the chief arbiter.

It is understood that General Pershing's troops are getting supplies at Casas Grandes. The censorship prevents confirmation of this report, but if it is true the burden of the base at Columbus will be considerably lightened.

PERSHING REPORTS BY WIRELESS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Columbus, N. M., March 20.—Communication was established today between General Pershing's Mexican expeditionary headquarters and Major W. R. Sample's military base here. Wireless messages flittered back and forth, followed by a stir of activity among the troops stationed in Columbus and anxiously awaiting word to move into the southern republic.

Absolute secrecy was maintained concerning the nature of the radio messages from General Pershing, but the fact that communication had been established was allowed to become known. Large numbers of troops have moved into and through Columbus in the last few days, many of them being sent to take the place of the soldiers that were ordered across the border with General Pershing and Col. Dodd.

Five newspaper correspondents were permitted to cross the border today and escorted by an army lieutenant started southward to join the expeditionary forces.

Work was kept up today on the preparation of hospital equipment to be sent into Mexico. The problem of getting supplies to the expedition already in the field below the border was being considered.

Two big motor trucks sent here to carry supplies to the forces are in readiness to depart today with the contingent of supplies. Additional signal outfits were also prepared to make the southward journey and the men in charge said they were awaiting word to move.

Special precautions are being taken to guard the United States troops against typhoid fever and smallpox. Army medical officers also are looking to safeguarding the troops against an outbreak of typhus which has been reported prevalent in Mexico. All water is being tested along the route.

Survey of O. & W. Station.

A party of surveyors were running lines on North Front street this morning making a new map of the O. & W. railroad station property. The old map has been lost from the company records it is reported.

GERMANY DENIES TUBANTIA SINKING

By Telegram to The Freeman.
The Hague, March 20.—The German ambassador to Holland has informed the foreign office that an investigation has shown that there were no German submarines in the vicinity of the Tubantia when she was sunk off North Hinder Sands last Thursday morning. The German ambassador also said that no German mines had been laid there.

Y. M. C. A. Chorus Rehearses.

The singers' chorus of the Y. M. C. A. will hold a rehearsal Tuesday evening at 7:45. Everyone who has a voice is urged to attend this rehearsal as a membership of at least 100 voices is desired. Most of the music for the chorus has been selected as follows and will be gone over at this rehearsal: Amorita, by Luigi Denza; A Tone by C. Linn Seiler; Day Break, by Arthur Nevin and Bedouin Song by Harry Rowe Shelley. Miss Helen Turner, who has been accompanist for the Glee Club since the beginning of the season and whose work was much appreciated by the club, has come to New York city to continue the study of music. Samuel D. Scudder, Jr., will be the new accompanist. He is organist at the Episcopal Church at Saugerties and his work is very commendable. His attendance at rehearsals is sure to enliven interest and will be a great advantage to the club. The Glee Club will hold its weekly rehearsal on Monday even at 7:45 o'clock. Every member who has not regularly attended rehearsal is requested to make a special effort to be present as this will be a very important meeting, after which a social time and feed will be enjoyed.

WRECK AT NEWBURGH.

Damage Caused by Boxcar Leaving Track—Brakeman's Leg Broken.

Dayton Pierce of West New York, a brakeman on the West Shore railroad had his leg broken in a wreck on that line on Friday evening in Newburgh while telegraph poles were knocked over, a signal tower was demolished, telegraph and electric light wires were carried down, supports of an overhead bridge were weakened when a box in the middle of a fast freight train left the main track near the Pennsylvania Coal Company's yard in that city. The wreck was caused by a broken journal and the staff suffered for some time. The freight was southbound and remarkable to relate the other cars did not leave the track. Pierce's leg was broken by a falling pole.

Major Ames E. McIntyre Retires.

Fifteen hundred spectators crowded the galleries and drill shed of the state armory at Middletown on Friday evening to witness the ceremonies attendant upon the retirement from the National Guard of Major Ames E. McIntyre, commandant of the First Battalion of which the Newburgh military companies are a part. The presentation of a beautiful silver loving cup to the retiring officer by members of his staff featured the ceremonies. The presentation was made by Captain James F. Sheehan of Newburgh, who is expected to succeed Major McIntyre.

Cantatas to Be Given.

The St. James Church choir will render the cantata, "The Story of Calvary," by Schaecker, on the Sunday evening preceding Easter and on Easter Sunday evening they will render the cantata, "The Glory of the Resurrection," by Spross, at which they will be assisted by Edith Hallett Frank of New York city as soloist. Madame Frank assisted the choir at their Christmas mass when the cantata, "The Christ Child," was given. She has a beautiful voice and affords a rare treat for the congregation.

Bought 4,000 Acres in Sullivan Co.

A Beaver Brook dispatch states that Otto Grassman, proprietor of the Half Moon House, has purchased the G. W. Van Allen property, one of the most valuable properties not only in Sullivan county, but in this section of the state. The tract contains 4,000 acres, the greater part of which is wooded with virgin forests. The estate is finely located and embraces Big Pond, one of the best spots of morning making a new map of the O. & W. railroad station property. The old map has been lost from the company records it is reported.

The Kingston Daily Freeman.

VOL. XLV.—No. 132

CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 20, 1916.

PRICE TWO CENTS

10,000 U. S. TROOPS ARE IN MEXICO

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Galveston, Tex., March 20.—American troops hunting Francisco Villa now number more than 10,000, according to advices received here today. These stated that since the first column left Columbus, N. M., additional forces have crossed the border as rapidly as they could be equipped for the march. The original force under command of General Pershing numbered about 5,000 men. Today's reports indicate that these have been more than doubled. Several regiments are still on the border, it is said, awaiting the order to advance.

MISSING WOMAN FOUND BY POLICE

After searching all Saturday night and Sunday morning Mrs. Michael J. Duffey, who wandered away from her home, No. 212 Foxhall avenue, was finally found at the Rose farm house on the Flatbush road through the efforts of the local police force who had been notified of her disappearance. Mrs. Duffey has been in poor health for some time. Saturday evening she was alone in the house as her husband, who works nights, had left and her son had gone out for a short time. When the son returned he found his mother missing. She had not taken any wraps with her and wore no hat but had thrown a shawl over her head. A general alarm was sent out when the police were notified while her husband returned home and with the assistance of several neighbors searched throughout the night and early morning, but without success. Sunday afternoon a telephone call was received by Superintendent Thomas H. Edmonston at the City Home asking him if one of the women inmates was missing. He replied there was not, and called upon Sergeant Hanley about the matter. The telephone call to the City Home was from Mrs. Rose. It seems that while Mr. Rose was driving along the Flatbush road he saw a woman sitting on the side of the road and got her to get in his car and drove her to the farm house where she was well treated. In an effort to ascertain where she came from she was closely questioned by Mr. Rose, but without success as she refused to talk. When Sergeant Hanley received the telephone message from Superintendent Edmonston he notified Mr. Duffey and the husband with Simon Wood, the patrol wagon driver, went out to the house and found that the woman Mr. Rose had picked up along the road was Mrs. Duffey.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

Unusual Events Briefly Told in Telegraph Despatches.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Bayonne, N. J., March 20.—A "velvet trail" for converts, instead of a "sawdust trail," is provided by the Rev. E. S. Doloway, who is conducting a revival at the People's Baptist Church here.

Middletown, N. Y.—It costs three times as much to keep the gods of this country as it does the Christian ministers," declared the Rev. R. I. Watkins of St. Paul's Methodist Church.

Franklin, Mo., March 20.—Mrs. Herbert Crowell has raised a lemon weighing 16½ ounces on a potted tree in her home.

Change in Organists.

Prof. E. F. Kuehn, for a number of years organist of the Clinton Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, of Kingston, has resigned that position and accepted the position as organist of the Wurts Street Baptist Church. Prof. Dodge goes to the Episcopal Church as organist. Prof. Kuehn was well liked by the large choir of the Clinton Avenue Church and will be greatly missed by both choir and members of said church. They wish him the very best success in his new position, which he will take the first Sunday in April.

Sanitarium Auxiliary Meeting.

A special meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Benedictine Sanitarium will be held at the sanitarium on Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. If stormy, the meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. N. D. J. Murphy on Andrew street. As business of great importance is to be transacted a full attendance is desired.

Mr. Atkins at Conference.

Attorney D. G. Atkins will be in Peekskill this week where he will attend sessions of the laymen of the New York Conference of the M. E. Church. Mr. Atkins will represent St. James's Church and is also a district delegate as well, to which post he was elected at the last quarterly conference.

Trinity M. E. Church Fair.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Trinity M. E. Church will hold its annual fair and musical festival in the church below on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 11 and 12.

INDEPENDENCE UNION MEETING

Casino Audience Hears England Roasted and the United States Criticized by Jeremiah O'Leary of the American Truth Society.

Eight hundred men and women, whose sympathies wherever they may be were plainly not with England and England's conduct of the war, made up an enthusiastic audience Sunday afternoon in the Casino theater on Broadway where they listened to speakers on neutrality, peace and the proper attitude for this country to hold toward the European belligerents. The Hon. Jeremiah A. O'Leary, president of the American Truth Society of New York, was the principal speaker and was given a warm reception as was also the Rev. Father John P. Neumann, rector of St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, who made an address in German. The Rev. Frederick P. Wilhelm, pastor of the Livingston Street Lutheran Church, presided over the meeting which was the sixth and most successful of a series being held by the Kingston branch of the American Independence Union. A set of resolutions were passed and a letter from Congressman Charles B. Ward was read without action.

In introducing the speaker, the Rev. Mr. Wilhelm who presided stated that the gathering was in the interest of peace and to express opposition to the machinations of those who would force this country into the war on the side of the Allies. He paid a compliment to the American Truth Society for its work in cutting down the amount of the loan made by this country to the Allies and then presented Mr. O'Leary who was warmly greeted. His subject was "Why America Should Stay Out of the Present World War."

Tall and slender, with an earnestness born of an enthusiastic belief in his cause, Mr. O'Leary opened with an expression of pride in his country and outlining his interest in the subject which interested, he said, was purely that of an American citizen. He congratulated Kingston upon the large outpouring of residents in the name of American justice and American neutrality as well as a striking recognition of the duties of citizenship.

The American people, the speaker declared, are not mules to be driven about by the politicians and their theories of government and the ship of state could not be directed by anybody else no matter how powerful a clique of politicians or newspaper editors. The most intelligent vote ever recorded in this country, he said, would next fall manifest itself in most unmistakable terms in deciding the political fates of those entrusted with the responsibilities of public office who have been derelict in their duties. The applause which greeted this statement was not lessened by the speaker's statement that he had no intention of criticizing the president of the United States.

Some pro-Ally Americans. Mr. O'Leary said, thought the European war a baseball game or a horse race where they had bet on the losing team or the losing horse and were seeking to have this country start their horse afresh. This was being attempted through turning over to one set of the belligerents all of the resources of this country, he said. To carry out this was merely to make the rich richer and the poor poorer in the U. S. A., a statement which elicited more handclapping.

"The day we dip our hands into England's gold chest that day will the war be over," was one sentence which called forth applause. After losing all our legitimate trade with the central empires, Turkey and neutral nations of Europe in return for the munitions manufactures, the speaker declared: "England has now announced her intention of buying all the gasoline John D. has to sell."

Speaking of the munitions traffic, the speaker continued: "It has been contended by those who favor this bloody traffic that it would be unneutral if we did not sell them munitions. Whoever heard of a nation violating neutrality by the exercise of a sovereign right? Whoever heard of a nation violating neutrality by placing an embargo on its exports? It has also been suggested that we should sell them because some day we might want to buy them ourselves."

"The absurdity of this contention becomes apparent from an analysis of the situation that would confront us with reference to imports in the event of a war with a foreign power. If we controlled the seas, no foreign army could invade our shores or if a foreign army did invade our shores by an unexpected landing, no foreign army could be maintained here. Under these circumstances, we would not need any munitions, or if any, we could well supply ourselves."

On the other hand, if our enemy obtained control of the seas by securing arms any more than Germany is able to secure them today. This means effectively the hypocritical suggestion that we should sell arms for our own future salvation. Let us look this traffic squarely in the face without cant or hypocrisy. Let us admit it is a stigma upon the fair name of the Republic. Let us admit that it places the Republic in a position utterly inconsistent with its traditions, in that we are supplying the sinners of war to monarchies in order that greater and stronger monarchies might live. Let us also admit that if the traffic is popular at weak nations prior to the war of 1912,

QUESTIONING SUPPOSED MEXICAN BANDITS.
The picture shows three Mexicans arrested at Columbus, N. M., being questioned by the military authorities. Shortly after this picture was taken and after the Mexicans had released, two of them were found, shot dead, in the outskirts of the town.

all it is because of the fact that the Great Britain ever since the beginning of the war and long before the war has controlled the American press and by that control, has exercised an undue influence over the minds of the American people. The truth of the matter is that the minds of the American people have been poisoned by British lies and that poison has created a prejudice against the German nation, which finds pleasure in sending arms and munitions to its enemies to crush it. "Let us admit frankly that to all intents and purposes we consider Germany our enemy and that we are aiding in Germany's destruction. Let every American citizen who is in favor of the exportation of munitions examine his conscience and ask himself the questions: 'Is it honest? Is it fair? Is it neutral? Is it consistent with the traditions of the Republic? Are we not doing to Germany what England did to the United States in the Civil War? Is it humane? Is it consistent with the duty that we owe to our American fellow-citizen of German birth or descent, whose blood, their blood and gave their energies to the creation, construction and development of our common country."

"There is another important feature. I refer to the American money which has been loaned to the Allied nations to pay for the munitions which are intended to be aimed at Germany's heart. There are two great requisites in the conduct of war—money and men. By manufacturing munitions for one side the battle-lines, who otherwise would have to be employed to make munitions of war."

"By furnishing money we multiply the resources of the side we loaned it to. We are therefore furnishing the Allies with money and with men, or I might say, with everything that a nation needs to carry on a successful and bloody war. You will remember the billion dollar loan that was asked for by the Allies with a perfectly serious face? I declare that at this very moment, the amount of credit extended to the Allies by American financiers amounts to at least two billions of dollars. At this very moment, Canada is arranging to borrow seven-five millions of dollars. At this very moment, Canadian and South American securities owned by British investors are being unloaded at high prices upon the American public. Have the American people become actually imbecile in their mad and unreasoned prejudice against the German Empire."

"Do the American people realize what Wall Street is now doing to the country? Do they realize that the money of the country is being slowly drained by Wall Street for the purpose of financing the Allied governments of Europe? Do they realize that American enterprises and American resources are being deliberately neglected and discriminated against, in order that the Allied governments may have all their wishes gratified. If we were receiving anything in return for this imbecile generosity of ours, there might be some reason for it, but what are we receiving? Over in England they tell us that we are too proud to fight. Our president has been scoffed at. Criticisms have been made by Americans of the policies of the president, but he has been lampooned and attacked to such an extent in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they stir up the ire of the American people. But Great Britain has not stopped there. England is the same old England. Our commerce with neutral nations has been destroyed. Our peaceful commerce with the Central Powers, both import and export, has been utterly destroyed. Our mails with neutral as well as belligerent nations has been seized. Our ships have been seized. Our citizens have been imprisoned needlessly and even brutally treated. Our citizens on neutral ships conveyed by force to British harbors, have been subjected to brutal indignities. Everything which was in the English press that even English newspapers warned by the government, have publicly stated that it should be stopped lest they

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—And now Father is Still in Doubt

BY F. LEIPZIGER.

ESPECIALLY during these cold winter evenings you should welcome to your home pure, wholesome, sparkling, delicious, strengthening

Half Stock Ale

The hops in this famous Ale gently smooth the nerves and calm the mind, insuring a restful, refreshing night's sleep that "knits up the unravelled sleeve of care."

Specially bottled for family use. Try it.

PETER BARMANN

OFFICE TELEPHONE CALL 66 KINGSTON

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, March 20.—Mrs. Patrick Needham and little daughter, Mary, of Tilden street are spending a few days with her husband in New York city.

Miss Bella Krom, who has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James O. Drake, on Salem street for a week, returned to her home in Esopus Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Neher and sons of Bayard street spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Holt N. Winfield at Ulster Park.

Frank Post of Kingston was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elbert Terpening on Broadway Sunday.

Port Ewen Lodge, No. 656, I. O. O. F., will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock in their rooms in Pythian Hall.

There will be a great many changes in our village April first, as so many people will be on the move.

Mr. and Mrs. John Haggerty, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy on Broadway, returned to their home in New York city Saturday.

Mrs. James Madison of Poughkeepsie is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Viola Taylor, on Broadway.

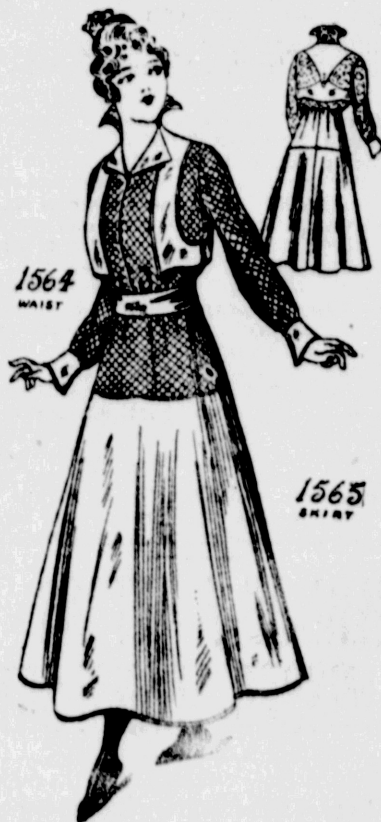

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wurts Taylor of Albany were the week end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hotelling, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Taylor.

A cabinet and business meeting of the Epworth League Society of the Methodist Church will be held in the chapel Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

On the evening of Easter Sunday the choir of the Reformed Church will render the beautiful cantata entitled "The Resurrection and the Life," by Ira Bishop Wilson. A rehearsal will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the church, at which the organist requests all the members of the choir to be present.

The Dorcas Society of the Reformed Church will be entertained on Wednesday evening of this week at the home of Mrs. Edith Terwilliger.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

Waist 1564. Skirt 1565.

Comprising Ladies' Waist Pattern 1564 and Ladies' Skirt 1565. As here shown checked suiting in brown tones is combined with brown serge. The designs would be nice in plaid silk and chiffon broadcloth, or in velvet and satin combined. As a separate skirt Pattern 1565 is very attractive in silk, gabardine, crepe, serge or velvet, and the waist, too, is nice worn separately and made of any of the pretty waist fabrics now in vogue. Georgette crepe and embroidery could be combined. Chiffon and net, batiste and lace. The Waist Pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. It requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material with 3/4 yard for the bolero for a medium size. The Skirt Pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure and requires 4 yards of 44 inch material for a 24 inch size. It measures about 4 1/2 yards at the foot.

This illustration calls for two separate patterns which will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents for each pattern in silver or stamps, by The Freeman Pattern Department. Be sure to state size wanted.

Catalogue Notice.

Send 10 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date 1916 large Spring and Summer Catalogue, containing over 400 designs of Ladies' Misses' and Children's Patterns, as well as the latest Embroidery Designs, also a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, giving valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

The KITCHEN CABINET

Stand to your work and be wise, certain of sword and pen. Being neither children, nor gods, but men in the world of men.

Usefulness is the rent we pay for room on the earth.

Don't save all your smiles for the parlor. Use a few in the kitchen.

NOURISHING SOUPS.

There is no dish which so touches the spot when one is tired as a hot, satisfying soup. To serve a well-seasoned soup, attention must be paid to its preparation and the combination of seasonings. Just a pinch or a grain of some seasoning makes or mars the dish. Follow directions when you find the kind your family enjoys, use care in measurements, and always taste the food many times to make sure that the seasoning is enough.

Emergency Soup.—Take a can of salmon, drain off the oil and rub the fish through a sieve. Add one and a half teaspoonfuls of salt to a quart of scalding hot milk, stir in the fish and four tablespoonfuls of flour that has been blended with two tablespoonfuls of the oil from the can; cook until smooth, and serve with a dash of red pepper and a sprinkling of minced parsley on the top of each cup. Serve with toasted crackers.

Corn Chowder.—Fry a half pound of diced salt pork in a big saucepan until brown; add one sliced onion and cook until light brown; then add four sliced potatoes that have been parboiled ten minutes, a can of corn and a pint of boiling water; cook until the vegetable are tender, then add a quart of rich milk, pepper, salt and a half dozen crackers which have been soaked in a little milk. Serve with a cracker on each dish of soup. Codfish may be used in this dish in place of corn and is a most satisfying chowder. Add the salt, fish, shredded and soaked, with the milk at the last.

Scotch Broth.—Soak two pounds of lean mutton from the neck in two quarts of water for an hour. Simmer for an hour and a half, adding water to keep the bulk to about three pints. Now add a carrot, an onion and a turnip, chopped fine, and a tablespoonful of barley, salt and pepper to taste. Cook three hours at the simmer point. Serve with chopped parsley and small sour pickles.

Nellie Maxwell

The Wild Beet.
Beets were first found growing wild in sandy soils near the sea in Europe and western Asia. The wild beet still found there is regarded by authority as the original type. This wild beet is slender rooted and has a taste no different from the beet we know today that one must consider the first man who tasted one and thought it possible to develop had gifts of hope and imagination far beyond ordinary. The beet has been cultivated since 200 B. C.

Antemortem Postmortem.
Visitor (to widow)—I am so sorry to hear of the sudden death of your husband. Did they hold a postmortem examination?

"Yes, and, like all those doctors, they did not hold it until he was dead, or they might have saved his life."—Medical Pickwick.

All Right if You Have Time.
Fillum—If Mrs. Bigger had a baby, which would seem to you to be the bigger, Mrs. Bigger or her baby? Spillum—The baby is the little Bigger.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

What men usually ask for when they pray to God is that two and two make not four.—Proverb.

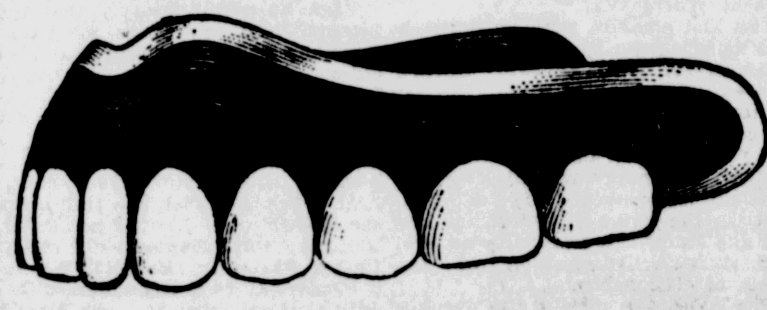

Full of Dates.
"Mamma," queried small Harry, who was munching the fruit of the date tree, "if I eat lots of these will I grow up and become a calendar?"—Kansas City Star.

Even your daughter in short dresses could make delicious "goodies" with "Presto".

"Presto" comes ready for use. Simply follow the tested recipes in and on every package.

Presto FLOUR

The H-O Company, Buffalo, N.Y.
Makers of H-O, Force, and Presto.

Sterilized Instruments

After every operation in a Cady Dental Office, instruments are sterilized by boiling them for twenty minutes. In the five offices, Kingston, Poughkeepsie, Middletown, Newburgh and Peekskill, there are ten dental nurses engaged in this work. This sterilization of instruments safeguards the 20,000 yearly patients of these offices.

CADY DENTAL OFFICE

324 Wall St. Kingston, N. Y.

SPECIAL TO MEN!

You men, who want the best clothes at the lowest possible price, there is a man in town who can fit you exactly.

A. KUNST FIRST CLASS MERCHANT TAILOR

65 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.

ASK FOR and GET HORLICK'S THE ORIGINAL MALTED MILK

Cheap substitutes cost YOU same price

AT A SPECIAL TERM OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, held in and for the county of Ulster at the county court house in the city of Kingston, N. Y., on the 4th day of March, 1916, Present, Hon. G. D. B. Hasbrouck, Justice.

Supreme court, Ulster county.—In the matter of the application of Forman's House of Up-to-Date Styles, Inc., for voluntary dissolution.

On reading and filing the petition of Ralph H. Dodds and Roger H. Loughran, a majority of the directors of Forman's House of Up-to-Date Styles, Inc., a corporation created under the laws of this state and having its principal office located in the county of Ulster and the schedule hereto annexed duly verified by the petitioners on the 7th day of February, 1916, from which petition it appears that the case is one of those specified in section 170 of the general corporation law.

And on reading and filing notice of this application dated February 7th, 1916, with proof of due service thereof and of said petition and schedule and of a copy of this order on the attorney general.

And after hearing Messrs. Van Buren & Loughran of counsel for the petitioners and the attorney general, now on motion of Messrs. Van Buren & Loughran, attorneys for the petitioners, it is Ordered, that all persons interested in said corporation show cause before Hon. G. D. B. Hasbrouck, Justice of this court at the county court house at Kingston, N. Y., on the first day of April, 1916, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon why the said corporation should not be dissolved, and it is further Ordered, that a copy of this order be published at least once in each of the three weeks immediately preceding said first day of April, 1916, in the Kingston Daily Freeman, a newspaper published in the county of Ulster.

G. D. B. HASBROUCK, Justice of Supreme Court.

VAN BUREN & LOUGHRAN, Attorneys for Petitioners, 63 John St., Kingston, N. Y.

She's well satisfied if we judge by her smile. She's just left our office, and is willing to prove that our has improved her looks and wasn't too heavy on her purse. Same service for all—up-to-date methods—work that lasts! Why not have your teeth looked over today. Costs nothing if nothing is needed.

Fine Dental Work

DR. HILL

312 Wall St. Kingston, N. Y.
Lady Attendant
Phone 863

Kingston Savings Bank

275 Wall street, Kingston, N. Y.

CHARTERED 1874.

OFFICERS

MYRON TELLER, President.
GEORGE BURGEVIN, Vice-President.
V. B. VAN WAGONER, Vice-President.
CHARLES TAPPEN, Treasurer.
CHARLES H. DE LAVERGNE, Assistant Treasurer.
HARRY ENIGON, Accountant.
JAMES A. BETTS, Counsel.

TRUSTEES

James A. Betts, George Burgevin,
Zadoc P. Boice, Levan S. Wines,
Everett Fowler, D. N. Mathews,
John E. Kraft, Sam Bernstein,
Charles Tappen, A. D. Rose,
Myron Teller, Virgil B. Van Wagener,
John J. Campbell.

Deposits made on or before April 3, 1916, and remaining in bank until July 1, 1916, will be credited with three (3) months' interest.

Interest will be paid on all sums from one dollar to three thousand dollars.

Accounts may be opened by mail for which bank bills will be forwarded on receipt of New York draft, certified check, postoffice or express money order.

Rooms for the convenience of ladies are a feature of the banking house.

Interest at the rate of 4% per annum was declared for six months ending December 31, 1915.

ULSTER COUNTY Savings Institution

250 Wall Street, Kingston, N. Y.

INCORPORATED 1882.

E. H. LOUGHRAN, President.

GEORGE W. WASHBURN, Vice-President.
HARRY R. BRIGHAM, Vice-President.
J. M. SCHAEFFER, Secretary.

JOHN B. ALLEGER, Treasurer.

JAMES J. O'CONNOR, Teller.

JOHN R. T. HALL, Bookkeeper.

PHILIP ELTING, Attorney.

TRUSTEES

Harry R. Brigham, John B. Allen,
Howard Chittip, Philip Elting,
George Hutton, E. H. Loughran,
G. D. B. Hasbrouck.

J. M. Schaeffer, John L. McGroth,
A. W. Thompson, Charles E. Wood,
O. T. Winne, Geo. W. Washburn,
G. D. B. Hasbrouck.

For the six months ending Dec. 31st, 1915, interest was credited Jan. 1st, 1916, at 4 per cent per annum.

Interest not drawn will be added to the principal and draw interest. Money deposited on or before April 3, 1916, and remaining in the bank until July 1, 1916, will be credited with three (3) months' interest.

Women and children under age have by law the control of their own saving bank accounts.

Persons living out of the city may send money by bank draft, check, postoffice order or express, and deposit book will be returned by mail.

ALL BUSINESS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.

THE RONDOUT Savings Bank RONDOUT, N. Y.

OFFICERS: J. E. DERRENDACHER, President.
T. C. COYKENDALL, 1st Vice-President.
F. H. GRIFFITH, 2nd Vice-President.
L. L. OSTERHOUDT, Secretary.
DAYTON MURRAY, Bookkeeper.

TRUSTEES: John A. Schoonmaker, E. Coykendall,
John S. The spouse,
F. Stephen, Jr.,
F. H. Griffith,
Wesley D. Hale,
J. E. Derrendacher,
J. Graham Rose,
L. L. Osterhoudt.

Interest will be paid on all sums from $5 to $25,000.

Interest at the rate of 4 per cent per annum was declared for six months ending December 31, 1915.

All deposits made on or before the 10th day of January and July draw interest from the first days of those months.

Banking hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Saturdays 9 a. m. to 12 m.

FOR SALE

7 room cottage, Washington Ave. Has all improvements, and in a first class location. Price

$3,500

7 room cottage, Grand St. All modern improvements and in first class condition. Terms to suit. Price

$2,600

One of the finest lots in the city, on Washington Ave., near Main St.

SHATEMUCK REALTY CO. Inc.,

261 Fair Street,

Kingston, N. Y.

Telephone 688.

SPECIAL STOCK

A Delicious Dark Beer

ESPECIALLY BREWED

CAREFULLY AGED

READY FOR DELIVERY

MAIL AND TELEPHONE ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED

70 Cents Per Doz.

GEO. HAUCK & SONS' BREWING COMPANY

Kingston, N. Y.

TIME TABLE FERRYBOAT TRANSPORT

In effect October 17, 1915.

Leaves Kingston—6:30, 7:40, 9:00, 9:50, 10:30 and 11:25 a. m. 12:15, 12:50, 1:30, 2:40, 3:20, 4:00, 4:40, 5:35 and 6:20 p. m.

Leaves Rhinecliff—7:15, 8:10, 9:30, 10:10 and 11:05 a. m. 12 m. 12:30, 1:05, 2:15, 3:00, 3:40, 4:25, 5:10, 6:05 and 6:45 p. m.

W. H. CONNELLY, M. D.

Physician, Surgeon and Specialist. Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. FAIR ST. KINGSTON, N. Y. Office Hours—9:30 a. m. until 12 m. Telephone 627-J.

Keep Your Bins Supplied — WITH —

CELEBRATED LACKAWANNA COAL

— FROM —

KINGSTON COAL CO.

And You Will Not Regret It

"There are reasons and then more reasons."

Telephone 593.

DELVECHIA SHOT IN SELF DEFENSE

Tony DelVecchia, the Cedarcliff Italian, who shot and killed Frank Bubo in the defense of his home in the early morning of March 13th, walked unconcernedly into the court house this morning with his daughter, Johanna, the pretty girl of 20, whose dislike for Bubo is believed to have inspired the latter's attack on the DelVecchia domicile. The pair were with Coroner Suitor and this afternoon District Attorney Traver interrogated the man and he was remanded until the conclusion of the inquest.

Frank Donato, who accompanied Bubo on his fatal call, is lying at death's door in a Poughkeepsie hospital from the effects of a gunshot wound in the side of his head. If he recovers, he will lose the sight of an eye. Bubo was killed outright, the contents of the first barrel of DelVecchia's shotgun entering his left side, some of the shot penetrating the heart and lungs.

Not a trace of DelVecchia could be found after the shooting but Under-sheriff Hornbeck put in considerable time on the trail. The sheriff's office was not informed of the shooting until 8 o'clock in the morning, but an hour later the under-sheriff boarded the 9:05 train which was stopped at Marlborough for his convenience. After his return he notified railroad and express agents on both sides of the river and hunted up friends of DelVecchia by tracing money orders sent by the latter.

At last the chase grew hot and finally friends intimidated to the authorities that they would produce the man. When it was found that probably no criminal prosecution would result in the face of the testimony of witnesses, DelVecchia was finally persuaded to come out of hiding. A boarder in his house, known as Joan, was found at Stony Cove, Dutchess county, and was so frightened at the appearance of the officers that he could not speak at all for some time.

The story of the shooting dates back to a Sunday night celebration at the DelVecchia home. There had been some drinking, it was said, and after leaving the house Bubo and Donato returned twice and made a disturbance. At the third and last call, Bubo opened fire on the front door with a revolver and DelVecchia cut loose from a second story window with a shot gun with the result stated.

A revolver and ten empty shells were found nearby the dead man and every detail supported the stories told by the DelVecchia family. Bubo, it appears, was the community bad man. He was said to be a Calabrian while the others are Sicilians. Johanna, the girl who refused Bubo's attentions, is the belle of the button factory in Marlborough and is a neat appearing dandy who made a most favorable impression at the court house. Clad in her red sweater and with a velvet hat trimmed with pinks, Miss DelVecchia attracted much attention as she ate luncheon in a nearby restaurant.

DelVecchia is a peaceable appearing man with a broad pair of shoulders who looks as though he could take care of himself in an emergency. With close-cropped black hair and moustache, he told his side of the affair in a straightforward fashion. His reason for hiding was that he feared he would be imprisoned for the homicide.

Extra Allowance Granted.

Judge Morschauser at the Newburgh special term of the supreme court, on Saturday granted an extra allowance of $2,000 to the defendants in the case of James D. Lecky against James O. Winston and Thomas S. Winston. This was the action brought by Lecky to recover $345,000 from the Winstons, which the referee, the Hon. Marcus T. Hun of Albany, decided against Lecky and in favor of the Winstons. The referee stated in The Freeman. The referee certified that in his opinion the case was one in which the defendants were entitled to the additional allowance provided by the code. Rockwood and Haldane of New York and Senator Edgar T. Brackett of Saratoga Springs are attorneys for Lecky and Judge Clearwater for the Winstons.

Men Have No Sense of Humor.

Here is what girls laugh about: They came home, three of 'em, laughing hysterically. It was several minutes before they could tell what had set them off. Finally it developed that they walked home from the picture show, right by the grocery store, and just as they reached the next corner, Mary made them all go back to the store after some ginger snaps.—Kansas City Star.

Chameleon Scared Whits.

Madagascar is the home of the chameleon. In his just published book, "A Naturalist in Madagascar," James says the chameleon changes color for other reasons than adaptation to its background. He saw one that turned perfectly white out of sight when seized in the coils of a snake. When released it resumed its ordinary color. The Malagasy call it mihelohelo, which means "naughty old boy."

Common Falling.

"Many a man," said Uncle Eben, "thinks he can tell you what you ought to do when he can't tell what he ought to do himself."

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our thanks to our neighbors and friends who tendered their sympathy and service during our recent sad bereavement. We feel especially grateful for the beautiful floral offerings.

JOHN MCNELIS AND FAMILY, Connelly, N. Y.

FASHION REVIEW AT VAN WAGENEN'S

The ladies of Kingston and vicinity are to be treated Thursday and Friday of this week to a fashion review, on living models, that will rank in importance with any similar exhibition that has ever been given in this state, outside of New York city. This spring fashion review is to be held at the Van Wageningen store on Wall street, and in addition to a group of charming young ladies from their own sales force, they will be assisted by several professional models, who will come from New York city for the occasion.

The apparel to be shown consists of military dresses, coats, tailleur suits, lingerie and blouses, all of which will be introduced in the latest and most exclusive modes.

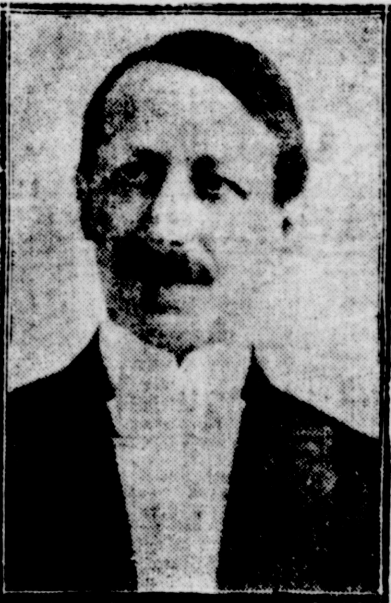

This exhibition will take place in the attractive Van Wageningen apparel shop on the second floor which will be transformed into a beautiful spring garden, and during the promenade visitors will have ample opportunity to criticize or ask questions about the various displays. Spring musical selections will be rendered by Muller's orchestra.

This novel display will be held on Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 and on Friday morning from 11 to 12, and Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30.

SOCIALIST CONVERT TO CHRISTIANITY

David Goldstein to Lecture Tuesday Evening in High School Auditorium Under Auspices of Knights of Columbus.

Arrangements were completed by Kingston Council, No. 275, of the Knights of Columbus last night for the free lecture by David Goldstein of Boston, on "Peace and War," which is to be held at the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, March 21, at 8 o'clock. It is announced that Mr. Goldstein will deal with his subject under three headings, giving the causes of war and the way to establish peace in our domestic, industrial and governmental relations.

DAVID GOLDSTEIN.

Mr. Goldstein will make plain the Christian attitude on these three phases of his subject, while he exposes the false teachings of radicals.

What causes family disruption? What solution do Catholics offer for divorce and its kindred modern evils?

What causes the industrial conflicts of our time? How would Catholics establish industrial peace? What is the cause of war?

Does the European war prove Christianity to be a failure?

What is needed to establish and maintain an enduring peace of nations?

What has the church done for international peace? What can she do today?

Does obedience to the Pope in matters of faith and morals conflict with the patriotic duty of Catholics to their country?

Is there a higher form of patriotism than that taught by the Catholic Church? These are some of the questions Mr. Goldstein will answer in his address Tuesday night. His arguments are said by his friends to stand the tests of right-reason but his enemies are not so complimentary.

Mr. Goldstein is a convert to the Catholic faith, having been baptized on May 21st, 1905, which was two years after he resigned from the Socialist movement.

For Benefit of Catskill Hospital.

Catskill society folks have interested themselves in the Catskill hospital and will hold an Easter reception in the Catskill armory on Monday evening, April 24. The proceeds of the ball will be used toward enlarging and improving the male and female wards which are now overcrowded. The hospital is conducted by the Misses Anna M. Woerner and Miss Theresa Corrigan, formerly of this city.

The Rabbit Scored.

A cottager and his wife endeavored to capture a wild rabbit by holding a net along the end of their garden, which borders a deep canal. Making a final dash, the rabbit ran toward the woman and tripped her, causing her to overbalance and fall into the canal. Her husband dived to her rescue, and but for the timely assistance of two men both would have been drowned.—London Observer.

HOORNBECK SENT TO REFORMATORY

In county court this afternoon Clyde Hoornbeck, indicted for burglary in the third degree in having entered the Ellenville Casino on November 5, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the Elmira Reformatory.

Charles Guadagnola, indicted for manslaughter in the first degree for killing an unknown tramp in his saloon near Saugerties, on February 14, pleaded not guilty and was held in $5,000 bail. City Judge Brinler appeared for him.

Christopher Planagan was assigned as counsel for John Fay and Forrest D'Armo, indicted for burglary in Ellenville.

The cases of Delbert Van Horn and Fred Van Steenburgh were held for further action.

SOCIETY NOTES.

On Saturday evening, Mrs. E. E. McClure was tendered a birthday surprise at her home on Wall street by a few of her intimate friends. She was the recipient of many gifts and congratulations. During the evening a delicious little supper was served.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle at High Woods recently and all present had a most enjoyable time. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Manning of Syracuse, Mr. and Mrs. Scott of Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. Purdy of New York city, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson of Kingston, John Doyle of Syracuse, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams of Kingston, and Benjamin Doyle of the Stuyvesant Hotel. From High Woods the party returned to the home of Mrs. Williams, No. 49 Gill street for a short visit.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Emma E. Van Etten at her home, No. 351 Broadway, on Friday evening, March 17. A most enjoyable time was had by those who attended. Games, music and vocal selections were enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes, voting Miss Van Etten a royal entertainer. Those present were Helen Shubert, Alma Koepfen, Lois Christiana, Catherine Rosa, Elsie Liebert, Loretta Thomas, Sadie Rosenberg, Nettie Saunders, Bertha Sherry, Margaret Kelder, Vera Mae Van Etten, Mrs. Ira Saunders, Mrs. George Sherry, Theodore Shubert, John Dunbar, William Joy, Alfred Messinger, Carl Thiel, Louis Shubert, Charles Baxter, Frank Albrecht, Francis Perry and Aaron Rice.

"Hansel and Gretel" Tonight.

This evening a song recital of Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" will be given at the chapel of the First Dutch Church by Mrs. Margaret Raper for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church. The opera is one of the most charming of modern operatic works, and a delightful evening is assured all who attend the recital.

Reception to Miss Deyo.

One of the special features of the piano recital to be given by Miss Ruth Deyo at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium on the evening of Tuesday, April 4th, will be a reception given Miss Deyo, following the recital. Mrs. Philip Elting, regent of Wiltywyck Chapter, D. A. R., will give a reception to Miss Deyo, following the recital, in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. building, in order that the people of Kingston may have the pleasure of meeting Miss Deyo, personally. To this reception, Mrs. Elting cordially invites all who attend the concert, which will be given under the auspices of Wiltywyck Chapter. This added sociability following the recital, and given in the same building should be indeed appreciated by all who hear Miss Deyo play, and a warm welcome, socially should be given this celebrated young woman who really claims Ulster county as her home.

Steinhart-Mones.

Miss Anna H. Mones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Mones, of 79 Broadway, and Benjamin Steinhart of New York city, were united in marriage at Brustmann's Hall on Meadow street on Sunday evening by Rabbi M. Miller. The wedding was one of the most notable in New York circles in a number of years. The bride looked charming in white and carried a huge bouquet of bridal roses. She was attended by Miss Gussie Steinhart, Mrs. H. Steinhart and Mrs. H. Levine, while the groom was attended by J. Sc. of Kingston, H. Steinhart of New York and H. Levine of Passaic, N. J. There were a number of guests present from Bridgeport and New York city. Following the ceremony dancing was enjoyed and an elaborate repast served. Mr. and Mrs. Steinhart left this afternoon on the 2:15 o'clock train for New York city and from there will go to Bridgeport. Conn. After a honeymoon trip they will reside at 79 Broadway, this city. The bride has a host of friends in this city who wish them both a long and happy married life.

Last week the Circles of Mercy were able to make unusual progress in the preparation of the surgical dressings for the wounded men of the allied troops, because at the Thursday morning session, at the Friday afternoon session and again Saturday morning they had many helpers who did excellent work. What was accomplished was sufficient evidence that "many hands make light work" and it might well be added that they also turn out much work. One of the helps very highly appreciated, is the picking of the oakum by the Boy Scouts, for upon this task depends the making of the large pads. On Saturday morning last, the following 41 boys were at the Y. M. C. A. and made their fingers fly in the good cause: Troop—George Allen, Harry Schryver, George Walters, Thomas

Hayes, Thomas Rowland, Max Oppenheimer, John DeWitt, A. Thompson, R. Mac Padden, Percy Jones, Dick Gruver, George Macholdt, Paul Nelson, Charles Prescott, Francis Keough, Bertram Margolis, Milton Budd, Harold Scherick, Judson Benlen, Roy Van Buren.

Troop 2—Frank Strubel, Harry Hutton, Bernard Burger, A. Britcliffe, James Hills, Clifford Finley, Ralph Hector, Harold Morgan, Orville Giles, Wilford Hahn, Christopher Messinger, Ernest Stengle, Christopher Mac Millan, Fred Port. Troop 3—H. Saduskie, Fred Sahloff, William Paulus, John Coumbe, Alvin Barber, E. Werba-lousky, James Hicks.

Bert Margolis of Troop 1 was appointed captain for Saturday's meeting.

Lucy Gates As Opera Singer.

When Lucy Gates, the coloratura soprano who will appear at the last of the Dodge subscription concerts on Wednesday evening at the high school auditorium, returned to this county because of the European war, she was invited to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House, by Gatti Casazza and with the Chicago Opera Company by Mr. Campanini. Having been heard by both of these noted managers she was immediately offered engagements by both, but chose the Chicago offer as being the better one and she created a decided sensation whenever she sang with this noted opera company. This is only what might be expected, for making her bow in Berlin in "Der Freischutz," she became a pronounced success in that city of music at that time. She has sung with equal favor in operas tragic classic and popular. Personally, Miss Gates has had a most interesting and charming life. She is the grand-daughter of the famous pioneer President Brigham Young, whom she is said to resemble, in features and in her personal magnetism and ability to make and hold friends. She is devoted to her Utah home, friends and religion, and has always been ready to serve her people either at home or abroad. Miss Gates was presented to the musical world several years ago, in the east, by the famous manager, Major James B. Pond, who saw her leave for Paris to pursue her studies and who said to her on departing, "The old major will not live to see your triumph, Lucy, but it will come, and when it does, tell the world that the major never made a mistake in genius." The other soloist will be Alexander Bloch, violinist. Single tickets for this concert are now for sale at Rider's music store, and may also be secured at the high school building on Wednesday evening.

St. Patrick's Day Party.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mowell of the Hudson House, No. 3 North Front street, opened their large and handsomely furnished rooms to a host of friends, who gathered to surprise and celebrate the 58th birthday of Mrs. Frank McSpirt of 164 Pine street. Mrs. McSpirt went to attend services at St. Joseph's Church and on her return instead of going home was side-tracked to Mrs. Mowell's home. On entering the house she was ushered into the parlor. At this time the lights were turned on and to her great surprise about seventy familiar faces appeared to her, and started singing "The Wearing of the Green." The parlor, dining room and spacious hall were brilliantly lighted, and decorated with large American flags, while from the ceilings and side walls hung streamers of green and white. In the dining room the table covering was green and white, the napkins bearing the name of the guests at each place holding a name card in the shape of a hat made also of green. The center of the table was graced by two large birthday cakes, one trimmed with American flags and one with green flags in. Here was where a bountiful supper was served to all. In the parlor Miss Anna Remus and Miss Elizabeth McSpirt dispersed sweet music for singing. In the large hall a Graphophone did its full share for dancing, while in another room games were played. Green caps graced the heads of the ladies, while shamrocks were worn by the men in their buttonhole. Mrs. McSpirt was born in Kingston and has always lived here, and by her kind and gentle manner has endeared herself to many loving friends, who on this occasion presented her with many useful gifts. During the evening a telegram of congratulations was read from Mrs. McSpirt's only sister, Mrs. Katie Ahearn, now of Paterson, N. J. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Mowell, Jennie and Cecil Mowell, Mrs. Hasbrouck, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McSpirt and family, Kathryn, Elizabeth and James, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McSpirt and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Speers, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Speers, Mrs. D. McSpirt and daughter, Mina, George DuMont, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Steinhart, Mrs. Elizabeth McSpirt, Mrs. Zella Voorhes, Miss Anna Peppard, Miss Dorothy Booth, Mr. and Mrs. John Byrnes, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Doyle and the Misses Dorothy, Nellie Kathryn, Irene and Gertrude Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Remus, Anna and Freda Remus, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Remus, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Remus, Loretta and Eddie Remus, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bassett, Mrs. James Howard and daughters, Anna and Kathryn, Mrs. John Keegan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Geisel, Miss Evelyn Ashworth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henninger, Mrs. A. Lewis, Harry Altling, Arnold Bowman, Mrs. Bowman, Nellie Keyser, Miss Mary Kain, Mr. Longyear, and last but not least, Edward S. Doyle, who acted as toastmaster. Kenneth Bassett, made the affair one long to be remembered.

When Inclosing Stamps.

Here is a hint for my own benefit as well as yours: When sending a postage stamp in a letter instead of moistening one corner and sticking it to the paper, moisten a small spot in the center of the stamp and the affix it to your inclosure. The removal of a small part of the center of the glued back in no way impairs the usefulness of the stamp, but the corner often tears off.—Exchange.

Hay and Straw on Platforms.

In Mexico, farmers instead of fencing in their hay and straw stacks, erect them on platforms out of the reach of cattle.

Health Hint.

Eat less meat and more fruits and vegetables, and you will have better health.

WE WANT

Every Woman Every Man Every Child

To Know the Date

THURSDAY, MAR. 23

The Sale of Wolven Stock

Begins
at

Kingstons Popular Store

CARLS

E. O. ROSE - V. A. GORMAN - A. E. RICH

3:00, 7:15
9:00
PICTURES
DAILY

TODAY
V. L. S. E. announce
FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN and RUTH STOKENHOUSE
—IN—
"THE SLIM PRINCESS"
A Big Four Production.

Coming Wednesday "THE SALAMANDER" by Owen Johnson, now writing for the Cosmopolitan and Thursday

3:00, 7:15
9:00
PICTURES
DAILY

AUDITORIUM
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING
ADULTS 10c CHILDREN 5c

TOMORROW
"The Last Days of Pompeii"
In eight reels. Made at Pompeii, Italy. From the novel by Lord Bulwer Lytton. A massive production.

DAY'S DOINGS IN CONGRESS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, March 20.—House met at 11 o'clock.

Senate met at noon.

House resumed consideration of Hay army bill.

Congressmen from Pacific coast states urged upon house naval affairs committee establishment of navy yard on west coast large enough to accommodate capital ships and permit their construction.

Senate post offices and post roads committees held hearings on the railway mail pay bill.

Senate judiciary committee considered Prohibition legislation.

Cadet Corps in High School.

Final plans will be completed this week for the formation of the military company in the Poughkeepsie high school to be known as the Cadet Corps. Training will take place in the state armory under the supervision of the Spanish war veterans. Enlistment will be purely voluntary, and will include boys between the ages of 15 and 20 years. Those under 18 years, however, will not carry rifles, but will participate in everything else, including drills, calisthenics, wall scaling and general manoeuvres.

Army Bill Amendment Lost.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, March 20.—By a vote of 183 to 163 the house today rejected the Kahn amendment to the Hay army bill, which was designed to increase the regular army to a maximum of 220,000.

Shade for Light.

For the electric light in the boudoir or bedroom there is a useful novelty in the way of a shade. This is an exquisite little lady dressed in rose silks and gold lace, after the style of the ladies of the court of Louis Quinze. The skirt forms the shade and the light shining through the satin and lace takes on a lovely soft glow.

Health Hint.

Eat less meat and more fruits and vegetables, and you will have better health.

EMOTIONAL ACTRESSES.

Temperament on the Stage and the Task of Managing It.

You hear a lot about the artistic temperament in and out of the theatrical trenches. There's only one way to manage a temperamental woman on the stage, said a well known leading man the other day, and that is to be in love with her. I was never so fortunate myself, but I have seen it work out with others again and again. They hate the man who won't admire them, and they laugh at the man who does. Their nerves are always thumping them into action till their hearts are bursting and their brains are in a whirl.

One of our emotional actresses in her prime was the most febrile, fearless, radiant witch of a woman the stage ever had. She was always on fire, intellectually and every other way. During one engagement in New York she wasn't on speaking terms with any one in the front of the house, except her own wonderful she was. No one else dared go near her for fear she'd kill them with the first thing handy. They're just like angry leopards, some of them. They must be humored, conquered with patience, firmness and kindness.

A well known English star, who has always been famous for being difficult to manage, used to hate the sight of a manager. She could wither any man who was not her mental equal till he literally crumpled to pieces, and she loved nothing better. There were so many who were not her equal too. She knew most men were afraid of her, and she kept them in that delicious state of dread. They called it "temperament." She called it something more fitting—brains.—Theater Magazine.

One of London's Seven Curses.

There are in London thousands of poor folks whose principal meals come from the fried fish shop, because of its evil smell, has been described as "one of the seven curses of London." Yet to a hungry man the smell of fried fish is a most enticing odor. George Gissing has described how maddening it was to him in his darkest days "to smell the fish he had no money to purchase," and how, when affluent to the extent of a few coppers, he "eagerly bought and devoured the crisp golden colored slices of fresh cooked fish—surely the food of the gods."—London Chronicle.

Carlyle on Work.

Work, properly so called, is an appeal from the seen to the unseen—a devout calling upon higher powers; and unless they stand by us it will not be a work but quackery.—Carlyle.

Remember This.

To remove rings from the fingers swollen by their tightness, dip the finger in ice cold soapsuds.

Kingston Daily Freeman.

TERMS:
Per Annum in Advance.....$5.00
Per Month......42
Ten Cents Per Week.

Entered as Second-class matter at the post-office at Kingston, N. Y.,
Published by Freeman Publishing Company, at 30 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.
J. E. Klock, President; Alfred DuFon, Secretary and Treasurer; Address: 30 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.; Louis Klock, Vice-President, 245 Albany Avenue, Kingston, N. Y.

Member American Newspaper Publishers' Association.
Member New York Associated Dailies.
Official paper of Kingston City.
Official paper of Ulster County.

Please address all communications and make all money orders and checks payable to Freeman Publishing Company, 30 Broadway.

Telephone Calls:
New York Telephone—Main Office, Downtown, 1575. Uptown Office, 832.

KINGSTON, N. Y., MAR. 20, 1916.

As important to the public as to automobile dealers or the mammoth industry for which they are retail galemen is Kingston's first annual Automobile Show which will hold the boards at the Armory next week. The place of the automobile is second in importance to that of no other single product of American industry or ingenuity. Its progress from a mere craze to its present position reads like a romance of American enterprise and adaptability. So it is altogether fitting and proper that due homage should be paid to the motor car and the presence of no less a personage than the Governor of the State, together with the activities of an energetic committee of Kingston residents, gives ample assurance that the occasion will prove equal to the object. The educational side of the exhibition alone will make it of especial interest to those who are not automobile owners while the more, or less, fortunate possessors of these mechanical triumphs in locomotion will need no spur to their enthusiasm at the pleasurable prospect in store for them. Arrangements for the show are on a scale seldom heretofore attempted and these, with the co-operation of the railroads and leading business men, will mean one of the best and biggest exhibitions ever staged in the city, one in which Kingston may not only show greatest pride but the county of Ulster a wide measure of appreciation as well. Because of the efforts being put forth and the bright prospects for a conspicuous success, the advertising of the event should be on a scale in keeping with its other features to the end that the three days of the Automobile Show may establish new records in the size of the crowds of people to whom it will furnish exceptional entertainment and opportunity for education.

The extent of public confidence in a newspaper is the gauge by which its value to advertisers can best be measured. That is the verdict of big buyers of space the country over, who are today demanding that advertising be limited to legitimate merchandise, as publicity for the other kind not only hurts the newspaper which carries it but seriously impairs the honest advertiser's standing. Edward A. Filene, head of the famous Boston store which bears his name, recently told members of the Los Angeles Advertising Club that it was the failure of advertisers to discriminate in the choice of newspaper mediums that prevented the best returns from advertising. He said: "People won't respond to advertising if they have no faith in the paper they read. We foolishly and wastefully encourage disbelief in advertising by allowing the newspapers to print our ads alongside those of patent-medicine quacks, get-rich-quick schemes, 'massage parlors,' and so on. It isn't enough to have a majority of the ads in the paper honest—you can't tolerate an egg which is nineteen-twentieths good."

Mr. Filene's statement is so strikingly in accord with the policy of The Freeman that we cannot forbear comment. Mr. Filene, in his diagnosis of some advertising failures, hits the nail on the head and drives it home. The bad effect of destroying public confidence through the publication of bad advertising along with the good is made plain in this timely sermon. Evil communications not only corrupt good manners but good merchandise as well. Newspaper recognition of fake advertisers on the same scale as honest ones is a policy that dates back to the Stone Age. How long would public gatherings last if pickpockets were made welcome to mingle with the crowd so long as they had the price of admission? Yet exactly the same principle is involved in the acceptance of fake advertising by newspaper publishers, who give it as much or more prominence as that accorded the legitimate merchandise. If there is a more accurate summary of the utterly foolish attitude of some advertisers than that given by the Boston merchant quoted it has escaped our attention. There is no question that it pays to advertise but in these days the text should be amended to read that it also pays to discriminate in the medium employed.

At a recent demonstration of safety first preventive measures, Washington dispatches tell us that no less than twenty-four Federal bureaus were represented which, it must be admitted, is furniture in some quantity even for a government household. Whether or not one of these bureaus is entitled to credit for the recent bulletin from the national capital in regard to the tin can and its dangers we have no accurate knowledge, but the genius with whom that document originated must be destined for a high place among the statistical functionaries who flourish amid congenial surroundings where preventive ideas are inspired. The paper in question dealt with the dangers lurking in the discarded tin can, left neglected and alone to fill with water and ultimately become the home of a million or more mosquitoes of malaria-bearing proclivities. The importance of seizing upon such cans and punching a neat hole in the bottom was painstakingly pointed out in a 700 word article which has been widely published. In view of this extensive publicity it is sincerely to be hoped that the tin cans encountered in this summer's travel will all bear the mark of community efficiency, Washington-directed, in the form of a well-developed hole in the bottom tin.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

Novelist—"How are my novels going?" Retail Bookseller—"I can't imagine, sir, unless it's shop-lifters!"—Puck.

"That woman's tongue goes as fast as an express train." "And it's always on the rail."—Baltimore American.

"Making any special observance of Lent?" "Yes, I'm trying over again to give up the things I swore off on New Year's Day."—Detroit Free Press.

Mrs. Kowler—"Did you ever go to one of those astrologers?" Mrs. Hunderby—"No; but my daughter Kate is just crazy to have her periscope read."—Boston Transcript.

"Dad, I want to be a musician." "Then I'd be either a piper or a fiddler." "Why?" "When there is any paying to be done I notice they are preferred creditors."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Did you ever sanction vote buying?" "Never," replied Senator Sorghum, with great emphasis. "I always made my workers understand that if I ever heard of their buying votes it would show that they were crude performers who couldn't keep a secret, and I wouldn't have anything more to do with them."—Washington Star.

Just Like Him.

Sandy had been photographed, and as he was looking intently at his "pictor" Tam McPherson came along. "What that ye hiv thee?" he asked.

"My photograph," replied Sandy, showing it proudly. "What d'ye think of it?"

"Mon, it's fine," exclaimed Tam in great admiration. "It's just like ye, tae." "An' whif micht the like o' they cost?"

"I dinna ken," replied Sandy. "I hinna peyd yet."

"Mon," said Tam, more firmly than ever, "it's awfu' like ye!"—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Too Literal.

"Serbia and Belgium and such little countries mustn't take England too literally when she says she is going to help them." The speaker was Kurt Zeigler, German consul to Denver. He went on:

"To take England literally when she offers to help you is to be as foolish as the dyspeptic farmer."

"A doctor brought a dyspeptic a big brown pill one day."

"I want you to try this pill tonight at bedtime," he said. "It's a new treatment, and if you retain it on your stomach it ought to cure you."

The next day the doctor called again.

"Did you manage to retain the pill on your stomach?" he asked, eagerly.

"Well, the pill was all right," the literal farmer said, "as long as I kept awake, but every time I went to sleep it rolled off."—Washington Star.

Another Kind.

A Liverpool cotton broker, choosing a new office boy, rang up another firm to inquire the character of one of the applicants.

"Well," said the head clerk, who answered the telephone, "he's one of these 'push and go' boys."

"Good!" said the cotton broker, eagerly. "Smart and efficient, and all that, eh?"

"Not all," came the unexpected reply; "what I mean is that he only goes when you push him."—Tit-Bits.

Would Looks Things Over.

A farmer returning home late at night found a man standing beside the house with a lighted lantern in his hand. "What are you doing here?" he asked, savagely, suspecting he had caught a criminal. For answer came a chuckle, and "It's only me, zur."

The farmer recognized John, his shepherd boy. "Is it? What on earth are you doing here this time of night?"

Another chuckle. "I'm a'courtin' Ann, zur."

"And so you've come courting with a lantern, you fool. Why, I never took a lantern when I courted your mistress."

"No, zur, you didn't zur," John chuckled. "We can all see you didn't, zur."—New York Globe.

How to Select Seed Corn.

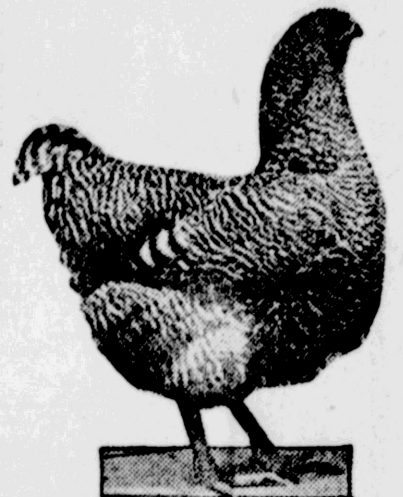

A corn-judging demonstration will be given at the high school Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Farm Bureau Manager W. H. Hook. The different methods passing on the merits of corn grown in this section will be exhibited, including the "rag baby" and "flat" tests.

IMPROVING THE FARM FLOCK

Farmer Should Not Be Afraid to Cull Closely, Weeding Out All Weakly, Undersized Fowls.

Improve the flock; it always pays. Many of the farms have good stock, but the trouble is they have too many kinds of it. It is a poor policy to buy up purebred stock and turn it loose among a half dozen other kinds, some so crossed they will stand for nearly any kind of treatment; yet this is a rule on many farms. If you give all extra care, the purebred will respond to the good treatment and do good work as long as they live, but the purebred seldom do good work under neglect; they are not used to it. The good treatment the purebred get to bring them up to the right standard becomes a necessity, and they suffer and lose out under rough conditions.

Barred Plymouth Rock Female, Bred at United States Government Poultry Farm.

If your stock is run down, improve it. Get rid of all poor stuff. Don't be afraid to cull and cull closely, says Twentieth Century Farmer. Weed out weakly, undersized fowls. Say that you have a mixed flock, with a fair sprinkling of barred hens or any color that is in close resemblance to some of the purebreds, and yet you know they are not purebred, there is nothing to hinder you from making those barred hens, or the buff, or white—whatever you may have a majority of—the basis for an improved flock that will come up to the purebred in size and looks, with possibly greater laying power and strength because of the late crosses in their blood.

It is true that if you will improve you must breed from one color. You must set aside ten or more of your best marked hens of the color decided on, which may be barred. If you have a cockerel or two as well marked as these hens and large as the barred breed requires, keep these to mate with the selected hens. If there are no cockerels of this variety to breed from, it will be best to put in a couple of the purebred Barred Rocks.

There must be some arrangement made for keeping these male birds and the selected hens in a pen to themselves during the breeding season. The expense of such a pen is very light. You cannot expect to improve your flock without some slight expense. Ten or fifteen hens will give you all the eggs you need for breeding stock next year, even after close culling. By another year you should be able to discard all your mixed stock and rely on the improved birds to form all of the flock, which will yet demand culling and good selection each year.

MANY MEDICINES FOR ROUP

With Strict Quarantine and Disinfectant in Drinking Water, Simplest Cures Are Best.

There are many medicines for roup, and with strict quarantine and disinfectant in the drinking water the simplest cures are often the best and surest, but here is one that is worth trying. When you use this you omit the disinfectant from the water, allowing all, sick and well to drink it, but never the sick with the well, remember. Give this water to them in their hospitals.

Get the druggist to mix it in this way: Two drams tincture of iron, two drams tincture of aconite, two drams tincture of belladonna. Add to this four ounces of water, and after shaking well, put a full teaspoonful to each quart of drinking water. This is to be relied on in severe colds, and also in roup if you do not let it get the start of you in the flock.

Get Rid of Vermin.

Lice live upon the bodies of the poultry. They deposit their eggs in the plumage, generally near the vent, and live upon the scurf, dead skin and feathers. To get rid of them remedies must be applied to the bird.

Charcoal Is Beneficial.

Don't neglect to have a supply of charcoal before the layers at all times. It helps to keep the flock healthy.

Good Habit.

You will get accustomed to living your life right through with a wail in it. We all have to do that. You will get accustomed to wanting, and this habit will come to be a part of your life. You will be all the better for it.—H. S. Merriman.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Chicago

New York

CHICAGO, March 13, 1916

S. Cohen's Sons,
Kingston, N. Y.

Dear Sirs:

You don't need to be told that this is a very unusual season in the clothing business. The European war has caused great disturbances in the woolen market, the dye-stuffs market, etc. Prices have been unsettled; some weavers, manufacturers of clothing, sellers of textiles have considered it wise to send out a notice of warning to the effect that dyes are uncertain and cannot be guaranteed; that all-wool fabrics may be difficult to obtain and other similar things.

A good many of our customers have written to ask what we're going to do about it. We want them and everybody else to know that they need have no uncertainty about Hart Schaffner & Marx on any of those matters.

Our fabrics will continue to be, as in the past, absolutely all-wool; our colors will be, as in the past, absolutely fast and reliable. We shall continue to sell our merchandise, as in the past, at prices that are to the advantage of the retail merchant; we shall have our usual large supply of goods to meet your requirements as promptly and as fully as ever. We shall continue our policy of creating a larger general asset of prestige and trade-drawing force, by good advertising.

There is absolutely no need to be worried about the market conditions, or anxious over what we are going to do for our customers. We're going to do what we always have done—make the best clothes possible, sell them at the lowest prices possible, deliver them as promptly as possible; and put behind every article we produce a positive and unqualified guarantee of the complete satisfaction to the wearer.

Conditions of the market may change, war may come or go; but the policy of this house will not change; and you may rest absolutely in that assurance.

Yours truly,

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX.

By M. W. G.

S. COHEN'S SONS

331 WALL ST., KINGSTON, N. Y.

A TAILOR SHOP FOR EVERYMAN

We're tailors to the masses—to the backbone of the American people—to the men with substantial households, business men, mechanics, doctors, lawyers—to men of intelligence—men who must work for every dollar they get and make that dollar go farthest. Just now we are tailoring particularly to men who wish to be correctly attired for Easter. Our wonderful collection of distinctively different weaves—especially the new BANJO STRIPES—please men immensely. We make Easter Suits that give supreme satisfaction at low prices that will surprise you.

652 BROADWAY PETER SPANKROY TELEPHONE 166

Men's, Women's and Children's Garments Cleaned, Pressed, Repaired
WE MAKE A SPECIALTY OF CLEANING KID GLOVES

TWENTY AND TEN YEARS AGO.

March 19, 1896:—Barn owned by Nicholas Neufeldt on Hasbrouck avenue collapsed from weight of snow on it.

Wallkill Valley station at Rosendale entered and robbed.

Local labor unions held revival meeting in Academy of Music.

March 20, 1896:—House of Carl Will on Hunter street slightly damaged by fire.

A junior Christian Endeavor Society organized in Rondout Baptist Church with 50 members.

The Kingston Social Club organized.

March 19, 1906:—The Rev. C. L. Palmer read paper on "Religious Journalism" at meeting of Kingston Ministers' Association.

Engagement of Miss Olga Hauck and Harry P. Dodge announced.

Boys' Athletic Association of Kingston Academy decided to hold field day in May.

S. R. Deyo Company decided to enlarge plant.

March 20, 1906:—David W. Boyd and Miss Anna Rodman married.

Stanley & Trothway took over business of Enterprise Foundry & Machine Company.

Meeting held for purpose of organizing Kingston Assembly of the Pythian Sisterhood.

Barrett May Try Exam.

All-American Halfback Barrett, of Cornell's championship football team, who has been forced to leave his alma mater because of poor scholarship, intends to try the examination for the Naval Academy, according to reports from Annapolis. If the middies should have the good luck to have this star gridiron performer with them, their 1916 team would be one of the strongest in their history because several other stars from colleges will enter the academy in the fall.

What the Bible Contains.

Somebody possessed of unlimited time and patience has figured that the Bible contains 3,586,473 letters, forming 775,693 words, 13,737 verses, 1,139 chapters and 66 books.

The Turning of the Worm

The silk worm has turned. Perhaps he has gone on strike. In any event, it is reported that the supply of raw silk is running short.

And the demand is increasing. Merchants with full silk stocks are fortunate.

Perhaps that is why they are so eager to tell the fact in the advertising columns of The Freeman.

And another reason why every woman will want to read the advertising.

RED TOP

CALLOUS PLASTER

No matter how sore your Callosities, Corns or Bunions are, this flexible, soothing plaster "sticks like a brother," removes the hard growth by softening and absorption and your feet feel fine.

The KINOX medication takes inflammation, soreness and pain right off and you walk with comfort from the start. Easy to apply, positively harmless. Handy roll, many applications, 25c.

Sure Relief—Try It Today!

KINOX CO., Rutland, Vt.

Sold by L. B. Van Wagenen Co. and Wm. F. Dedrick, Kingston, N. Y.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF New York, by the Grace of God, Free and Independent.—To Marie Esther Bourassa, 328 Sherbrooke St., Montreal, Canada; Alphonse Brousseau, 838 E. Eastlake Ave., Los Angeles, Cal.; Alexander Brousseau, La Prairie, Canada; Theresa Brousseau, La Prairie, Canada; Marguerite Brousseau, Barry Ave. and Sheridan Rd., Chicago, Ill.; Louis Brousseau, Barry Ave. and Sheridan Rd., Chicago, Ill.; Leonard Brousseau, Barry Ave. and Sheridan Rd., Chicago, Ill.; Genevieve Brousseau, Barry Ave. and Sheridan Rd., Chicago, Ill.; Louise Brousseau, Barry Ave. and Sheridan Rd., Chicago, Ill.; Pierre Brousseau, Barry Ave. and Sheridan Rd., Chicago, Ill.; Marie Anne Brousseau, Barry Ave. and Sheridan Rd., Chicago, Ill.; Marie Louise Brousseau, La Prairie, Canada; Maderise Brousseau, La Prairie, Canada; Arthur Brousseau, La Prairie, Canada; Pacific Brousseau, La Prairie, Canada.

You And Each Of You are hereby cited to show cause, at a surrogate's court to be held in and for the county of Ulster, at the surrogate's office in the city of Kingston, in said county, on the fourth day of April, next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, why the Last Will and Testament of Auguste Brousseau, late of the town of Esopus, Ulster county, deceased, presented to said surrogate's court, should not be admitted to probate and recorded as a Will of real and personal estate, in pursuance of the statute, on the petition of Paul McEwen and Eleanor Brousseau, of the town of Esopus, the executors named therein.

In Testimony Whereof, we have caused the seal of said surrogate's court to be hereunto affixed. Witness, Hon. Walter H. Gill, Surrogate of our said county, at the city of Kingston, the fifteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen.

WALTER H. GILL, Clerk of the Surrogate's Court.

Chas. F. Cossum, Attorney for Executors, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

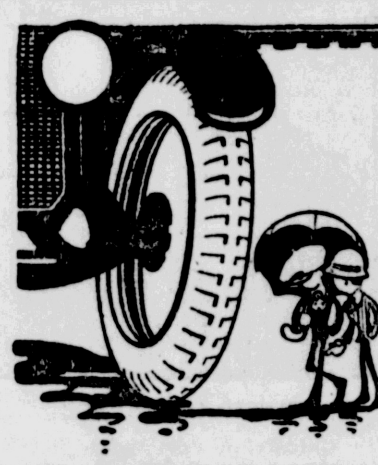

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter H. Gill, Surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Maurice Murphy, late of the city of Kingston, County of Ulster, deceased, to present the same, with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, John Gitty, the executor of the estate aforesaid, at 77 West Pierpont street, in the said City of Kingston, on or before the 30th day of March, 1916.

Dated, Sept. 27, 1915.

JOHN GITTY, Robert G. Groves, Attorney for Executor, Kingston, N. Y.

ADVERTISERS ESTIMATE THE VALUE BY THE CIRCULATION.

And The Freeman has a circulation double that of all other Kingston dailies combined.

Those Buttons that grew into Lumps

At first the projections on tires were only small buttons. But now look at them—great, solid lumps of assorted shapes and sizes!

Which shows how a wrong principle will develop if you don't catch it in time. Fortunately were never built on the idea of fastening lumps to their naturally smooth surface. Their indentations, instead of lumps, provide anti-slip protection and, more than that, reduce to a minimum the actual friction surface on the ground, adding speed at every revolution of the wheel.

BATAVIA Security Tires

Is your car tired—or are you? Try BATAVIA

CHARLES A. WARREN

Warren Bldg., Fair St.

"The Sporting Goods Store"

Ask to see Batavia Gray Tubes

BATAVIA SECURITY TIRES

Food Excellence

Good food is an indispensable thing in every home, but the food must not only be pure and good, but it must be properly cooked. This is the reason why the cook is such a necessary part of every household and why they can command such good wages.

Now the cook you want to fill the place of the one who has just left you, or the one you were dissatisfied with, is asking you to employ her today. Her appeal is in the Want Columns of this paper. Turn to them and read it now.

Freeman Want Ad cooks are renowned the country over as being of the best kind.

PALEN & BOUTON COAL COMPANY

Wilbur Ave. Phone 431

DEALERS IN

Scranton, Lehigh and Wilkes Barre

COAL

Quality, Weight and Service Guaranteed

CHARTERED 1818

THE RONDOUT NATIONAL BANK

OF KINGSTON, N. Y.

STRAND AND FERRI STREET

In the selection of a Bank some people are influenced by friendship, some by convenience, others by strength or conservatism. Each is a good reason and each is important. Our Bank offers all these advantages and in addition a highly successful career that justifies you doing your Banking Business with us.

Assets Over Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars

KINGSTON GROCERY

138 Smith Ave. Cor. Cornell St.

Formerly Duffy's, 644 1/2 Broadway.

Phone 1749J. Free Del'y

Thurs., Fri., Sat.

Sugar, pure cane, 1 lb. 6c
Pound Coffee, can Star or Clover Milk 25c
Butter, speaks for itself, lb. 30c
Rice, Barley and Corn Starch, lb. 5c
Buckwheat Flour and Table Meal, lb. 35c
Coffee, special, lb. 25-30-35c
Mother's Oats and Kellogg's Corn Flakes, pkg. 30c
Tryphosa Jelly and Gelatine, pkg. 30c
Peas, Early June, can 10c
Corn, Lima and Wax Beans, can, 8c
Salmon, Karo Syrup and Molasses, can 9c
Campbell's Beans and Soups, can, be Pineapples and Cherries, can, 12c
Asparagus Tips, California, tin, 15c
Kirkman's and Babbitt's Soap, cake, 4c

Washing Soda, 4 lbs. 5c
Sardines, 2 boxes 10c
Matches, 2 boxes 10c
Argo Starch, Reckitt's Blue, Bot. Blue 10c
Potatoes or Onions, 2 qts. 10c
Cabbage, head 10-15c
Catsup, Olives and Pickles, bot, 3c

Don't Throw It Away—Have It Replated!

ELECTRO PLATING

In Gold, Silver or Nickel
Brass Plating, Bronzing, Lacquering, Japanning!

We make a specialty of Restoring Antiques, Repairing and Replating Silverware. Save labor by having the metal parts on your Auto Nickel Plated.

Prices Reasonable Work Guaranteed

The W. G. Browne Manufacturing Co.

Kingston, — New York.

Phone 316-J

The Simplicity

Hatcher and Brooder is unlike other incubators. It is compact, simple to operate, sanitary and uniformly heated. The biggest hatcher on the market.

Canfield Supply Co.

Wholesale Dealers in Supplies for Plumbers, Tanners, Heating Engineers and Farm Machinery.

16-18 Strand and 35-37 Ferry St., Kingston, N. Y.

The Big Downtown Store.

THE ULSTER & DELAWARE RAILROAD

TIME TABLE IN EFFECT SEPT. 12, 1915:

Trains are

7,777 Prizes

First Prize

$1,000

What is the 7th Point?

From Maine to California, from Texas to Hudson Bay, millions of people have been asking "What is the 7th Point in Sterling Gum?"

In practically every town, city and village in the United States and Canada, the published six points of superiority have brought Sterling Gum fast-growing popularity.

But the seventh point still remains a riddle.

Point ⑦ What?

Now, we are offering liberal prizes to those who send us the best suggestions for the Sterling Gum Point 7.

Before you make your suggestion for the 7th Point, read the following:

The Following Story Unfolds the Secret of the Famous Point 7

To most people chewing gum is a mystery. They may know that different chewing gums are made from different ingredients. But that is about all. Here are facts which we believe you will be glad to know about Sterling Gum:

Your Sterling Gum is made from the following materials:

The basis is the pure sap of the tropical Sapota Tree—a natural gum.

This natural Sapota Tree sap is boiled, sweetened and flavored. The sweetening is simply pure cane sugar and pure corn syrup.

The flavoring is of two kinds—Peppermint (in red wrappers), Cinnamon (in blue wrappers).

There are some twenty varieties of the mint plant. The Sterling Peppermint is a product of the choicest, smoothest-flavored of these many mint varieties.

The spicy Cinnamon flavor is extracted from the Cassia bush which grows in the tropics.

The sap of the Sapota Tree, the cane sugar, the corn syrup, the Peppermint and Cinnamon flavors all come from the sap of some plant or tree. Nature herself supplies these delicious materials from which your Sterling Gum is made.

Requirements for Winning Phrase

When you read the above facts on the materials that Sterling Gum is made of, you will know all that is necessary for you to know in entering this contest.

The first prize will go to the one whose suggestion, based on the above story, most impressively presents the natural purity of Sterling Gum—in the opinion of the judges. Remember that your suggestion must be in six words or less.

The next best suggestion will win the second prize—and so on down.

It is understood that the Sterling Gum Company will have the right to use the 7 Point suggestions sent in by the prize winners.

The contest is easy to enter. Just think out your way of expressing the 7th Point. Then write it out in six words or less and send it in as directed in the conditions printed below. Even if you don't win the first prize of $1,000, you stand a chance to win one of the 7,777 smaller prizes.

Sterling

PEPPERMINT GUM

PEPPERMINT IN RED WRAPPER

CINNAMON IN BLUE WRAPPER

First Prize $1,000
Second Prize $500

Third Prize . . . $250.00
7 Prizes—each . . . $25.00
70 Prizes—each . . . $2.50

700 Prizes—each . Box of 20 five-cent packages of Sterling Gum.
7000 Prizes—each . Box of 10 five-cent packages of Sterling Gum.

Conditions of the Contest

Sterling Gum Company employees cannot enter this contest. If two answers are entitled to the same prize, the full amount of the prize will be paid to each.

All answers must come in on a postal card. On the back of the postal card write nothing but your 7 Point suggestion (six words or less) and your name and address. The postal card must be mailed in an envelope if you choose.

Mail answers to:
Sterling Prize Judges
Room 318, 405 Lexington Ave.
New York City

You may send in as many suggestions for Point 7 as you choose. But each suggestion must be written on a postal card as directed above.

Contest Closes

All answers must be received in New York by midnight of May 15, 1916.

Answers will not be examined by the judges until after that date. The judges, therefore, cannot mail acknowledgments of the suggestions received.

Now put on your thinking cap. Get your family to help you. Send in as many suggestions as you want to. All will be considered in awarding these many prizes. Do not write the Sterling Gum Company regarding the contest or its conditions as all suggestions will be judged by the Prize Committee named above.

The Sterling Gum Co., Inc., New York
The Sterling Gum Co. of Canada, Ltd., Toronto

Try One and See.

It is believed that all lions are "left handed." A famous explorer says that when a lion desires to strike a forcible blow it nearly always uses the left paw.

On Him.

"You haven't got anything on my husband," said the woman in the drug store. "Oh, yes, I have," replied the druggist; "he's wearing a porous plaster he hasn't paid me for yet."

NEW PALTZ.

New Paltz, March 18.—Raymond Hasbrouck has bought out the store of Everett Schoonmaker on Main street.

George Currie is carrying the mail from Gardiner to New Paltz via Clintondale in the place of Joseph Alsdorf, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Freer of Accord, whose property was nearly all destroyed by fire have, moved to New Paltz.

Joseph Deyo and family of Gardiner and Stephen L. Johnston of this village, who have been spending some time in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, started on their return in Mr. Deyo's automobile last week.

The Glee Club of the high school received a large audience who were entertained delightfully.

Mr. Pappas, the Greek, who has rented the Elting Harp store on Main street, is having it fitted up in such fine style that New Paltz people will open their eyes.

Mrs. Ackert of the Times celebrated her 85th birthday a few days ago.

The Study Club will meet with Mrs. H. B. LeFever on Tuesday, March 21.

Fred Palmatier and wife of this village spent the week end with his mother and grandparents in Plutarch.

No school at the normal Wednesday afternoon and Thursday forenoon on account of the sidewalks and the bad storm.

(By La Raconteuse.)

It is hard to believe that the garment illustration is a negligee. To the casual observer it would undoubtedly seem to be a charming dance gown. The material is a pattern of figured silk that shades from a rose to a rich gold tone. The harem hem with its wreath of dainty roses is a distinctive feature. The bouffant hip drapery, round necked bodice and flowing chiffon drapes are particularly notable.

WHITFIELD.

Whitfield, March 18.—Our place is still in the grip of the blizzard. Although the snow has ceased, the wind is blowing severely. One farmer came in from the barn asking if any of us had located his hat. He said it had blown away and the last seen of it, after a severe chase, it was going up another hill, so he discontinued the chase through the heavy snow, and thinks he will wait until warm weather to find it. Last season he placed a new umbrella in his corn field to frighten the crows, that also went the way the wind blew and never returned. Now, he says never again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Webster Markle of New Paltz and daughter Lois, visited this place the past week.

The snow drifts from this place to Accord remind us all of the old canal. All that remains is the tow path and horses, and warm weather.

All engaged in artificial incubation and are uncertain about moisture, try wetting the hands each morning in warm water just before turning the eggs, also sprinkle with warm water when returning the trays to the incubator. Try it.

Communication would cease, if we as neighbors had no phone in our dwellings. We can talk our business if we cannot get through the drifts.

Some of our neighbors are kind. We would be obliged to remain at home during the services at church, but they are willing to take those who will go with their large sleighs.

Treatment of Walls.

If a molding is liked from which to hang the pictures that do so much to make our rooms homelike, the best height for the molding is in line with the top of the doors. The modern idea seems to be to bring the window work to the floor by using a paneling beneath the sill, and to carry the tops of doors and windows to a fixed line—the molding line. Thus the walls are divided into rectangular spaces, and the decorative effect of a good paper is enhanced. A plain paper has the dignity of a panel when so used.

NCR SERVICE

LOOK FOR THIS SIGN IN THE WINDOW

Gigantic Butterflies.

The largest butterflies are found in British Guiana, some of which have a wing measurement of 11 inches.

SUPREMACY, ULSTER COUNTY.

Norristown Trust Co., as trustee for the benefit of the holders of the bonds secured by a mortgage or deed of trust executed by North River Stone Company, plaintiff, against North River Stone Company, et al, defendants. Notice of sale.

By virtue of a judgment of foreclosure and sale duly made and entered in the office of the clerk of the county of Ulster, in the above entitled action, bearing date February 19, 1916.

1. The undersigned, the referee in said judgment named, will sell at public auction on April 10, 1916, at 12 o'clock noon of that date at the front door of the county court house, in the city of Kingston, county of Ulster and state of New York, he premises directed by said judgment to be sold, and therein described as follows: ALL THOSE CERTAIN premises and parcels of land situate in the county of Ulster and state of New York and more particularly described in a deed thereof, from Nathan L. Miller, the comptroller of the state of New York, for the people of said state, to George Sanderson of the city of Scranton, Pennsylvania, and dated March 27, 1902, and recorded in the clerk's office of Ulster county the first day of May, 1903, in book of deeds No. 378 on page 210, to which deed reference is hereby made for more particular description; and also all of the premises and property situate in the said county of Ulster, heretofore conveyed by George Sanderson, et ux, to Virgil O. Strickler by deed dated December 12, 1906, and recorded in the clerk's office of Ulster county December 14, 1906, in book of deeds No. 398 on page 216; being the same premises which Virgil O. Strickler and Helen F. Strickler, his wife, and Joseph E. Kennedy and Nellie Kennedy, his wife, by their indenture dated the 13th of September, 1907, and recorded on the 15th day of January, 1908, in book 400 of deeds at page 160, granted and conveyed unto the North River Stone Company, party of the first part hereto.

Also all shops, factories, stables, sheds, engine houses, tanks, scales, quarry, quarries, lime kilns, elevators and other buildings, improvements, railroad tracks, siding, sidings, wharf, wharfs and wharfing rights and privileges, rights of way, easements, tools, engines, boilers, pumps, and all machinery, fixtures and appliances, and all and singular the appurtenances, property and things of every kind, nature or description thereon erected or therein placed and used in connection with the business of the company.

TOGETHER with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances belonging or in any wise appertaining to any real property herein described and the reversions, remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof; and also all the estate, right, title, interest, property, possession, claims and demands whatsoever, every part thereof, with the appurtenances; also all rights, privilege and franchises which do now or may at any time hereafter belong to the company, including trade marks, trade names, good will, processes, formulas, patents and patent rights, licenses and inventions of every kind and nature whatsoever.

Dated, February 19, 1916.
JOSEPH M. FOWLER,
Referee.

Alton B. Parker, attorney for plaintiff trustee.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Louisa Thielemann, late of the town of Rosendale, county of Ulster, deceased, intestate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Charles H. Thielemann, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, at his residence in Whiteport, town of Rosendale, in the said county of Ulster, N. Y., on or before the 8th day of September, 1916.

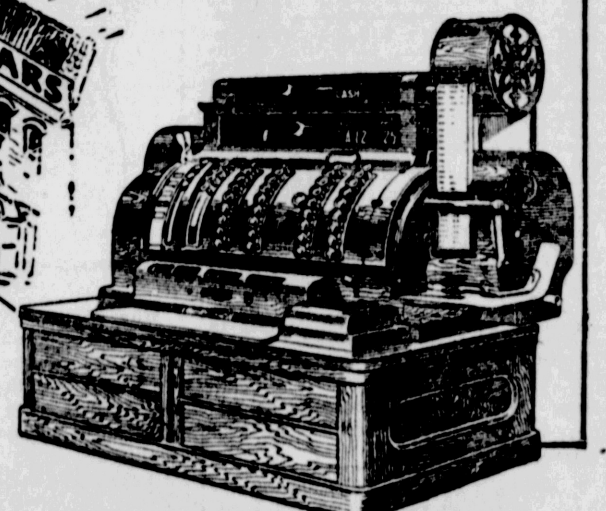

Dated, March 4th, 1916.
CHARLES H. THIELEMAN, Administrator.

Frederick Stephan, Jr., Attorney for Administrator, 21 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.

The National Cash Register Company
Dayton, Ohio

MERCHANTS!!

We have new 1916 models that give this perfect service. Write us today or see our agent in your city and learn how you can secure one of these public service machines. Liberal allowances are made for old National Cash Registers that were good in their day, but do not so completely protect you or give the valuable service our 1916 Models do. Address Dept. Z.

It is a business necessity.

It gives the wholesaler additional assurance that the merchant will have money to pay his bills.

It furnishes the banker and the wholesaler mechanical evidence that the merchant's statement of his business is correct.

It assures the banker additional security for the money he loans the merchant.

It protects each clerk against making errors and against the mistakes of others.

It promotes more and quicker sales.

It gives the merchant all his profits. It gives him more money for his family.

It saves shoppers' time.

It prevents disputes over charges and bills paid.

On this is also printed the date of the sale and who made it.

It prints on this the amount paid or charged.

It furnishes every customer with a receipt or sales slip.

THE original Cash Register rang a bell, indicated and recorded the amount of the purchase. It benefited the merchant only.

That concerns all merchants and all people

A Great National Public Utility

DELVECHIA SHOT IN SELF DEFENSE

Tony Delvechia, the Cedarville Italian, who shot and killed Frank Bubo in the defense of his home in the early morning of March 13th, walked unconcernedly into the court house this morning with his daughter, Johanna, the pretty girl of 20, whose dislike for Bubo is believed to have inspired the latter's attack on the Delvechia domicile. The pair were with Coroner Sutor and this afternoon District Attorney Traver interrogated the man and he was remanded until the conclusion of the inquest.

Frank Donato, who accompanied Bubo on his fatal call, is lying at death's door in a Poughkeepsie hospital from the effects of a gunshot wound in the side of his head. If he recovers, he will lose the sight of an eye. Bubo was killed outright, the contents of the first barrel of Delvechia's shotgun entering his left side, some of the shot penetrating the heart and lungs.

No trace of Delvechia could be found after the shooting but Under-sheriff Hornbeck put in considerable time on the trail. The sheriff's office was not informed of the shooting until 8 o'clock in the morning, but an hour later the under-sheriff boarded the 9:05 train, which was stopped at Marlborough for his convenience. After his return he notified railroad and express agents on both sides of the river and hunted up friends of Delvechia, by tracing money orders sent by the latter.

At last the chase grew hot and finally friends intimating to the authorities that they would produce the man. When it was found that probably no criminal prosecution would result in the face of the testimony of witnesses, Delvechia was finally persuaded to come out of hiding. A boarder in his house, known as Joan, was found at Stony Core, Dutchess county, and was so frightened at the appearance of the officers that he could not speak at all for some time.

The story of the shooting dates back to a Sunday night celebration at the Delvechia home. There had been some drinking, it was said, and after leaving the house Bubo and Donato returned twice and made a disturbance. At the third and last call, Bubo opened fire on the front door with a revolver and then Delvechia cut loose from a second story window with a shot gun with the result stated.

A revolver and ten empty shells were found nearby the dead man and every detail supported the stories told by the Delvechia family. Bubo, it appears, was the community bad man. He was said to be a Calabrian while the others are Sicilians. Johanna, the girl who refused Bubo's attentions, is the belle of the button factory in Marlborough and is a neat appearing dame who made a most favorable impression at the court house. Clad in her red sweater and with a velvet hat trimmed with pink, Miss Delvechia attracted much attention as she ate luncheon in a nearby restaurant.

Delvechia is a peaceable appearing man with a broad pair of shoulders who looks as though he could take care of himself in an emergency. With close-cropped black hair and moustache, he told his side of the affair in a straightforward fashion. His reason for hiding was that he feared he would be imprisoned for the homicide.

Extra Allowance Granted.

Judge Morschauser at the Newburgh special term of the supreme court, on Saturday granted an extra allowance of $2,000 to the defendants in the case of James D. Lecky against James O. Winston and Thomas S. Winston. This was the action brought by Lecky to recover $45,000 from the Winstons, which the referee, the Hon. Marcus T. Hun of Albany, decided against Lecky and in favor of the Winstons. The referee stated in his opinion the case was one in which the defendants were entitled to the additional allowance provided by the code. Rockwood and Haldane of New York and Senator Edgar T. Brackett of Saratoga Springs are attorneys for Lecky and Judge Clearwater for the Winstons.

Men Have No Sense of Humor.

Here is what girls laugh about: They came home, three of 'em, laughing hysterically. It was several minutes before they could tell what had set them off. Finally it developed that they walked home from the picture show, right by the grocery store, and just as they reached the next corner, Mary made them all go back to the store after some ginger snaps.—Kansas City Star.

Chameleon Scared Whits.

Madagascar is the home of the chameleon. In his just published book, "A Naturalist in Madagascar," James Joyce says the chameleon changes color for other reasons than adaptation to its background. He saw one that turned perfectly white out of sight when seized in the coils of a snake. When released it resumed its ordinary color. The Malagasy call it malalohoka, which means "naughty" or "bad boy."

Common Felling.

"Many a man," said Uncle Eben, "thinks he can tell you what you ought to do when he can't tell what he ought to do himself."

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our thanks to our neighbors and friends who tendered their sympathy and service during our recent and bereavement. We feel especially grateful for the beautiful floral offerings.

JOHN MCNEILS AND FAMILY, Connelly, N. Y.

FASHION REVIEW AT VAN WAGENEN'S

The ladies of Kingston and vicinity are to be treated Thursday and Friday of this week to a fashion review, on living models, that will rank in importance with any similar exhibition that has ever been given in this state, outside of New York city. This spring fashion review is to be held at the Van Wagenen store on Wall street, and in addition to a group of charming young ladies from their own sales force, they will be assisted by several professional models, who will come from New York city for the occasion.

The apparel to be shown consists of military dresses, coats, tailleur suits, lingerie and blouses, all of which will be introduced in the latest and most exclusive modes.

This exhibition will take place in the attractive Van Wagenen apparel shop on the second floor which will be transformed into a beautiful spring garden, and during the promenade visitors will have ample opportunity to cruise or ask questions about the various displays. Spring musical selections will be rendered by Muller's orchestra.

This novel display will be held on Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 and on Friday morning from 11 to 12, and Friday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30.

SOCIALIST CONVERT TO CHRISTIANITY

David Goldstein to Lecture Tuesday Evening in High School Auditorium Under Auspices of Knights of Columbus.

Arrangements were completed by Kingston Council, No. 275, of the Knights of Columbus last night for the free lecture by David Goldstein of Boston, on "Peace and War," which is to be held at the high school auditorium on Tuesday evening, March 21, at 8 o'clock. It is announced that Mr. Goldstein will deal with his subject under three headings, giving the causes of war and the way to establish peace in our domestic, industrial and governmental relations.

DAVID GOLDSTEIN.

Mr. Goldstein will make plain the Christian attitude on these three phases of his subject, while he exposes the false teachings of radicals. What causes family disruption? What solution do Catholics offer for divorce and its kindred modern evils?

What causes the industrial conflicts of our time? How would Catholics establish industrial peace? What is the cause of war?

Does the European war prove Christianity to be a failure? What is needed to establish and to maintain an enduring peace of nations?

What has the church done for international peace? What can she do today?

Does obedience to the Pope in matters of faith and morals conflict with the patriotic duty of Catholics to their country?

Is there a higher form of patriotism than that taught by the Catholic Church? These are some of the questions Mr. Goldstein will answer in his address Tuesday night. His arguments are said by his friends to stand the tests of right-reason but his enemies are not so complimentary.

Mr. Goldstein is a convert to the Catholic faith, having been baptized on May 21st, 1905, which was two years after he resigned from the Socialist movement.

For Benefit of Catskill Hospital.

Catskill society folks have interested themselves in the Catskill hospital and will hold an Easter reception in the Catskill armory on Monday evening, April 24. The proceeds of the ball will be used toward enlarging and improving the male and female wards which are now overcrowded. The hospital is conducted by the Misses Anna M. Woerner and Miss Theresa Corrigan, formerly of this city.

The Rabbit Scored.

A cottager and his wife endeavored to capture a wild rabbit by holding a net along the end of their garden, which borders a deep canal. Making a final dash, the rabbit ran toward the woman and tripped her, causing her to overbalance and fall into the canal. Her husband dived to her rescue, and but for the timely assistance of two men both would have been drowned.—London Observer.

HOORNBEEK SENT TO REFORMATORY

In county court this afternoon Clyde Hoornbeek, indicted for burglary in the third degree in having entered the Ellenville Casino on November 5, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the Elmira Reformatory.

Charles Guadagnola, indicted for manslaughter in the first degree for killing an unknown tramp in his saloon near Saugerties, on February 14, pleaded not guilty and was held in $5,000 bail. City Judge Brainerd appeared for him.

Christopher Flanagan was assigned as counsel for John Fay and Forrest D'Armo, indicted for burglary in Ellenville.

The cases of Delbert Van Horn and Fred Van Steenburgh were held for further action.

SOCIETY NOTES.

On Saturday evening, Mrs. E. E. McClure was tendered a birthday surprise at her home on Wall street by a few of her intimate friends. She was the recipient of many gifts and congratulations. During the evening a delicious little supper was served.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle at High Woods recently and all present had a most enjoyable time. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Manning of Syracuse, Mr. and Mrs. Scott of Atwood, Mr. and Mrs. Purdy of New York city, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson of Kingston, John Doyle of Syracuse, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams of Kingston, and Benjamin Doyle of the Stuyvesant Hotel. From High Woods the party returned to the home of Mrs. Williams, No. 49 Gill street for a short visit.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Miss Emma E. Van Ethen at her home, No. 351 Broadway, on Friday evening, March 17. A most enjoyable time was had by those who attended. Games, music and vocal selections were enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes, voting Miss Van Ethen a royal entertainer. Those present were Helen Shuberg, Alma Koepfen, Lois Christiana, Catherine Rosa, Elsie Liebert, Loretta Thomas, Sadie Rosenberg, Nettie Saunders, Bertha Sherry, Marguerite Kelder, Vera Mae Van Ethen, Mrs. Dora Saunders, Mrs. George Sherry, Theodore Shuberg, John Dunbar, William Joy, Alfred Messinger, Carl Thiel, Louis Shuberg, Charles Baxter, Frank Albrecht, Francis Perry and Aaron Rice.

"Hansel and Gretel" Tonight.

This evening a song recital of Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" will be given at the chapel of the First Dutch Church by Mrs. Margaret Raper for the benefit of the Catholic Relief Society of the church. The opera is one of the most charming of modern operatic works, and a delightful evening is assured all who attend the recital.

Reception to Miss Deyo.

One of the special features of the piano recital to be given by Miss Ruth Deyo at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium on the evening of Tuesday, April 4th, will be a reception given to Miss Deyo, following the recital. Mrs. Philip Elting, regent of Wiltywick Chapter, D. A. R., will give a reception to Miss Deyo, following the recital, in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. building, in order that the people of Kingston may have the pleasure of meeting Miss Deyo, personally. To this reception, Mrs. Elting cordially invites all who attend the concert, which will be given under the auspices of Wiltywick Chapter. This added sociability following the recital, and given in the same building, should be indeed appreciated by all who hear Miss Deyo play, and a warm welcome, socially should be given to this celebrated young woman who really claims Ulster county as her home.

Steinhardt-Mones.

Miss Anna H. Mones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Mones, of 79 Broadway, and Benjamin Steinhardt of New York city, were united in marriage at Brustmann's Hall on Meadow street on Sunday evening by Rabbi M. Miller. The wedding was one of the most notable in the city. The bride looked charming in white, and carried a huge bouquet of white roses. She was attended by Miss Gussie Steinhardt, Mrs. H. Steinhardt and Mrs. H. Levine. The groom was attended by Mr. H. Levine of New York and H. Levine of Passaic, N. J. There were a number of guests present from Bridgeport and New York city. Following the ceremony dancing was enjoyed and an elaborate repast served. Mr. and Mrs. Steinhardt left this afternoon on the 2:15 o'clock train for New York city and from there will go to Bridgeport, Conn. After a honeymoon trip they will reside at 79 Broadway, this city. The bride has a host of friends in this city who wish them both a long and happy married life.

Last week the Circles of Mercy were able to make unusual progress in the preparation of surgical dressings for the wounded men of the allied troops, because at the Thursday morning session, at the Friday afternoon session and again Saturday morning they had many helpers who did excellent work. What was accomplished was sufficient evidence that "many hands make light work," and it might well be added, that they also turn out much work. One of the helps very highly appreciated is the picking of the oakum by the Boy Scouts, for upon this task depends the making of the large pads. On Saturday morning last, the following 41 boys were at the Y. M. C. A. and made their fingers fly in the good cause: Troop 1. George Allen, Harry Schryver, George Walters, Thomas

When Inclosing Stamps.

Here is a hint for my own benefit as well as yours: When sending a postage stamp in a letter instead of molesting one corner and sticking it to the paper, moisten a small spot in the center of the stamp and the affix it to your inclosure. The removal of a small part of the center of the glued back in no way impairs the usefulness of the stamp, but the corner often tears off.—Exchange.

Hay and Straw on Platforms.

In Mexico, farmers instead of fencing in their hay and straw stacks, erect them on platforms out of the reach of cattle.

Harvey Thomas Rowland, Max Oppenheimer, John DeWitt, A. Thompson, R. Mac Padden, Percy Jones, Dick Gruver, George Macholdt, Paul Nelson, Charles Frencott, Francis Keough, Bertram Margolis, Milton Budd, Harold Scherick, Judson Beaten, Roy Van Buren.

Troop 2. Frank Strubel, Harry Hutton, Bernard Burger, A. Britcliffe, James Hills, Clifford Finley, Ralph Hector, Harold Morgan, Orville Giles, Wilford Hahn, Christopher Messinger, Ernest Stengle, Christopher Mac Millan, Fred Port.

Troop 3. H. Saduskie, Fred Sabloff, William Paulus, John Coumbe, Alvin Barber, E. Werba-lousky, James Hicks.

Bert Margolis of Troop 1 was appointed captain for Saturday's meeting.

Lucy Gates As Opera Singer.

When Lucy Gates, the coloratura soprano who will appear at the last of the Dodge subscription concerts on Wednesday evening at the high school auditorium, returned to this country because of the European war, she was invited to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House, by Gatti Casazza and with the Chicago Opera Company by Mr. Campanini. Having been heard by both of these noted managers she was immediately offered engagements by both, but chose the Chicago offer as being the better one and she created a decided sensation whenever she sang with this noted opera company. This is only what might be expected, for making her bow in Berlin in "Der Freischutz," she became a pronounced success in that city of music at that time. She has sung with equal favor in operas, tragic classic and popular. Personally, Miss Gates has had a most interesting and charming life. She is the granddaughter of the famous pioneer, President Brigham Young, whom she is said to resemble, in features and in her personal magnetism and ability to make and hold friends. She is devoted to her Utah home, friends and religion, and has always been ready to serve her people either at home or abroad. Miss Gates was presented to the musical world several years ago, in the east, by the famous manager, Major James E. Pond, who saw her leave for Paris to pursue her studies and who said to her on departing: "The old major will not live to see your triumph, Lucy; but it will come, and when it does, tell the world that the major never made a mistake in genius." The other soloist will be Alexander Bloch, violinist. Single tickets for this concert are now for sale at Rider's music store, and may also be secured at the high school building on Wednesday evening.

St. Patrick's Day Party.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mowell of the Hudson House, No. 3 North Front street, opened their large and handsomely furnished rooms to a host of friends, who gathered to surprise and celebrate the 58th birthday of Mrs. Frank McSpirt of 164 Pine street. Mrs. McSpirt went to attend services at St. Joseph's Church and on her return instead of going home was sidetracked to Mrs. Mowell's home. On entering the house she was ushered into the parlor. At this time the lights were turned on and to her great surprise about seventy familiar faces appeared to her and started singing "The Wearing of the Green." The parlor, dining room and spacious hall were brilliantly lighted, and decorated with large American flags, while from the ceilings and side walls hung streamers of green and white. In the dining room the table covering was green and white, the napkins bearing the harp in the corners at each place holding a name card in the shape of a hat made also of green. The center of the table was graced by two large birthday cakes, one trimmed with American flags and one with green flags in. Here was where a beautiful supper was served to all. In the parlor Miss Anna Remus and Miss Elizabeth McSpirt dispersed sweet music for singing. In the large hall a Graphophone did its full share for dancing, while in another room games were played. Green caps graced the heads of the ladies, while shamrocks were worn by the men in their buttonhole. Mrs. McSpirt was born in Kingston and has always lived here, and by her kind and gentle manner has endeared herself to many loving friends, who on this occasion presented her with many useful gifts. During the evening a telegram of congratulations was read from Mrs. McSpirt's only sister, Mrs. Katie Ahearn, now of Paterson, N. J. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Mowell, Jennie and Cecil Mowell, Mrs. Hasbrouck, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McSpirt and family, Kathryn, Elizabeth and James, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McSpirt and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. Speers, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Speers, Mrs. D. Malcomb and daughter, Minna, George DuMond, Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Steinhardt, Mrs. Elizabeth McSpirt, Mrs. Zella Voorhes, Miss Anna Peppard, Mrs. Dorothys Booth, Mr. and Mrs. John Bynes, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Doyle and the Misses Dorothy, Nellie Kathryn, Irene and Gertrude Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Remus, Anna and Freida Remus, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Remus, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Remus, Loretta and Eddie Remus, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bassett, Mrs. James Howard and daughters, Anna and Kathryn, Mrs. John Keegan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Geisel, Mrs. Evelyn Ashworth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henninger, Mrs. A. Lewis, Harry Alting, Arnold Bowman, Mrs. Bowman, Nellie Keyser, Miss Mary Kain, Mr. Longyear, and last, but not least, Edward S. Doyle, who, together with Kenneth Bassett, made the affair one long to be remembered.

DAY'S DOINGS IN CONGRESS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, March 20.—House met at 11 o'clock.

Senate met at noon.

House resumed consideration of Hay army bill.

Congressmen from Pacific coast states urged upon house naval affairs committee establishment of navy yard on west coast large enough to accommodate capital ships and permit their construction.

Senate post offices and post roads committees held hearings on the railway mail pay bill.

Senate judiciary committee considered Prohibition legislation.

Cadet Corps in High School.

Final plans will be completed this week for the formation of the military company in the Poughkeepsie high school to be known as the Cadet Corps. Training will take place in the state armory under the supervision of the Spanish war veterans. Enrollment will be purely voluntary, and will include boys between the ages of 15 and 20 years. All those under 18 years, however, will not carry rifles, but will participate in everything else, including drills, calisthenics, wall scaling and general manoeuvres.

Army Bill Amendment Lost.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, March 20.—By a vote of 183 to 103 the house today rejected the Kabin amendment to the Hay army bill, which was designed to increase the regular army to a maximum of 220,000.

Shade for Light.

For the electric light in the bedroom or bedroom there is a useful novelty in the way of a shade. This is an exquisite little lady dressed in rose silks and gold lace, after the style of the ladies of the court of Louis Quinze. The skirt forms the shade and the light shining through the satin and lace takes on a lovely soft glow.

Health Hint.

Eat less meat and more fruits and vegetables, and you will have better health.

WE WANT

Every Woman

Every Man

Every Child

To Know the Date

THURSDAY, MAR. 23

The Sale of Wolven Stock

Begins

at

Kingstons Popular Store

CARLS

WE WANT

Every Woman

Every Man

Every Child

To Know the Date

THURSDAY, MAR. 23

The Sale of Wolven Stock

Begins

at

Kingstons Popular Store

CARLS

E. O. POSE - V. A. GORMAN - A. E. POWELL

3:00, 7:15 9:00 PICTURES DAILY AUDITORIUM Y. M. C. A. BUILDING ADULTS 10c CHILDREN 5c TODAY V. L. S. E. announce FRANCIS Y. BUCHANAN and RUTH STONEHOUSE —IN— "THE SLIM PRINCESS" A Big Four Production.	3:00, 7:15 9:00 PICTURES DAILY AUDITORIUM Y. M. C. A. BUILDING ADULTS 10c CHILDREN 5c TOMORROW "The Last Days of Pompeii" In eight reels. Made at Pompeii, Italy. From the novel by Lord Bulwer Lytton. A massive production.
---	---

Coming Wednesday "THE SALAMANDER" by Owen Johnson, now writing for the Cosmopolitan

DAY'S DOINGS IN CONGRESS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, March 20.—House met at 11 o'clock.

Senate met at noon.

House resumed consideration of Hay army bill.

Congressmen from Pacific coast states urged upon house naval affairs committee establishment of navy yard on west coast large enough to accommodate capital ships and permit their construction.

Senate post offices and post roads committees held hearings on the railway mail pay bill.

Senate judiciary committee considered Prohibition legislation.

Cadet Corps in High School.

Final plans will be completed this week for the formation of the military company in the Poughkeepsie high school to be known as the Cadet Corps. Training will take place in the state armory under the supervision of the Spanish war veterans. Enrollment will be purely voluntary, and will include boys between the ages of 15 and 20 years. All those under 18 years, however, will not carry rifles, but will participate in everything else, including drills, calisthenics, wall scaling and general manoeuvres.

Army Bill Amendment Lost.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, March 20.—By a vote of 183 to 103 the house today rejected the Kabin amendment to the Hay army bill, which was designed to increase the regular army to a maximum of 220,000.

Shade for Light.

For the electric light in the bedroom or bedroom there is a useful novelty in the way of a shade. This is an exquisite little lady dressed in rose silks and gold lace, after the style of the ladies of the court of Louis Quinze. The skirt forms the shade and the light shining through the satin and lace takes on a lovely soft glow.

Health Hint.

Eat less meat and more fruits and vegetables, and you will have better health.

EMOTIONAL ACTRESSES.

Temperament on the Stage and the Task of Managing It.

You hear a lot about the artistic temperament in and out of the theatrical trenches. There's only one way to manage a temperamental woman on the stage, said a well known leading man the other day, and that is to be in love with her. I was never so fortunate myself, but I have seen it work out with others again and again. They hate the man who won't admire them, and they laugh at the man who does. Their nerves are always thumping them into action till their hearts are bursting and their brains are in a whirl.

One of our emotional actresses in her prime was the most febrile, fearless, radiant witch of a woman the stage ever had. She was always on fire, intellectually and every other way. During one engagement in New York she wasn't on speaking terms with any one in the front of the house, except one man, and he was always telling her how wonderful she was. No one else dared go near her for fear she'd kill them with the first thing handy. They're just like angry leopards, some of them. They must be humored, conquered with patience, firmness and kindness.

A well known English star, who has always been famous for being difficult to manage, used to hate the sight of a manager. She could wither any man who was not her mental equal till he literally crumpled to pieces, and she loved nothing better. There were so many who were not her equal too. She knew most men were afraid of her, and she kept them in that delicious state of dread. They called it "temperament." She called it something more fitting—brains.—Theater Magazine.

One of London's Seven Curses.

There are in London thousands of poor folks whose principal meals come from the fried fish shop which, because of its evil smell, has been described as "one of the seven curses of London." Yet to a hungry man the smell of fried fish is a most enticing odor. George Gissing has described how maddening it was to him in his darkest days "to smell the fish he had no money to purchase," and how, when affrighted to the extent of a few coppers, he "exactly bought and devoured the crisp golden colored slices of fresh cooked fish—surely the food of the gods."—London Chronicle.

VARIETIES OF APPLAUSE.

But There is No Mistaking the Genuine, Spontaneous Offering.

With nearly every successful address applause plays a leading part. There are several varieties of applause. The common variety is the perfunctory handclap—a poor, weak contribution which makes a butterfly look long lived in comparison. A second variety is the charity offering of an audience to the oratorical beggar.

The speaker ends a profound declaration with a pause which is next door to an open declaration of war if the audience doesn't come across, or he works himself up in a series of mental paroxysms which impel the auditors to rush to his rescue before it is too late. All spellbinders pocket this variety of applause as real coin. Of course it is nothing of the kind.

The genuine issue in laudation is a spontaneous and volcanic eruption of approval and delight. It blows out violently from the subterranean fires of folk, and when it has reached its climax there comes suddenly and gorgeously from the midst of it a second and more terrific explosion, and as this is reaching its highest point a third and seismic spasm rockets up through bedlam and overwhelms everything and everybody. This is the real thing. It cannot be made to order, and it cannot be counterfeited. The prearranged outbursts at national political conventions following the nominations are pitiable attempts to manufacture it. Claqueurs and coterie of devotees try occasionally to produce it mechanically. They never do successfully.

All veteran speakers know it, and having experienced it, live on in the bright expectancy of the golfer who has accidentally driven 275 yards and believes that any minute it is liable to be done again. There are many communities which have never witnessed such a scene. They never will. For there are some communities that are strangers to all manner of response.—Victor Mordock in Collier's Weekly.

Carlyle on Work.

Work, properly so called, is an appeal from the seen to the unseen—a devout calling upon higher powers; and unless they stand by us it will not be a work but quackery.—Carlyle.

Remember This.

To remove rings from the fingers swollen by their tightness, dip the finger in ice cold soap-suds.

TESTING OUT FRANK MAIL SERVICE

Merchants are testing out the mail service from Kingston to Poughkeepsie and other points on the east shore which service the Chamber of Commerce is endeavoring to have improved by the postal authorities. S. E. Eighmey last week made the discovery that parcel post packages to Rhinecliff make the trip via Poughkeepsie, the delay incident thereto being no small item. There is no pouch for Rhinecliff from the Kingston postoffice.

BRIGGS, THE ICE KING.

Active Business Life of Coeymans Man for 59 Years.

Fifty-nine years ago on Monday of last week John N. Briggs began his career in Coeymans as member in the mercantile establishment of his father, A. N. Briggs, having just completed his education at the McKee Academy at Schoharie. Six years later he started in business on his own account and for fifty-three consecutive years has continued to conduct extensive business enterprises in this village that not only placed him as the foremost business man of this community but gained for him wide prominence in mercantile circles both in and outside the state. It would be impossible in this short item, intended only to chronicle Mr. Briggs' long years of business in this place, to enumerate the various enterprises which he has made successful. At present he is one of the largest individual ice dealers along the Hudson river, his houses having a capacity of 100,000 tons. He organized the Atlantic Light & Power Co., equipping one of the finest and best generating plants in this section of the state. Mr. Briggs also owns Baerena Park excursion resort and two palatial excursion barges. In fact he has transformed the island from a barren and desolate place to its present luxuriant and popular summer recreation attractiveness. He owns much property in the village and is the largest individual taxpayer in the town. It may incidentally be mentioned that Mr. Briggs has made a success of every business proposition he even engaged in. His various business enterprises have always furnished occupation for large numbers of mechanics and others and are one of the principal dependencies of the working classes of the community. It is the wish of all that Mr. Briggs may continue in his excellent health for a number of years and enjoy the fruits of his prosperity accumulated through a period of honorable business record that is probably not exceeded by anyone in this vicinity.—Ravena News-Herald.

Concert at Phenicia.

Tickets for a cantata, "The Pilgrim Fathers," are on sale at Meister's drug store. Cantata is given under the auspices of Phenicia Choral Society to be held at O. O. F. Hall, Phenicia, Friday evening, March 24, at 8 o'clock. A historical address will be delivered by John W. Eckert of Kingston before the cantata. Refreshments will be served by the ladies.

Shipping Precaution.

To ship a mirror without breaking the glass, paste narrow strips of paper diagonally across the glass. This breaks the vibrations and prevents the damage that often results.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, Southern District of New York, in the matter of Harry K. Weiner, of Kingston, Ulster county, N. Y., in said district bankrupt, No. 22,264.

Notice is hereby given that John H. Gregory, trustee in the above estate, will sell at public auction, at the court house in the city of Kingston, Ulster county, N. Y., on the 2nd day of April, 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m., the real estate of said bankrupt located in the city of Kingston, N. Y., described as follows:

All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land, situate lying and being in the village of Rondout, now Kingston city, Ulster county, beginning at a point on the easterly side of Hasbrouck avenue, being the northwesterly corner of a lot now owned by James Gregory, formerly known as the Ogle lot, and runs from thence northerly along the easterly side of said avenue to a lot lately sold by the said James and wife to Isabella Muller, being about 150 feet to the same more or less; thence easterly along the south side of said Muller lot 75 feet to the proposed line or alley-way, 16 feet in width; thence southerly and at right angles to the same more or less, thence westerly along the north line (dotted line and parallel) with Hasbrouck avenue to the north bounds of said Gregory's lot, 150 feet to the same more or less; thence westerly along the north bounds of said Gregory's lot 75 feet to the place of beginning. Recorded in Ulster county clerk's office, May 1st, 1907, being the same property conveyed to said bankrupt by L. N. Weiner.

Upon the terms and conditions as follows: Cash. Such sale to be approved by the court.

Dated, March 20th, 1916.

AMOS VAN ETTEN,

Referee in Bankruptcy.

D. G. Atkins, Esq., Attorney for Trustee.

WILLYWICK RURAL CEMETERY ASSOCIATION—ANNUAL MEETING.

NOTICE is hereby given, according to law, that the annual meeting of the Willywick Rural Cemetery Association will be held at the office of Judge Clearwater, 250 Wall street, Kingston, N. Y., on the first Monday of April, 1916, at 11 o'clock in the morning and at such meeting an election will be held for the election of three trustees of the said association in the place and stead of Alton R. Parker, Marks Jacobs and Levan S. Winne, whose terms of office will then expire, and that the poll of such election will be kept open from 11 to 12 o'clock of that day.

C. H. DE LAVERGNE,

Secretary.

Kingston, N. Y., March 16th, 1916.

TAKE NOTICE that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Cornell Steamboat Company will be held at the general office of the company, 22 Ferry street, Kingston, N. Y., on the 3rd day of April, 1916, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of electing trustees of the company for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting.

Dated, Kingston, N. Y., March 20, 1916.

H. B. FLEMING,

Secretary.

Jewelry For a Gentleman

Athlete Won Two Prizes When He Breasted the Tape

By J. N. COLE, Jr.

Copyright by Frank A. Munsey Co.

Because Skeeter Lafferty was a "rat," speaking in terms of the Forest school, and because he had legs like macaroni and a snub nose spotted with freckles none of the older members of the track squad took particular account of the fact that Skeeter warmed up with scrupulous care and deposited himself in a blanket to await the time trials for the 440 yard dash.

He did not resent being thus ignored. He was too much elated over the dazzling prospect of running at the Federal track meet, to be held in Washington the following Saturday, provided he won in the trial heats.

In addition, Skeeter knew that he was being observed by a certain person whose fur toque and muff—he hadn't dared go near enough to hear her voice and see her smile—was visible among a little group of enthusiasts which had collected at the turn to watch the races.

The fact that she was there changed all things for Skeeter. Life was intensified and recolored until it became almost unbearable.

If he should win! If he only could! Skeeter's chest swelled at the thought of the coveted letter awarded for athletic attainments. It was an awe inspiring "E," covering eight inches of sweater front.

The starter's gun flashed as he raised it high above his shoulders.

"All candidates for the 440," he called, "get to your marks!"

Figures huddled on the benches suddenly came to life; sweaters and blankets were thrown off, and six little racers, half naked in running trunks and jessers, placed themselves at the line, lifting their legs like hackneys in a show ring.

"Get set!"

The runners crouched with muscles tense and quivering.

Bang!

There was a grating of spiked shoes on the cinder track; the six, as one man, sprang forward, and before the smoke from the gun had vanished were fighting each other on the first turn, a hundred yards away.

A piping cheer and the clapping of gloved hands pounded from the group which clustered at the turn.

Captain Hughes, a powerful, muscular fellow with red hair and a straw berry complexion, secured the inside lane and began to pull out from the bunch in quick, greedy strides.

Lafferty, with teeth set, dug out after him. Soon they were racing abreast like a well schooled pair of coach horses.

The rest were strong along the course. At the end of the first round half to himself. "A boy who hasn't got the pistol rang out. It was the last lap!

Three runners turned for the finish. Skeeter was wheezing. His legs seemed to crumple; his lungs stiffened. The floor waved under him and seemed to rise to meet his feet. A pain throbbled in his side. He felt a man's hot breath on his neck. Then the man began to pull ahead!

But something deep in Skeeter, which had trained him when all hope seemed idle, refused to die now. His will sent life to the macaroni legs and breath to his lungs.

He lunged forward—the tape twanged across his breast!

Later, when Skeeter opened his eyes, the Forest school cohorts were dancing wildly as they pumped cheers of victory from their leather lungs, and the coach at his side was saying:

"Good work, old macaroni! You've just about put one over on the hunk of cheese!"

"Did we win?" asked Skeeter weakly.

"Sure—sure you did!" The coach patted the boy on the shoulder. "And what do you think?" he added in a confidential tone. "She got that fellow Hughes out of here on purpose. Can you beat it? Says she didn't dream you'd get to run, but she was determined Hughes shouldn't. Why didn't you tell me he fouled you in the trials?"

Skeeter struggled to his feet.

"Where—where is she?" he asked eagerly.

"She's over there, waiting to see you."

Skeeter broke away through the crowd.

"Say," called the coach, smiling, "I guess if she'd do a thing like that for you she wouldn't mind accepting a little jewelry from a gentleman in spite of the old folks."

Wesley and Tea.

In his younger days John Wesley found it difficult to stop drinking tea. He wrote in 1746: "We agreed it would prevent great expense, as well of health as of time and of money. If the poorer people of our society could be persuaded to leave off drinking of tea, we resolved ourselves to begin and set the example. I expect some difficulty in breaking off a custom of six and twenty years' standing, and accordingly the first three days my head ached and I was half asleep from morning to night. The third day my memory failed almost entirely. On Thursday my headache was gone, my memory as strong as ever, and I have found no inconvenience, but a sensible benefit in several respects from that day to this."

Later in life Wesley returned to the use of tea, as his big teapot preserved in his house in London shows.

Strenuous Piano Playing.

The late Lord Burnham's house was one of the few—perhaps the only one—where the impresario of London opera seasons allowed his singers to perform at evening parties. In that drawing room you might hear the prima donna out of Covent Garden, and for other manners of music also those parties were memorable. Many respectful hearers have sat by while a great pianist has broken the cord of a grand piano, but at Lord Burnham's on one occasion Rubinstein broke not a cord, but a key. That great composer was a strong man of his hands. The key was a "natural," an ivory note, and when it snapped he threw the fragment over his shoulder and went on.—London Chronicle.

An Omnivorous Insect.

There is in Egypt a little shaggy black and tan insect about an eighth of an inch long that eats almost everything under the sun. In most countries ivory brushes are pretty safe from insects. In Egypt this little terror eats the ivory and eats the brushes. It eats your toothbrush and eats your toothpick. It eats the wool with which you are going to mend your husband's socks—the cards as well as the wool. It eats the handles of your knives and forks. It rejects nothing but glass and china and metal.—Saiden's "Egypt and the English."

The Old Hen.

Little Pitchers—Mrs. Fussy, let me see your old hen. Neighbor—What old hen, boy? Little Pitchers—Why, pa asked me this morning when you sent over to borrow some flour and lard if she was sending more chicken feed to the old hen next door.—Baltimore American.

What Beauty is Called.

Socrates called beauty a short lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Carneades, a solitary kingdom; Aristotle, that it was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that it was a glorious gift of nature.

Blessed is he who, having nothing to say, abstains from giving words evidence of the fact.—Ellot.

who had detected his resemblance to a mosquito, though the discovery had been made on the day of his arrival at the Forest school. But mosquito was too classic and mouth filling to be popular with the "student body" and was promptly reduced to Skeeter, while rare, intimate friends in rare, intimate moments were privileged to say Skeeter.

But Fitzhugh Carter Lafferty, for all this, had failed to beat Hughes. So Hughes would represent the school at Washington! And she had gone without even saying that she was sorry!

He covered himself in a blanket and started for the showers.

"One moment, Lafferty!" called the coach. "I didn't know you were out for the 440. You ran a corking good race for a new man, but you finished with too much left. The 440 takes all any man has in him, and to win you've got to finish dead. I'd rather see you drop on the first lap than come in strong. You could go another now and not feel it, and Hughes is still blowing hard."

Skeeter winced. He wasn't at all in the mood for postmortems. Clearly the coach hadn't seen Hughes foul him on the turn.

Maybe she had seen! That helped some. It was the sole shred of consolation upon which he could build new hopes.

The coach laid a hand on his shoulder.

"That will do. Stick to it, Skeeter. You'll put a kink in somebody's big gear yet."

"What if Hughes wins the point trophy and gives her the medal?" inquired Skeeter bluntly, hardly conscious of speaking about his inmost thoughts.

The coach smiled. "Who is 'her'?" he asked.

Skeeter grew pink even to his neck and ears.

"Hi-Hughes," he stammered. "He's—he's my rival."

The coach was still at sea, but proved himself a human being by saying after a pause:

"Hughes will hardly win; he's—"

"Too much like a hunk of cheese," assisted Skeeter.

Skeeter throughout the remaining days of the week was unable to shake off a nagging, insistent sense of disappointment. Could he have beaten Hughes in the trial heat if he had known what the coach had told him before the race? Could he have beaten if Hughes had played fair? Skeeter knew that he could. To a youth of seventeen all things are possible.

Perhaps Skeeter's disappointment would have been less had he known, as the coach knew, that Hughes would not last long as a runner, because he refused to train properly.

Nor did Skeeter realize the benefits of his own self denials and sacrifices for the sake of athletics.

When Saturday came Skeeter's tounded head was one of the thousands that rose in an undulating mass on every side of the vast amphitheater surrounding the track.

There was so much to see that it made Skeeter's eyes hurt. It was worse than trying to watch a three ringed circus.

Leather lunged, brass throated youths swarmed along the course, shouting and yelling; scores of scantily clad runners scurried about with numbers pinned to their backs, and Skeeter's trained eye inspected dozens and dozens of pretty girls.

Excitement and confusion were in the atmosphere. The sonorous voice of the megaphoned clerk echoed and vibrated through the hall. Occasionally the starter's pistol spoke above the din of the cheering.

Then came the hush, the patter of running shoes on the resined floor and the breathless instant at the finish. In only a twinkling, it seemed to Skeeter, a race was won or lost.

He unconsciously ran each of them. At the sound of the gun his muscles grew taut, and his fingers gripped the seat. During the intervals between the events his eye scanned tier after tier of seats. He found her at last. She was sitting in a box, surrounded by a swarm of Forest school cohorts, armed with banners and megaphones, and Hughes, immersed in an imposing orange sweater, was leaning toward her in a most engaging manner.

Skeeter grew pale with envy as he realized that he had been beaten again. Then he muttered:

"He looks like a hunk of Schweitzer!"

Bruton won the fifty yard hurdles with ease. The Forest school, however, had lost the pole vault as well as the 880 yard run. The relay would add five points. But the 300 was shaky, and as Skeeter had predicted, the winning of the 440 yard dash would determine the school to which the point trophy would belong. Would Hughes win?

Involuntarily Skeeter glanced across toward her box. Where was she? Her chair was empty! Where was Hughes?

"First call for the scholastic 440!" The clerk was calling Hughes' race. A moment later he shouted again: "Hughes, Forest school, No. 60!"

There was no reply, and the clerk repeated the call.

Again Hughes failed to respond. Skeeter in a panic slipped from his seat and hurried to the dressing room.

"Where is Hughes?" he asked breathlessly. "They have called his race, and he hasn't shown up yet."

"We've looked everywhere for him," spoke up several of Hughes' friends. "He must have gone out with that female!"

"He did," announced another. "I heard her tell him she had a headache and asked him if he wouldn't go out with her to a drug store."

Several boys ran out to fetch Hughes. The coach said something under his breath which made the dressing room grow quite still. He turned to Skeeter.

"If Hughes doesn't show up in time you might as well try to take his place for this race. Hustle into a suit and answer to No. 60 at the last call. It's a chance in a thousand!"

The coach peered anxiously through the crowd.

"I am not surprised," he muttered,

MISS BARBARA RUTHERFORD. CINTIL FILM SERVICE.

SOCIETY WOMEN QUALIFY AS RED CROSS NURSES.

New York, March 20.—Scores of society women in New York are qualifying as Red Cross nurses. In event this country is involved in war they will be ready to serve as nurses in the hospitals and back of the lines.

Increased provision is being made at the uptown branch of the Red Cross on Fifth avenue, to increase the number of daily classes. The members have to go through a complete training course and on completion of the instruction are examined by a Red Cross physician from the headquarters at Washington and given a certificate.

Their names will be listed with the National Red Cross office and they will be rated according to their special adaptability. The course includes training in first aid to the injured and home nursing and consists of fifteen lessons.

Among the prominent society women who have already passed the examination and who hold themselves ready to serve should their country need their services are Miss Barbara Rutherford and Mrs. Ogden Livingston Mills, daughters of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., Mrs. Otto Kahn, Mrs. Benjamin Guinness and Mrs. John McCullough.

Enthusiasm is keen among the younger set and scores have signified their intention of joining the classes. Between fifty and seventy-five volunteer workers are helping Mrs. Leonard Wood, wife of General Wood, at the new headquarters, where thousands of bandages and surgical dressings are turned out weekly.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Copyright 1916 The House of Kuppenheimer

One robin may not make the Spring-time, but there is no disputing the fact that our announcement of

Kuppenheimer Clothes

for

Spring and Summer 1916

comes pretty near sounding the finish of all the worn and wearied winter wearables, likewise it signals the continuance of greater value-giving to men who appreciate quality and seek it with an eye to economy.

$18.50, $20, $22.50, $25 OR $30

H. MARBLESTONE

KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHS HOUSE

On Wall Street Kingston, N. Y.

"Elberne" Spring Suits For Boys

and I was half asleep from morning to night. The third day my memory failed almost entirely. On Thursday my headache was gone, my memory as strong as ever, and I have found no inconvenience, but a sensible benefit in several respects from that day to this."

Later in life Wesley returned to the use of tea, as his big teapot preserved in his house in London shows.

Strenuous Piano Playing.

The late Lord Burnham's house was one of the few—perhaps the only one—where the impresario of London opera seasons allowed his singers to perform at evening parties. In that drawing room you might hear the prima donna out of Covent Garden, and for other manners of music also those parties were memorable. Many respectful hearers have sat by while a great pianist has broken the cord of a grand piano, but at Lord Burnham's on one occasion Rubinstein broke not a cord, but a key. That great composer was a strong man of his hands. The key was a "natural," an ivory note, and when it snapped he threw the fragment over his shoulder and went on.—London Chronicle.

An Omnivorous Insect.

There is in Egypt a little shaggy black and tan insect about an eighth of an inch long that eats almost everything under the sun. In most countries ivory brushes are pretty safe from insects. In Egypt this little terror eats the ivory and eats the brushes. It eats your toothbrush and eats your toothpick. It eats the wool with which you are going to mend your husband's socks—the cards as well as the wool. It eats the handles of your knives and forks. It rejects nothing but glass and china and metal.—Saiden's "Egypt and the English."

The Old Hen.

Little Pitchers—Mrs. Fussy, let me see your old hen. Neighbor—What old hen, boy? Little Pitchers—Why, pa asked me this morning when you sent over to borrow some flour and lard if she was sending more chicken feed to the old hen next door.—Baltimore American.

What Beauty is Called.

Socrates called beauty a short lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Carneades, a solitary kingdom; Aristotle, that it was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that it was a glorious gift of nature.

Blessed is he who, having nothing to say, abstains from giving words evidence of the fact.—Ellot.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

Spring Coats

We pride ourselves on the wonderful showing of spring coats. They bear distinctiveness and exclusiveness out of the ordinary. Included are sport coats, silk coats and coats of varied mixtures, prices are moderate.

Covert Coats, collar of silk poplin, in contrasting colors$8.75	Check Box Coats, trimmed in black, velvet collar, cuffs and fold$16.50
Plaid Sport Coats, with belt and pockets, trimmed in buttons$6.50	Palm Beach, line check, broad cloth, in delicate colorings, collar and cuffs trimmed in contrasting cloth and buttons$18.50
Scotch Mixture, unlined, trimmed in buttons and contrasting collar.....$6.00	Chinchilla Check, in black and white, fancy button trimmed,$19.50
Cravante Auto Coat, yoke back and belted$9.75	Poplin Coat, all wool, corded belt effect, false pockets, semi-lined$15.00

Children's Spring Coats

Just arrived, the smartest looking lot of children's spring coats that has ever been our privilege to show, such pretty little silk coats, neat checks and plain serges, for children from 3 years to 12 years.

Children's Silk Poplin Coats, lined throughout, colors, rose, Belgium and navy and black, double collar.....$8.50	Children's French Serge Coats, belted and lined, double collar,$8.00
Children's Golf Cord Coats, unlined, belted and pockets, colors, rose and Copen$9.00	Children's Shepherd Check Coats, contrasting plain collar, belted, lined throughout$8.00
Children's Shepherd Check Coats, box coat, silk braid trimmed with pockets, very stylish$6.75	Children's All Wool Plaid Coats, unlined, box effect.....$9.00

Dainty Silk Underwear

G. A. Hart & Co. always had the reputation for fine underwear. This season surpasses all others. Such dainty, silky undergarments in the delicate tints of flesh and white.

Envelope Chemise, in crepe de chene, hand embroidered and val lace trimmed$2.25 and $2.50	Bloomers in Jersey silk cloth, hand embroidered and ribbon trimmed, $1.50 to $3.00
Envelope Chemise, in crepe de chene, hemstitched, skirt effect, lace trimmed$3.50	Silk Vests, in Jersey cloth, plain and lace trimmed,$1.00 to $3.00
Envelope Chemise, in crepe de chene, shoulder straps of ribbon, lace trimmed, pink and white$3.00	Silk Camisoles, in crepe de chene, lace trimmed, from$1.00 to $2.00
Envelope Chemise in china silk, lace trimmed, pink and white$2.00	Silk Modesty Covers, white and black, long sleeves$1.50

SILK GOWNS—Crepe de chene and china silk, lace trimmed in white, flesh and blue$3.50 to $6.50

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

G. A. HART & CO.
KINGSTON, N. Y.

OUR EFFICIENT PLATE DEPARTMENT

HOLMES DENTAL PARLORS
Tooth Nerves Killed Without Pain. Lady in Attendance.

NOT A LOST CHORD.

Bach Had the Melody in Him and Just Had to Get It Out.

The Duke of Saxe-Weimar once invited John Sebastian Bach, the Nestor of German music, to attend a dinner at the palace. Before the guests sat down to the feast Bach was asked to give an improvisation. The composer seated himself at the harpsichord and straightway forgot all about dinner and everything else. He played so long that at last the duke touched his shoulder and said, "We are very much obliged, master, but we must not let the soup get cold."

Bach sprang to his feet and followed the duke to the dining room without uttering a word. But he was scarcely seated when he sprang up, rushed back to the instrument like one demented, struck a few chords and returned to the dining room, evidently feeling much better. "I beg your pardon, your highness," he said, "but you interrupted me in a series of chords and arpeggios on the dominant seventh, and I could not feel at ease until they were resolved into the tonic. It is as if you had snatched a glass of water from the lips of a man dying of thirst. Now I have drunk the glass out and am content."

Placing the Worry.

Knock—I don't see how Broque can afford to wear a fifty dollar suit of clothes. Blox—Oh, he can afford it, all right, but I don't see how his tailor came—Indianapolis Star.

True Patriot.

"What's your idea of a true patriot?" "A man who can smile while he is writing a check for his taxes."—Washington Star.

Quite Different.

Flathead—Did you say he was working for the government now? Benson—Why, no! I said he had a government job.—Yankee Statesman.

U. C. T. PREPARING FOR CONVENTION

At the annual meeting of Kingston Council, No. 356, United Commercial Travelers, held Saturday night, at Pythian Hall, officers were elected and plans discussed for the state convention in Kingston June 8, 9 and 10. It is the intention of the local drummers to make this annual meeting of councils from every part of the state the "best ever."

The following officers were elected: Charles B. Everett, senior councillor; William H. Niles, junior councillor; William C. Dutton, past councillor; Mason Shults, secretary-treasurer; James W. Scott, conductor; Edward S. Morris, page; Harold H. Cole, sentinel; George L. Phillips and Joseph P. Hittorf, members of the executive committee for two years; Tracy Tillson and C. B. Everett, delegates to the grand council; William R. Harrison and W. C. Van Anden, alternates to grand council, which will meet in Kingston in June.

Following are the names of the chairmen of the committees who will have charge of the convention, each chairman choosing several members to serve on his committee: General and finance committee for grand council meeting, William Dugan, chairman; M. E. Shults, secretary and treasurer; William R. Harrison, chairman of entertainment committee; C. B. Everett, chairman reception and automobile committee; William C. Van Anden, chairman parade committee; William C. Dutton, chairman of hotel and traffic committee; Louis Low, music committee; Joseph P. Hittorf, chairman decoration and souvenir committee.

Mason Shults has charge of the work of preparing souvenir program and is doing well.

Three candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order and then a smoker was enjoyed at which the knights of the grip chatted about the big convention which they have brought to this city for June. All the members are filled with enthusiasm over the affair and several novel stunts will be pulled off during the three days of high merriment when the travelers will be Kingston's guests. It is expected that 1,000 men will be here during the convention.

IN SPECIAL TERM.

Various Matters Before Justice Hasbrouck on Saturday.

Among litigation before Supreme Court Justice G. D. B. Hasbrouck in special term Saturday morning was the case of Richard Overbaugh, doing business under the name of the Saugerties Coal and Lumber Company, against Ernest and Lulu Mower. Attorney George D. Kaufman appeared for the defendant, Ernest Mower, and Mayor Palmer Canfield, Jr., for Lulu Mower. After hearing a brief argument the court modified the judgment so that the referee can take up the question of a disposition between the defendants of the surplus, if any, arising from the foreclosure of a mechanic's lien. Attorney Arthur C. Connelly represented the plaintiff.

Attorney Hector Sears of Gardiner was granted an order in the case of Leo Clinton against Nellie Clinton and others authorizing the county treasurer to pay over certain moneys in a foreclosure proceeding.

In the matter of the Kingston Coal Company against Benjamin F. Seibelt, Attorney Henry Klein obtained an order making a judgment a lien on certain real estate of the defendant.

Attorney Percy W. Decker of Catskill was given permission to amend the summons and complaint in a Greene county action entitled Charles E. Horn and one against Charles Seonske and another.

Judge Hasbrouck signed the incorporation papers of the Ellenville W. C. T. U. which has incorporated for the purpose of erecting a building, a step made possible under the will of the late John R. Hunt which left the organization the residuary estate of $70,000 for such purpose. The directors are Mary E. Smiley, Minnie E. Anderson, Mary A. Denman, Libbie M. Potter, Carrie Cookingham, Eva Van Kirk and Lizzie D. Van.

Motion for a change of venue in the action of Viola M. Youngs against Robert E. Lent and Fred T. Robbins was heard, the defendants being constables in Westchester county from whom the plaintiff seeks $5,000 damages alleged to have been suffered by her through a levy on some of her goods at her former home near Goshen. Mrs. Youngs now resides in Lackawanna and Attorney John R. DeVany opposed the motion in her behalf. Attorney Edgar L. Rider, of White Plains who, was one of T. M. Osborne's staff of attorneys, asked that the trial be held in Westchester county. The court took the papers and named Attorney Deyo as referee to take testimony in both counties if both parties agree on such course.

In the mortgage foreclosure proceeding of Abram J. Post against Pasquale Guidicci, a Greene county case, Attorney Daniel B. Deyo was appointed referee to compute the amount due the Attorney Howard C. Wilber was named referee to sell.

In the action of Herman Stemmerman against William H. Brereton and Edward Moran, a suit brought to recover payment for a bungalow constructed for the defendants near Saugerties, an order was granted permitting substituted service on Brereton at his place of business, 272 East 28th street, New York. Attorney Benjamin Rowe of Saugerties appeared for the plaintiffs.

A Cup and Saucer Shower.

A cup and saucer shower will be given in connection with the meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association of School No. 6 on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Refreshments will be served.

BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body-forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine," simply a highly concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes. Scott & Borne, Bloomfield, N. J.

SAUGERTIES.

Saugerties, March 20.—On Saturday two employees of the Saugerties Foundry Co., were injured while at work on the moulding department. Ralph Fulk by a piece of lasting falling on him, bruising his knee, and a moulder's helper falling with a ladle of molten iron, burned about the eyes, his injuries necessitating his removal to the Kingston City Hospital.

Misses Jennie Hanna and Fannie Post of Ulster avenue have returned from a business trip in New York city.

Miss Jane Hotelling of Main street spent the week end in New York city.

Miss Anna Herring of the South Side has returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

Hoyle Overbush of Main street has returned from New York city.

W. W. Bohr of Booklyn is visiting at Charles Coon's on Post street.

Mrs. Marchant of Kingston spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dederick on Main street.

La Vergne Bovee and wife of Poughkeepsie spent Sunday with his parents on Market street.

Samuel L. Goldberg of Sulzberger and Co., is in Bridgeport and New York on business.

Daniel Nutley of Second street is spending a few days in New York city.

Mrs. George Colburn of Division street is spending a few days in New York city.

Belmont Whittaker and wife of Partition street have returned from a week's visit in Germantown.

Chalmers Becker, a former resident and now residing in Red Hook spent Sunday in town.

Uses For Old Bones.

Bones are not wasted. The chief product is glue, and among other materials which are obtained from them are soap, glycerin and fertilizers. After being carefully separated by workmen they are soaked in a weak solution of sulphuric acid. From the soaking tanks the bones emerge white and perfectly clean. They are then placed in steam tanks, where, after being subjected to a pressure of steam for several hours, a trapdoor is opened at the bottom of the digester, as it is called, and the liquid glue that has been extracted is drawn off. The liquid glue is partly evaporated, and a portion is allowed to harden for commercial use as glue, and a part is refined and sold for gelatin for table use. Floating on the top of the glue in the digester is a quantity of fat that has been also extracted from the bones by the steam. This is drawn off into cooling tanks, where in its crude state it is made into scouring soaps. By refining and adding vegetable oils and perfumes toilet soaps are made.—London Globe.

Chest Measurements.

Put a tape measure round your chest and note the measurement. Puff your chest out by taking a deep breath and note the number of inches that you increase. One inch of expansion would be very feeble; two is rather poor. We all ought to put on three inches, and four is good. It is right and proper that the lungs should be well expanded at each breath. The air penetrates more easily into some parts of the lungs. The apex, at the base of the neck, just behind the collar bone, is rather a sluggish part of the incoming air current. That is considered to be one of the reasons why the apex is the commonest site for consumption. All children should be taught breathing exercises. The ribs are soft in childhood and youth and can be molded into shape. When once growth has stopped the ribs are in their position and shaped for life. Therefore take pains to cultivate a good chest that expands several inches.

Monster Jellyfish.

An interesting feature of the bay of Naples is the great quantity of large jellyfish found therein. It is not unusual to find them fully two feet in diameter and weighing up to sixty pounds. Some of them shine at night with a greenish light and are known as noctiluca (night lanterns) by the natives. The jellyfish sometimes make migrations in great groups, sometimes so large and so thick as to impede the navigation of vessels, like the floating plants in the Sargasso sea of the tropics. These shoals of medusae, as they are called, may at times be so dense that a piece of timber plunged in among them will be held upright as if stuck in the mud, and ordinary rowboats cannot force their way through them. Their migrations have never been explained.

Poor Guess.

Sunday School Teacher—"Children, do you know the house that is open to all—the poor, the rich, the sad, the happy, to man and to woman, to young and to old—do you know the house I mean?" Small Boy—"Yes, miss—the station house."—Boston Transcript.

SAM BERNSTEIN & Co.

Wall Street

Kingston, N. Y.

Phone 14

SPRING MODELS NOW ON SHOW

$9.85

$11.75

$14.75

$18.00

$22.00

$25.00

BOYS' SPRING SUITS

$2.98

$4.85

$6.85, $7.85

Swell serge, Check and Mixtures.

Continued Sale on

$18.00
$14.75
$11.75

LIGHT WEIGHT
Overcoats
$9.75

Style, quality and price that will interest you. All the good points you would expect to find in garments of higher prices.

GOLF-BACK NORFOLK. Has three flap patch pockets. Stitched down belt. High cut vest. Very stylish.

SLANT POCKET COAT. This is a very smart model. Coat has top and lower slant pocket, and smart peak lapels. High cut vest and semi-English trousers.

THREE BUTTON MODEL. Suit is well tailored and well lined. It is an ideal conservative suit, with medium lapel, high cut vest and medium trousers.

One of the smartest garments offered for Spring wear. In all the new popular shades and patterns.

"Equal to Custom Made." Comes in the newest and best patterns and fabrics. We invite your most critical examination of this garment.

HATS

98c, $1.88

This season's shapes and colors. The largest assortment in the city.

SHOES

$3.50 and $4

CRAWFORD

Blacks and tans. Every pair guaranteed.

SHIRTS

New Spring Patterns

48c

Princely Dress Skirts. A big variety, all sizes.

98c

Guaranteed Laundry Proof. Soft or stiff cuffs.

$1.50

Arrow Skirts, none better for style and quality.

$2.85

All the newest pattern shades in silk.

BROADWAY CASINO

NOTE: "The Girl and the Game" every Tues. "The Strange Case of Mary Page" every Friday.

SOME PICTURES

TONIGHT

'As a Woman Sows'

Mutual Master Picture
De Luxe Edition

Coming Next Week—The Great Triangle Plays

TOMORROW

"The Girl and the Game"

MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF RHEIMS IN GAS MASKS. ©INTL. FILM SERVICE

The poison gases used by the Germans are no respecters of persons. Even the mayor and the councilmen of the city of Rheims, in France, often subjected the gaseous attacks, are forced to have gas masks constantly at hand to prevent suffocation. Practice drills are held once or twice a week. This picture shows the mayor, with his wife and members of the council wearing their gas masks.

E. HOYT GREEN

39 North Front St.
Phone 1480 Free Delivery
THE RELIABLE STORE

TUESDAY SPECIALS.

3 Pkgs Jello 25c
3 Pkgs Tryphosa 25c
3 Pkgs Cooper's Gelatine 25c
Evaporated Apples 11c pkg
Evaporated Peaches, 3 lbs. 25c
Evaporated Apricots 14c lb
Large Prunes 12c lb
Strictly Fresh Eggs 30c doz
Pure Lard 14c lb
Fresh Creamery Butter 40c lb
15c Jar Peanut Butter 10c
25c Jar Peanut Butter 15c
Chuck Steak 18c lb
Stew Beef 13c lb
Bologna 16c lb

Paramount Pictures

V-L-S-E
Blue Bird and Gold
Rooster World Features

Orpheum

Telephone 324

Matinee 3:00 P. M.
Evening 7:15 9:00

Admission - 10c

TONIGHT

Henry W. Savage presents
MADAME X
The great Broadway success—featuring
"DOROTHY DONNELLY"
In Six Parts

COMING TOMORROW, MAR. 21.
One day only, the beautiful scenic production of

"Along the Kennebec"
THIS IS NO PICTURE, BUT A
ROAD SHOW.

Matinee, 3 p. m., 10-15c; evening,
8:15, balcony, 10c; orchestra, 20 and 30 cents.
Reserved seats now on sale.
Watch out for the Rube Band tomorrow at noon.

ADVERTISERS ESTIMATE THE
VALUE BY THE CIRCULATION.
And The Freeman has a circulation double that of all other Kingston dailies combined.

THE OCTOPUS TURNS TURTLE

An embargo was laid on one consignment of gasoline and kerosene for a half hour this morning when Tank Sleigh 4547 of the Standard Oil slipped off a drift in North Front street and capsized on the street car track. The big tank weighing nearly four tons presented quite a problem for a quarter of an hour and the advice contributed by the Committee of Forty-seven which quickly gathered would have made a bulky volume for the efficiency department of John D.'s Kingston branch.

Finally after the mule team had been unhitched and a chain obtained, Manager Joseph Hutton took charge. He quickly grasped the situation and the tank, the latter being righted in the course of the next few minutes by the combined power of two mules and six men. The tank bumped heavily on its runners but no great amount of damage was done and not a drop of the precious gasoline irrigated the pavement.

A car on the Colonial line was landlocked by the upset and operated on the Washington avenue section while passengers were obliged to detour around the scene of the hold-up. Drifts at this point have been left in a dangerous condition by snow from the trolley plows and the traffic.

Crescents Want Games.

The Crescent A. C. baseball team of Newburgh would like to hear from teams in and around Kingston. They play no games at home. Any team wishing to play this club at their home grounds should communicate with their manager, H. Ladue, 29 Benard avenue, Newburgh, N. Y., stating their guarantee.

Annual Regatta at Poughkeepsie.

The intercollegiate regatta this season will be held as usual on the Hudson river at Poughkeepsie on Saturday, June 17. The three events will be staged at approximately the same time as in previous years. There was some talk at first of not holding the regatta at Poughkeepsie this year.

Dance at Hebrew School.

A dance will be held on Saturday evening, March 25, at 8 o'clock at the Hebrew School hall. Refreshments will be served. A small admission will be charged. The public is invited and assured of a good time. An orchestra will furnish music.

Optimistic Thought.

Men were at first upright; then came an era of insincerity.

STRANGE STABLE ACCIDENT.

Horse Scared by a Cat Injures Hurley Man Painfully.

Hurley, March 20.—Charles Snyder met with an odd but painful accident on Friday evening last, which laid him up for a few days. He was shaking the bedding under one of his horses when a cat, which had been sitting on a beam overhead, jumped suddenly down and alighted on the horse's back. This scared the animal so much that he plunged, jumped and kicked and before he knew Low, Mr. Snyder was down on the floor of the stall, under the horse's feet. A few words of encouragement calmed the excited animal down enough to allow Mr. Snyder to crawl out of the stall and get out of danger. On reaching the house, he went to bed. The side of his head showed a large lump, where the horse had kicked him a glancing blow, while his arm showed similar marks; his principal ailment, however, beyond many black and blue spots, was a badly lamed back from spraining or wrenching. His condition is improving so much after such a narrow escape, that he intends getting out of bed soon.

Miss Hazel Brodhead spent a few days at her home last week.

Miss Newkirk with her sister, Mrs. Von Schlieder went to the home of the latter in Hackensack for a more or less prolonged visit, for a much needed rest.

There is a very flattering notice of Master Aubrey Arnet as a debater in the Saturday evening Freeman, in the last item of academy news, on page six. The young man must have achieved quite a success.

Arnold Hiller is engaged in New York city, working on the reports of the charities investigation.

Mrs. Della DuMont celebrated her 84th birthday on Sunday last, March 19.

Mrs. Peter Brink has returned from a long and pleasant visit in New York city and vicinity.

Mrs. John Ostrander has gone to Woodstock to a double birthday celebration of herself and her brother.

Miss Helen Hotelling's condition is improving most pleasantly after the operation on her eye of last week. The sight is quite clear and distinct.

Basketball at Y. M. C. A.

Basketball was the main attraction at the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday and that morning the last games in the Student C League were played. The Colonials closed the season in first place and each player on the team will be awarded a medal. The fortunate athletes are McGrane, Albright, Wolff, Bonesteel, Garrison and Flemming.

Saturday evening a fast game was played between the team of Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts, and the Triangle Five, which was won by the scouts by a score of 33 to 22. The scouts were Rhymer, Ivory, Rodie, Rosenthal and Straley, while the Triangle players were Ryan, Schoonmaker, Huettis, Vignes, Cooper and Van Buren.

ABOVE—GEN. CHARLES ROQUES.
BELOW—GEN. JOSEPH GALLIENI.

GENERAL ROQUES SUCCEEDS GEN. GALLIENI AS FRENCH WAR MINISTER.

General Joseph Gallieni, the famous one-armed defender of Paris last year, has been succeeded by General Charles Roques as minister of war in the French cabinet.

Rumors of friction between General Gallieni and the French senate have been current for some time. He was appointed as minister of war in October, 1915.

General Roques, who succeeds General Gallieni, was formerly inspector-general of the air service and is an authority on military aviation.

A Blithesome Profession.

From a paper read in San Francisco: "The true funeral director is serious, but not gloomy; dignified, but not morose; gentle, but not fawning; self-possessed, but not self-conscious; quietly masterful, but not bossy; alert, but not fussy; watchful, but not nervous; a kindly, unassuming master of ceremonies."—Boston Herald.

WALTER OSTRANDER—Who is He?
The short, stout fellow, was for years with Sam Bernstein & Co.

Ostrander & Woolsey

Head of Wall St.
Next to Carls Dept. Store
Kingston, N. Y.

Spring Suits for the Young Felo

Roberts Wicks Make.
Stein Bloch Make.
Rochester Quality Make.
Michaels Stern Make.
Post Graduate Make.

Our spring suits are snappy, have the style that's wanted by the young fellows and "without the usual big profit."

We are showing the largest line of "up to the minute" spring suits in the city of Kingston.

$11.75	$10.75
$14.75	$22.50
$16.50	$25.00
$18.00	$28.00

Copyright, 1915.
ROBERTS-WICKS COMPANY

"Post Graduate" Suits for Boys New Spring Styles

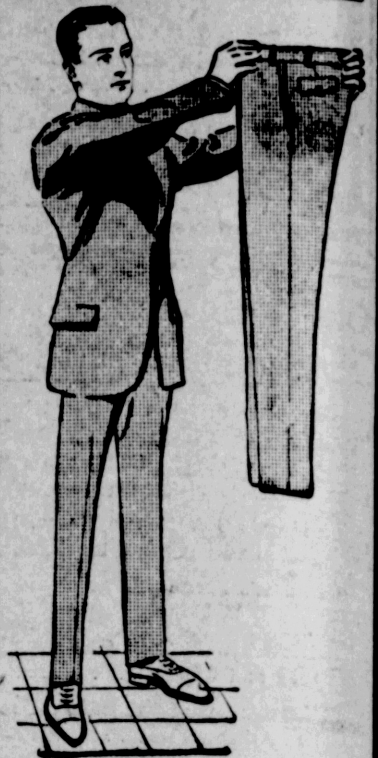

Ages 7 to 18 years.
Mothers say, "My, how nice your boy's suits fit."
So many new patterns in gray or brown.
The newest models in coats.

Boys' "Bell" or "Puritan" Blouses

Boys' clothing on second floor.
Prices, $2.98, $3.85, $4.85,
$5.85, $6.85, $7.85.

IRA WOOLSEY—Who is He?
The tall, smooth face fellow, was for years with Sam Bernstein & Co.

Great Line of Men's Worsted Pants at $2.85

Something to wear with that coat and vest that's partly worn out and pants all gone.

We have a big line to pick from at $2.85. All kinds of colors and patterns—and they fit right.

The Roof of the World

Copyright 1916
General Roofing Manufacturing Co.

"From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their heads from sun and rain."

You will find CERTAIN-TEED affording equal protection from the snow and ice of the Arctic, and the sun and rain of the Tropics. It is literally "the roof of the world."

Making roofing is the General's chief business. He makes one third of all roll roofing made in America—39 other manufacturers make the balance. Such predominance is due to the General's ability to make the highest quality roofing at the lowest cost. Every advantage that men, money, mills and machinery can offer is used to increase production, maintain quality and lower the cost.

The result is that today CERTAIN-TEED, the world's best quality, costs less than inferior roofing cost 10 years ago.

CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with a scientific blend of soft asphalt, the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of hard asphalt, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

Certain-teed

Roofing

GENERAL ROOFING MANUFACTURING COMPANY
World's Largest Manufacturers of Roofing and Building Papers

New York City Chicago Philadelphia St. Louis Boston Cleveland Pittsburgh Detroit San Francisco Cincinnati New Orleans
Los Angeles Minneapolis Kansas City Seattle Indianapolis Atlanta Richmond Houston London Sydney

Classified
Advertisements

ONE CENT A WORD

Classified advertisements in this department will be inserted at the rate of one cent per word for each line per week. Advertisements after the first week will be charged at the rate of one-half cent per word. No advertisement will be accepted for less than 10 cents. Orders may be left at the following places:

CHARLES W. CARD, Post Ewen, N. Y.
DR. W. MOORE, 200 Broadway.
W. MC MILLAN, 1000 N. Y.
WILLIAM O'BRIEN, 300 Broadway.
C. STURGEON, 142 Broadway.
D. H. SIMPSON, 320 Broadway.
FREEMAN BRANCH OFFICE, 200 Fair Street.
FREEMAN, Downtown, 2-5 Broadway.

One Cent Per Word

No Advertisement Less Than 10 Cents

LOST.

LOST—Leather storm from for carriage, lost on East Chester St. and central post office. Leave at central post office.

LOST—Automobile nickel lamp-door. Stuyvesant Garage.

LOST—In Kingston Opera House, March 18, green leather purse, initials "R. E. F. Finder please leave at opera house office, or phone 948.

LOST—Brown handle ball terror, name Ted. Finder please phone 1887-J.

LOST—Pair of diamond ear-rings. Liberal reward for return or information. Phone 1761-W.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Second hand furniture, parlor set and ranges. 7 furnish all kinds of repairs. Highest prices paid for second hand furniture and stoves. Mrs. Kaplan, 68 North Front St. Tel. 60-3.

FOR SALE—Breeding sow, due April 3rd. Miller. Phone 22-F-5.

FOR SALE—Thompson and Bradley Barred Rock eggs from prize winning stock. $2.50 for fifteen. E. Miller, Highland, N. Y.

FOR SALE—Six year old horse, drive single or double, one rubber tire runabout, cheap. Chas. L. Van Demark, Stone Ridge Heights, Ulster Co., N. Y.

FOR SALE—2 cows, 1 horse, 2 wagons, 1 six horse power gasoline engine, saw and mill, complete. No reasonable offer at Ashokan, N. Y. B. Van Steenberg, 75 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.

FOR SALE—Rose and single comb Buff Leghorn and Silver Sebright Hamburg eggs for hatching. Price $13. Inspection on stock invited. 56 Elmwood St. Tel. 60-3.

FOR SALE—Five passenger Reo touring car, first class condition, no reasonable offer refused. W. O'Reilly, 530 Broadway. Apply 69 Clinton Ave.

FOR SALE—Property No. 64 Abryn St. Apply 69 Clinton Ave.

FOR SALE—Lot 50x505, within 10 minutes of city limits, on Sawtice road. For particulars, phone 1502-R.

FOR SALE—Vogel & Hughes road organ, in good condition. Address "Organ," Downtown Freeman.

FOR SALE—Grocery business in Kingston, good location, all improvements, small amount of stock, balance like rent. Offered at bargain. Address "H. W. Co." Downtown Freeman.

FOR SALE—Business property paying over 10 per cent on an investment of $3,000. For particulars address "Owner," c/o The Freeman.

FOR SALE—Just finished, new house, 154 Westchester Ave., all improvements, small amount of stock, balance like rent. Offered at bargain. Address "H. W. Co." Downtown Freeman.

FOR SALE—Guaranteed sanitary laundry trays, wholesale; good seconds at retail; also cement blocks, stoves, chimneys, caps. Adams, Field Court.

FOR SALE—Salt hay. Edward T. McGill. U. S. 101, 508 Broadway.

FOR SALE—Farms, all sizes and prices. U. S. 101, 508 Broadway.

FOR SALE—Killing wood, 2 bbls. for 8 cents or 3 bbls. for $1.00. Orders promptly delivered. White Rose, 117 N. Front St. Telephone 1224-W.

FOR SALE—Large parlor stove, in good condition, will sell cheap. Inquire at 62 North Front St.

WANTED.

WE ARE IN THE MARKET FOR SEVERAL CARS OF ONE INCH WELL REASONED BENCH AND BIRCH LUMBER. FOR PROMPT DELIVERY, QUOTE US SPOT CASH PRICES. DELIVERED AT KINGSTON, N. Y. HERBERT BRUSH & CO., THOMAS ST., KINGSTON, N. Y.

WANTED—Loan, $5,000; 6 per cent, first mortgage, on 200 acre farm, 60 acres fruit; large house, outbuildings; near Kingston. Peter Leckner, 78 Bible House, New York.

WANTED—Two rooms, unfurnished. "B." Downtown Freeman.

WANTED—Small farm, suitable for truck gardening and stock raising. Highway, river preferred. Address, Stating lower prices. P. O. Box 357, Kingston, N. Y.

WANTED—Two furnished rooms. "B." Downtown Freeman.

WANTED—Young men and young women for live proposition. Apply S. M. Van Ness, 304 Fair St., Kingston.

WANTED—Help. Ullster Employment Agency, 336 Clinton Ave. Tel. 1234-R.

WANTED—Boarders and roomers. 27 Henry St.

WANTED—An experienced bookkeeper and entry clerk; must be a good penman; must and accurate. Address, giving references. "H. W. Co." Downtown Freeman.

WANTED—Young lady wants a garden of about 25x100 feet in which to grow vegetables during spring and summer; will pay small amount for use of it; up town section. Address "Garden," Downtown Freeman.

FURNISHED ROOMS.

FURNISHED ROOMS—78 Pearl St.

FURNISHED ROOMS—30 Van Buren St.

NICELY furnished room in private family. 90 Pearl St.

Two furnished or unfurnished front rooms, for light housekeeping. Phone 195-W. 210 Wall.

FURNISHED ROOMS—8 John St.

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms. 113 Bond St.

FURNISHED ROOMS—130 Jansen Ave.

FURNISHED rooms, 102 Bond St.

FURNISHED rooms with board, 30 Adams St.

FOUND.

FOUND—On Hasbrouck Ave., metal roary badge. Owner may have same by calling at Downtown Freeman Office.

LOST OR STOLEN.

LOST OR STOLEN—Bank book 32407 of Rondout Savings Bank, payment made on check, return to bank, 20 Ferry St. All persons are cautioned not to purchase or negotiate same.

One Cent Per Word

No Advertisement Less Than 10 Cents

MALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED—Young man, about 18 or 20 years of age, to work in kitchen. Apply Steward, Eagle Hotel.

WANTED—Machinists, lathe hands, etc. The Westinghouse Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

WANTED—Freemen, brakemen, $120 monthly; experience unnecessary. Railway, Box 8, Freeman.

WANTED—Man for general farm work; wages $25 a month and board. Inquire 156 St. James St., or address W. H. Shaw, Spelman Farms, Hyde Park-on-Hudson, N. Y.

FEMALE HELP WANTED.

WANTED—EXPERIENCED OPERATORS: LEARNERS TAKEN. CHARIOT SHIRT FACTORY.

WANTED—Competent girl or woman for general housework, in private family. Mrs. C. L. Andrus, Stamford, N. Y.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. 150 Fair St.

WANTED—Girl to assist with housework. 52 Lafayette Ave.

WANTED—Girls to sew on machines; also learners; paid while learning. Bostonian Waist, Inc., 50 Hasbrouck Ave.

WANTED—Experienced sleeve facers. Appleton's Shirt Factory, Pine Grove Ave.

WANTED—Girls to sew on power machines. 4 West Union St.

WANTED—OPERATORS FOR ALL PARTS OF THE SHIRT BUSINESS. PAID WHILE LEARNING. STEADY WORK. MILLER, AIKENHEAD CO., INC., GREENKILL AVE.

WANTED—All once: experienced operators, all parts of shirt; learners taken. Essex Shirt Factory, corner Cornell St. and TenBroeck Ave.

EXPERIENCED OPERATORS, BEGINNERS ALSO TAKEN. PAID WHILE LEARNING. MILLER'S SHIRT FACTORY, PINE GROVE AVE.

WANTED—Experienced sleeve facers. Essex Shirt Factory.

WANTED—Strong, reliable woman, used to farm house work, as cook and laundress on near Gardner; running water, good wages. Only those who have lived in country need apply. Mrs. J. B. Harrison, 125 Albany Ave.

TO LET.

TO LET—House, with all improvements, 22 Green St. Modern, well lighted, offices at 272 to 282 Fair St. House, 112 Foxhall Ave. flat, 26 St. Mary's St., and flat at 566 Broadway. Estate of John N. Edgely.

TO LET—Small house, 6 rooms and bath. 149 Fair St.

TO LET—Furnished from May 1st. Levee, 404 West Chester St. James and Wall Sts. All improvements. Tel. 413-J.

TO LET—Flat. Hoffman St. Phone 1002-W.

TO LET—Furnished flat, from May 1. Corner Wall and St. James. Phone 413-J.

TO LET—8 room house, all improvements, 404 West Chester St. Inquire 103 Fair St. Phone 1002-W. Mrs. Hyman Roosa.

TO LET—Flat and store; all improvements. Inquire 103 Abel St.

FOR RENT—Unfurnished rooms. 87 Green.

TO LET—First floor flat, consisting of five pleasant rooms; rent moderate. Inquire 116 Elmwood St.

TO LET—House, 29 Orchard St., all conveniences. Inquire Mrs. Albert Terry, 293 Broadway.

TO LET—No. 300 Clinton Ave. Phone 1095-W.

TO LET—Brick house, 249 Washington Ave.; 11 rooms, modern improvements. F. S. Thompson, Washington Ave. and Pearl St.

TO LET—Two flats, 108 N. Front St., $8 and $10. Apply 150 Fair St.

TO LET—From May 1st, one of Dr. Connelly's cottages on Franklin St. Apply at 98 Fair St.

TO LET—10 Cedar St. toilet, water, gas. Follette, Lafayette Ave.

TO LET—Flat, 29 Liberty St.

TO LET—8 room house, with improvements; large lot, stables, some fruit. Inquire 78 Andrew St. Tel. 553.

TO LET—From May 1, dwelling No. 35 Lafayette Ave., city. Particulars from A. Gaiquin, 276 Fair St.

TO LET—Store, 24 Broadway. Inquire Julius Stone, 70 Broadway.

TO LET—6 room house, with bath, 99 East Chester St. Inquire within, or 122 West St.

TO LET—3 flats. Inquire A. H. Glider, 618 Broadway.

TO LET—House, 6 rooms, all improvements, 116 Elmwood St., rent $25. Inquire 110 Elmwood St.

FOR RENT—Crosby residence at No. 113 W. Chestnut St.; all improvements. Inquire at 574 Broadway.

TO LET—35 Janet St. Inquire 29 Janet St. Telephone 1738-W.

MISCELLANEOUS.

IF you are tired after shopping at Carls and wish something appetizing for supper, come to the Balcany Lunch Room and order some of our delicious salads, cold sliced meats, etc. to take home with you. Everything of the best. Orders promptly filled at reasonable prices. M. V. Woolheater, Proprietor.

REMEMBER the Balcany Lunch Room is at your service while in the rush of shopping at Carls. Come in and rest and refresh yourself at the most popular eating place in the city. M. V. Woolheater, Proprietor.

SPENCER'S graduates are moving out to better positions. Spencer's is the right training school for you to attend.

MORAN Business School, Burgin building. Spring term Monday, April second. New classes day and evening. Enroll now and prepare yourself for all profitable positions. Expert teachers. Individual instruction.

FURNITURE storage. Mouse-proof, sanitary, fire-proof. Frederick C. Waters, Kingston. Phone 1003-J, or call Stuyvesant Garage.

ALL makes of storage batteries rebuilt and repaired by W. W. Spaulding, 250 Broadway, caring for batteries during the winter at reasonable rates. Service station for Exide batteries. Stuyvesant Garage.

FILES developed, to cents a roll. Prints 5 cents up. Sibby Studio, 29 E. Strand.

FURNITURE storage; best in city. Harry P. Carr. Phone 1170-J, 6-72.

KINGSTON Taxicab Service. 90 cents for 1 or 2 persons, day or night. Tel. 541.

PIANOS tuned, $1.50. Marthe, 150 Prospect St. Phone 1732-W.

PLUMBING, heating, tinning, gas fitting, jobbing promptly attended to. Joseph Freeman, 73 Broadway St. Phone 986-W.

SPRING ADVERTISING.

REACHING out for Spring trade is now the order among live merchants. Let me show you that newspaper readers always appreciate the unusual in advertising. A little clever ingenuity in display, combined with a tactfully worded appeal such as an employer can be made to reach the eye and hold the attention of many readers who might not be otherwise interested. Why not give my advertising service a trial? George M. Zellmer, care of Kingston Freeman.

ASHOKAN DECISION
BY HIGHEST COURT

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, March 20.—The supreme court today denied the request of William Sage, Jr., the owner of land taken for the Ashokan dam reservoir, to begin proceedings looking to the modification of the decree of Federal Judge Hand of New York. This decree denies the right of Ashokan land owners, under a recent decision of the supreme court, to begin entirely new proceedings to determine the value of their lands condemned by the state of New York.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

Zacharia, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Durham, died at the family residence, No. 11 Meadow street, on Friday. The funeral was held held Saturday with interment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Charles H. Hill, who was born in Rhinebeck, died Saturday at his residence, 100 South Third street, Brooklyn, in his eighty-first year. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Hill; a daughter, Mrs. E. J. McMahon, and a brother and sister. The funeral will be held this evening at his late residence with interment in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

Levenia S., wife of Samuel Corline, died at Rosendale Sunday, aged 64 years. Besides her husband she leaves one daughter, Miss Nella Grag, and one sister, Mrs. Eliza Van Tassel of Kingston. The funeral will be held from her late residence Wednesday at 2 p. m. The interment will be in Rosendale Plains Cemetery.

Miss Grace Ryder died on Saturday at the residence of her brother, L. I. Ryder, on the Saugerties road. The funeral was held this afternoon from the undertaking parlors of E. G. Comstock on Broadway, with interment at Dumont, N. J., at the convenience of the family. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Ezadny Ryder, two brothers, L. I. Ryder and D. D. Ryder, and one sister, Mrs. Ezadny Catchim of Buffalo.

James V. Carey died on Saturday evening at his home, No. 135 Hunter street. The funeral will take place on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock from his late residence and from St. Mary's Church at 10 o'clock. Interment in St. Mary's Cemetery. Mr. Carey is survived by three brothers, the Rev. Justin Carey, C. P., of Baltimore, Michael Carey and Patrick of this city, and two sisters, Sister Mary Petra of Baltimore and Mrs. Agnes Lowney of New York city.

John T. Lynn, a respected resident of Port Jervis, died at his home this morning, aged 78 years. Mr. Lynn was a ship carpenter by trade and was a man of genial personality who had a host of friends. Besides his widow he is survived by three sons, John, William and Edward, and one daughter, May, wife of Christopher Ricks. Mr. Lynn was a member of the Port Jervis Methodist Church. The funeral will be held Wednesday morning at 11:30 o'clock from the late residence.

Ethel V. Leek, wife of Elwood M. Clearwater, died at the Benedictine Sanitarium Saturday evening. Mrs. Clearwater was taken suddenly ill at her home, No. 1338 Bergen street, Brooklyn, about two weeks ago and was brought to the sanitarium thinking the change of air would benefit her. Mr. and Mrs. Clearwater had been married about four months and her sudden death came as a shock. She is survived by her husband two brothers, Fred and Oscar Leek, of Brooklyn. Mr. Clearwater is a son of Horace Clearwater of this city.

Captain George I. Smith died suddenly Saturday at the age of 15 years. The funeral was held from the home of his son, George I. Smith, Jr., No. 26 Smith street, Poughkeepsie, this afternoon. Captain Smith was born in Ulster county. When a boy he attended school at Highland and when still a lad started his career on the river. In the early sixties Captain Smith bought the sloop Diamond Star, which he sold in 1892 to Captain Whier of Tottenville, S. I. The same year he purchased the schooner A. J. Collins, which he commanded until three years ago, when he retired on account of failing health. Two children survive, Mrs. John Constant of Milton and his son.

Life and Character Reading
MARCH 20

This horoscope shows a person who has good fortune in the acquiring of money which will be in a large way, for he will never bother over small details, preferring to take big chances. Many noted financiers are born on this date.

The tendency to be over-generous will be tempered by more fact and the stubbornness of the Pisces sign will be softened to practical persistence of purpose.

The person born on this date feels the influence of the incoming sign Aries, the head sign of the Fire triplicity, as well as the sign of Pisces and thus partakes of the characteristics of the two signs.

Many of the faults of the Pisces sign will not appear in the person of this birthdate who will show unusual ability to execute the most daring plans.

The governing planet of the coming birthdates from March 21 to April 19 is Mars, the God of War.

This period should be one of caution and careful planning.

Study The Freeman Want Ads for investments, for the buying and selling of stores, houses and mercantile agencies.

One Cent Per Word

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

NEWLY built water closet, five rooms, bath, all improvements. Address "R." Downtown Freeman.

POSITION WANTED.

EXPERIENCED cook; day, week or month. Address "Cook," Uptown Freeman.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, March 20.—There was a brisk demand for war order stocks on the stock exchange at the opening today. Industrial Alcohol was the most active feature, advancing 4% to 161 while gains of over a point were made in Studebaker, Crucible Steel, American Locomotive and Central Leather. Mexican Petroleum advanced 1% to 114%. The railway stocks were in scant supply and generally ranged fractionally higher. Southern Pacific moved up 1/4 to 99 1/4 and Union Pacific and Erie each. The copper stocks were fractionally higher, gains of 1/4 being made in American Smelting, Anaconda and Utah. Steel Common was comparatively quiet, around 86 1/4 to 86 1/2, against 86 1/4 at the end Saturday.

Stocks were in free supply in the late forenoon and substantial losses were recorded throughout the list. Bethlehem Steel dropped fourteen points to 520. Steel Common receded to 85 1/4 and Reading to 86 1/4. Crucible Steel dropped to 94. Industrial Alcohol to 157 1/4. Westinghouse to 67 1/4. American Locomotive to 78 1/4. Studebaker to 145 1/4, and Mexican Petroleum declined a point from its early high level. Money lending 1 1/4.

Stocks were pressed for sale in the late afternoon and further substantial losses were noted in nearly all the active issues. Crucible Steel declined to 93 1/4 and Baldwin to 104 1/4. American Zinc dropped 2 1/4 to 84 1/4, and Steel Common receded over a point to 85 1/4.

The market closed weak. Western liquidation, stop orders and absence of support made the market weak in the last hour. Nearly all of the war order issues showed losses of 3 to 6 points from the high range. Stories of peace and predictions of foreign selling affected the group. Government bonds unchanged or their irregular.

Quotations furnished by John D. Kline, Warren Building, Fair street, Kingston, N. Y., Tel. 1423. Correspondent of C. H. Van Buren & Company, members of Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York.

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS.

Allis-Chalmers	30
American Beet Sugar	71 1/2
American Can & Foundry	69 1/2
American Can	67 1/2
American Cotton Oil	55
American Locomotive	74 1/2
American Smelting & Ref. Co.	101 1/2
American Sugar	110 1/2
American Telephone & Telegraph	120 1/2
Anaconda Copper Mining	85 1/2
Atchafalpa, Topeka & Santa Fe	103 1/2
Baldwin Loco.	106 1/2
Baltimore & Ohio	88 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	520
Brooklyn Rapid Transit	166
Canadian Pacific	154 1/2
Central Leather	54 1/2
Chicago & Ohio	64
Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul	94 1/2
Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific	17 1/2
Colorado Fuel & Iron	144 1/2
Consolidated Gas, N. Y.	21 1/2
Corn Products	89 1/2
Crucible Steel	93 1/2
Dillards Securities	47 1/2
Erie	37 1/2
Erie, 1st pld.	52 1/2
General Electric	108
Goodrich Rubber	73 1/2
Great Northern, pld	122
Great Northern Ore	45 1/2
Illinois Central	17 1/2
Interborough Rapid Transit	17 1/2
Inter. Con. pld	17 1/2
Kansas City Southern	17 1/2
Louisville & Nashville	75 1/2
Lehigh Valley	62
Maxwell Motor	47 1/2
Maxwell Motor, 1st pld	47 1/2
Maxwell Motor, 2d pld	47 1/2
Mexican Petroleum	107 1/2
Missouri Pacific	107 1/2
National Lead	67
New York Central	104 1/2
N. Y. N. H. & H.	69 1/2
N. Y. Ontario & Western	27 1/2
Norfolk & Western	122
Northern Pacific	113 1/2
Pennsylvania Railroad	89 1/2
People's Gas, Chicago	23 1/2
Pittsburgh Coal	40 1/2
Pressed Steel Car	55 1/2
Railway Steel Spg	40 1/2
Reading	85 1/2
Rep. Iron & Steel	52
Southern Pacific	98 1/2
Southern Railway	21 1/2
Studebaker	143 1/2
Tennessee Copper	60 1/2
Third Ave. R. R.	60 1/2
Union Pacific	103 1/2
U. S. Steel	84 1/2
U. S. Steel, pld.	110 1/2
U. S. Rubber	51 1/2
Utah Copper	81 1/2
Virginia Car. Chem.	45 1/2
Western Union	90 1/2
Westinghouse Electric	66

Closing Prices.

Wheat, May, $1.09 1/2 bid; July, $1.08 1/2 bid; September, $1.06 1/2.

Corn, May, 75 1/2 asked; July, 76 1/2 asked; September, 76 1/4.

Oats, May, 44 1/4 to 1/2 bid; July, 43 1/4 to 1/2.

7,777 Prizes

First Prize

$1,000

What is the 7th Point?

From Maine to California, from Texas to Hudson Bay, millions of people have been asking "What is the 7th Point in Sterling Gum?"

In practically every town, city and village in the United States and Canada, the published six points of superiority have brought Sterling Gum fast-growing popularity.

But the seventh point still remains a riddle.

Point ⑦ What?

Now, we are offering liberal prizes to those who send us the best suggestions for the Sterling Gum Point 7.

Before you make your suggestion for the 7th Point, read the following:

The Following Story Unfolds the Secret of the Famous Point 7

To most people chewing gum is a mystery. They may know that different chewing gums are made from different ingredients. But that is about all. Here are facts which we believe you will be glad to know about Sterling Gum:

Your Sterling Gum is made from the following materials:

The basis is the pure sap of the tropical Sapota Tree—a natural gum.

This natural Sapota Tree sap is boiled, sweetened and flavored. The sweetening is simply pure cane sugar and pure corn syrup.

The flavoring is of two kinds—Peppermint (in red wrappers), Cinnamon (in blue wrappers).

There are some twenty varieties of the mint plant. The Sterling Peppermint is a product of the choicest, smoothest-flavored of these many mint varieties.

The spicy Cinnamon flavor is extracted from the Cassia bush which grows in the tropics.

The sap of the Sapota Tree, the cane sugar, the corn syrup, the Peppermint and Cinnamon flavors all come from the sap of some plant or tree. Nature herself supplies these delicious materials from which your Sterling Gum is made.

Requirements for Winning Phrase

When you read the above facts on the materials that Sterling Gum is made of, you will know all that it is necessary for you to know in entering this contest.

The first prize will go to the one whose suggestion, based on the above story, most impressively presents the natural purity of Sterling Gum—in the opinion of the judges.

Remember that your suggestion must be in six words or less.

The next best suggestion will win the second prize—and so on down.

It is understood that the Sterling Gum Company will have the right to use the 7 Point suggestions sent in by the prize winners.

The contest is easy to enter. Just think of your way of expressing the 7th Point. Then write it out in six words or less and send it in as directed in the conditions printed below. Even if you don't win the first prize of $1,000, you stand a chance to win one of the 7,777 smaller prizes.

PEPPERMINT IN RED WRAPPER

CINNAMON IN BLUE WRAPPER

First Prize $1,000
Second Prize $500

Third Prize . . . $250.00
7 Prizes—each . . . $25.00
70 Prizes—each . . . $2.50

700 Prizes—each . . . Box of 20 five-cent packages of Sterling Gum.
7000 Prizes—each . . . Box of 10 five-cent packages of Sterling Gum.

Conditions of the Contest

Sterling Gum Company employees cannot enter this contest. If two answers are entitled to the same prize, the full amount of the prize will be paid to each.

All answers must come in on a postal card. On the back of the postal card write nothing but your 7 Point suggestion (six words or less) and your name and address. The postal card may be mailed in an envelope if you choose.

Mail answers to:
Sterling Prize Judges
Room 319, 405 Lexington Ave.
New York City

You may send in as many suggestions as you wish. But each suggestion must be written on a postal card as directed above.

Contest Closes

All answers must be received in New York by midnight of May 15, 1916.

Answers will not be examined by the judges until after that date. The judges, therefore, cannot acknowledge the receipt of the suggestions received.

Now put on your thinking cap. Get your family to help you. Send in as many suggestions as you want to. All will be considered in awarding these many prizes. Do not write the Sterling Gum Company regarding the contest or its conditions as all suggestions will be judged by the Prize Committee named above.

The Sterling Gum Co., Inc., New York
The Sterling Gum Co. of Canada, Ltd., Toronto

NEW PALM.

New Palm, March 18.—Raymond Hasbrouck has bought out the store of Everett Schoonmaker on Main street.

George Currie is carrying the mail from Gardiner to New Palm via Clintondale in the place of Joseph Aldorf, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Freer of Accord, whose property was nearly all destroyed by fire here, moved to New Palm.

Joseph Deyo and family of Gardiner and Stephen L. Johnston of this village, who have been spending some time in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, started on their return in Mr. Deyo's automobile last week.

The Glee Club of the high school received a large audience who were entertained delightfully.

Mr. Pappas, the Greek, who has rented the Elting Harp store on Main street, is having it fitted up in such fine style that New Palm people will open their eyes.

Mrs. Ackert of the Times celebrated her 85th birthday a few days ago.

The Study Club will meet with Mrs. H. B. LeFever on Tuesday, March 21.

Fred Palmatier and wife of this village spent the week end with his mother and grandparents in Plutarch.

No school at the normal Wednesday afternoon and Thursday forenoon on account of the sidewalks and the bad storm.

(By La Raconteuse.)

It is hard to believe that the garment illustration is a negligence. To the casual observer it would undoubtedly seem to be a charming dance gown. The material is a pattern of figured silk that shades from a rose to a rich gold tone. The harem hem with its wreath of dainty roses is a distinctive feature. The bouffant hip drapery, round necked bodice and flowing chiffon drapes are particularly notable.

WHITFIELD.

Whitfield, March 18.—Our place is still in the grip of the blizzard. Although the snow has ceased, the wind is blowing severely. One farmer came in from the barn asking if any of us had located his hat. He said it had blown away and the last seen of it, after a severe chase, it was going up another hill, so he discontinued the chase through the heavy snow, and thinks he will wait until warm weather to find it. Last season he placed a new umbrella in his corn field to frighten the crows, that also went the way the wind blew and never returned. Now, he says never again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Webster Markie of New Palm and daughter Lois, visited this place the past week.

The snow drifts from this place to Accord remind us all of the old canal. All that is missing is the tow path and horses, and warm weather.

All engaged in artificial incubation and are uncertain about moisture, try wetting the hands each morning in warm water just before turning the eggs, also sprinkle with warm water when returning the trays to the incubator. Try it.

Communication would cease, if we as neighbors had no phone in our dwellings. We can talk our business, if we cannot get through the drifts.

Some of our neighbors are kind. We would be obliged to remain at home during the services at church, but they are willing to take those who will go with their large sleighs.

Treatment of Walls.

If a molding is liked from which to hang the pictures that do so much to make our rooms homelike, the best height for the molding is in line with the top of the doors. The modern idea seems to be to bring the window work to the floor by using a paneled beneath the sill, and to carry the top of doors and windows to a fixed line—the molding line. Thus the walls are divided into rectangular spaces, and the decorative effect of a good paper is enhanced. A plain paper has the dignity of a panel when so used.

LOOK FOR THIS SIGN IN THE WINDOW

Gigantic Butterflies.
The largest butterflies which have in British Guiana, some of which have a wing measurement of 11 inches.

SUPREME COURT, ULSTER COUNTY.
Norristown Trust Co., as trustee for the benefit of the holders of the bonds secured by a mortgage or deed of trust executed by North River Stone Company, plaintiff, against North River Stone Company, et al, defendants. Notice of sale.

from Nathan L. Miller, the comptroller of the state of New York, for the people of said state, to George Hasbrouck, of the city of Scranton, Pennsylvania, and dated March 27, 1902, and recorded in the clerk's office of Ulster county the first day of May, 1903, in book docket No. 104 on page 216, to which said reference is hereby made for more particular description; and also all of the premises and property situated in the said county of Ulster, heretofore conveyed by George Hasbrouck, et al, to Virgil O. Strickler by deed dated December 12, 1904, and recorded in the clerk's office of Ulster county December 14, 1904, in book 239 of deeds at page 216; being the same premises which Virgil O. Strickler and Helen F. Strickler, his wife, and Joseph H. Kennedy and Nellie Kennedy, his wife, by their indenture dated the 15th of September, 1907, and recorded on the 15th day of January, 1908, in book 400 of deeds at page 102, granted and conveyed unto the North River Stone Company, party of the first part hereto.

Also all shops, factories, stables, sheds, building houses, tanks, scullery, quarry, free line kilns, elevators and other buildings, improvements, railroad trucks, and flag, sidings, wharves, wharfs and wharfage and privileges, rights of way, easements, rents, covenants, holders, pumps, and all machinery, fixtures and appurtenances, and all and singular the appurtenances, present and things of every kind, nature or description therein erected or therein placed and used in connection with the business of the company.

TOGETHER with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances belonging or in any way appertaining to any real property herein described and the reversions, remainder, rents, issues, claims and demands whatsoever, as well as law as in equity of said company, of, in and to the same, and any and every part thereof, with the appurtenances, and all rights, privileges and franchises which do now or may at any time hereafter belong to the company, including trade marks, trade names, good will, patents, franchises, patents and patent rights, licenses and inventions of every kind and nature whatsoever.

of the village of Highland, county of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Thornton Earle, the executor of the estate of said deceased, at his place of transacting business, 30 Park Row, in the city of New York, on or before the 15th day of September, 1916.

A Great National Public Utility

That concerns all merchants and all people

THE original Cash Register rang a bell, indicated and recorded the amount of the purchase. It benefited the merchant only.

In a third of a century this old model has developed into a Cash Register that directly benefits every man, woman and child who spends money in a store.

This new Cash Register equally concerns every merchant and clerk, every banker and wholesaler in this land.

It furnishes every customer with a receipt or sales slip.

It prints on this the amount paid or charged.

On this is also printed the date of the sale and who made it.

It forces a duplicate, printed record for the merchant.

It prevents disputes over charges and bills paid.

It saves shoppers' time.

It gives the merchant all his profits. It gives him more money for his family.

It promotes more and quicker sales.

It protects each clerk against making errors and against the mistakes of others.

It rewards the diligent clerk by telling his employer which one makes the largest number of sales and which one gets the greatest amount of business.

It assures the banker additional security for the money he loans the merchant.

It gives the wholesaler additional assurance that the merchant will have money to pay his bills.

It furnishes the banker and the wholesaler mechanical evidence that the merchant's statement of his business is correct.

It is a business necessity.

MERCHANTS!!

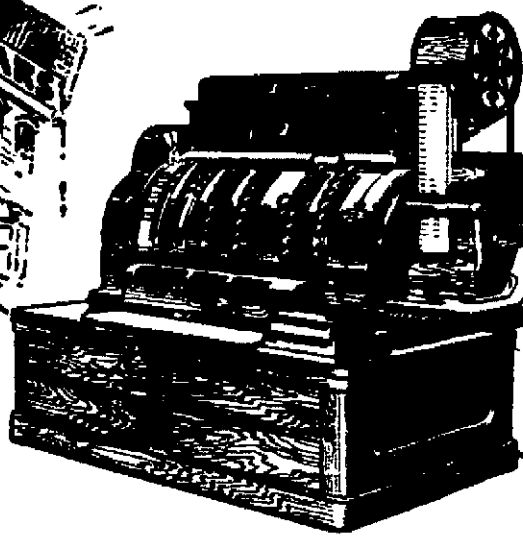

We have now 1916 models that give this perfect service.

Write us today or see our agent in your city and learn how you can secure one of these public service machines.

Liberal allowances are made for old National Cash Registers that were good in their day, but do not so completely protect you or give the valuable service our 1916 Models do.

Address Dept. Z.

The National Cash Register Company
Dayton, Ohio

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gil, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Louise Thelenmann, late of the town of Rosendale, county of Ulster, deceased, intestate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Charles H. Thelenmann, administrator of the estate of said deceased, at his residence in Whitport, town of Rosendale, in the said county of Ulster, N. Y., on or before the 25th day of September, 1916.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gil, surrogate of Ulster county, notice is hereby given, according to law, to all persons having claims against Mary R. Shook, late of the village of Highland, county of Ulster, deceased, testate, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Thornton Earle, the executor of the estate of said deceased, at his place of transacting business, 30 Park Row, in the city of New York, on or before the 15th day of September, 1916.

MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1916.

Sun rises, 6:03; sets, 6:13.
Weather, clear. Humidity, 33 to 42.

The Temperature.

The lowest point registered by The Freeman's thermometer last night was 10 degrees. The highest point reached up until noon today was 28 degrees.

Weather Forecast.

Washington, March 20.—Increasing cloudiness and warmer tonight, followed by snow in west portion. Tuesday snow or rain and warmer; moderate winds, becoming southerly.

TRIBUTE TO PASTOR.

Winners' Bible Class Expresses Appreciation of Mr. Cranston.

An unexpected testimonial was that given to the Rev. George M. Cranston, pastor of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church, at the close of the Sunday school sessions when members of the Winners' Bible Class, nearly ninety strong, expressed their appreciation of their pastor's labors. Principal John H. Garrison of School No. 8, was the spokesman and he paid tribute to the energy and loyalty of the Rev. Mr. Cranston, stating that the Winners' Class stood firmly behind his leadership. This fact he desired to be made known before the conference at Peekskill next week. A brief response was made by the pastor who was taken by surprise by the unexpected tribute.

Stone Ridge Man Buys Some Pig.

Many Ulster county farmers will remember the fine quality of Chester White swine exhibited last August at Ulster county fair by Ridgely Manor Farm. It will interest them to learn that Kenneth Scott has just purchased from Hiland Stock Farm, Ames, Iowa, a son of the great boar, "Wildwood Prince," 28531. "Wildwood Prince" weighed 1,110 pounds when 3 years old and was first senior champion and grand champion at Iowa state fair, 1914. His son, "Ridgely Wildwood," is a very fine individual and arrived at Stone Ridge on Friday after being in his crate since Tuesday. He is none the worse for his 1,000 mile train ride. It is impossible to overestimate the good to be obtained by the introduction of blood such as this for this locality. This boar's breeding is the outcome of many years of careful selection by the best breeders of Chester White swine.

From Andrew St. to Albany Ave.

E. H. Powell, the well known truckman, will move his business from No. 78 Andrew street to No. 567 Albany avenue about the first of the month. The removal to the new location is due to the fact that he will have more buildings at the new location. He will also open a fire proof storage for furniture and will continue the trucking business as usual.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Last Dodge Subscription Concert, this Wednesday evening, High School.
Lucy Gates, soprano.
Alex Bloch, violinist.
Tickets at Rider's Music Store.

TIME NOW

to think about your Easter flowers. We are getting ready. VALENTIN BURGEVIN, INC., Fair and Main streets.

SEED POTATOES.

Early Ohios, Early Rose, and Burbank, also timothy clover seed, seed corn, peas and set onions, for sale at A. H. GILDERSELEVE'S, 613 Broadway.

RUBBER STAMPS.

All kinds made to order. Notary public seals, daters, stencils, time stamps, numbering machines, sign making outfits.
O'REILLY'S, 530 Broadway.

LADIES!

We sell cloth by the yard 56 inches wide, from $1.50 to $2.00 per yard.
A. KUNST, Merchant Tailor, 65 Broadway, Downtown. Tel. 747-R

Miss Margaret Elizabeth Sullivan, Teacher of Expression, Poetic, Dramatic and Literary Interpretation. Phone 1639-J.

Big classy Chalmers, seats 8. Peck's Taxi Service. Tel. 1161.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Novelties, favors, pins, place cards, post cards and booklets, from 10 cts. up. O'REILLY'S, 530 Broadway.

At the public's service, day or night. Miller's Taxi. Phone 17.

Awning, Upholstering, Furniture Repairing, Auto Tops Recovered. HENRY EIGHMEY, 94 Highland avenue.

THE FREEMAN IN NEW YORK.

The Freeman is on sale each evening by 10:30 at Hotelling's News Stand, north end Times Building, 43rd street and Broadway, New York city. This stand remains open until midnight.

MENKE'S DAILY SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke.)

New York, March 20.—Talk to any enthusiastic supporter of Jess Willard and he'll assure you, in unmistakable language, that the champion will "kill" Frank Moran next Saturday night. Then ask the Willardites what odds he'll lay against Moran's chances—and you get a shock.

Despite Willard's tremendous physical superiority over Moran—50 to 55 pounds in weight, six inches in height and six inches in reach—the odd odds that the Willard folks offer are as follows:

10 to 7 that Willard will win the popular decision, this to be decided by the consensus of opinion among the sporting writers of the New York papers.

1 to 3 that Willard scores a knockout.

4 to 1 that Moran doesn't win by a knockout.

Conversational Confidence Only.

Tom Jones, the most magnificent razor wielder that ever escaped from the confines of Kewance, is the greatest Willard booster in the wide world. Converse with him for a spell and you'll get the idea that no living man can hurt the champion; that none can hit him; that none can stop the Willard right-handed crusher and that whenever that blow lands the recipient of it goes down and out.

And yet, Tom, as boastful as he is about Willard's prowess, won't back up his statements any stronger than to offer to bet one of his dollars to every three of yours that Willard will win by a knockout.

Does that bespeak real confidence? Isn't it obvious that the Willardites are confident only conversationally? If the champion is such a superior being, and such a "sure thing" winner, why do the Willard folks refuse to risk their bankrolls?

Little Betting So Far.

There has been less betting to date on the Willard-Moran affair than on any battle in which a heavyweight champion has figured. The real reason is the ridiculous odds being offered by the Willard folks.

Ring tradition always makes the champion a betting favorite in any battle in which he engages. Even though outbought, the champions of the past have carried the long end of the bets into the ring with them. Taking ring tradition into consideration, together with Willard's enormous physical advantages over Moran, the champion ought to be an overwhelming favorite. But he isn't.

There is plenty of Moran money in the town and elsewhere. Thousands of ring followers have confidence in the blond Pittsburgher. They are willing to back him to the limit of their resources. But they want fair odds. And 10 to 7 on Willard are not fair. They are much too small. Willard ought to be a 2½ to 3 to 1 favorite at least. But he isn't—and he won't be. His rooters won't back him that way.

Odd's Are Ridiculous.

Willard is the champion. He never has been knocked out or down. No man, according to Tom Jones, has ever hit him hard enough to sting him. Willard is physical perfection, says Jones. The other Willardites chant "amen." The Willard folks regard Moran as a joke. They claim he hasn't a punch that could give Willard even momentary pain. They say that Willard's right handed wallop will send any man into dreamland.

And yet the Willard folks will bet you 10 to 7 on Willard's chances to win on points—just that and nothing more. As to his chances of scoring a knockout? Well, they tell you it's a cinch. He'll do it sure. And then they offer 1 to 3 on it. A ridiculous proposition in the minds of the non-partisan.

Willard will weigh between 250 and 255 against Moran's 202; he'll measure 6 feet and 7 inches against a trifle over 6 feet for Moran; his reach is 54 against a 48 inch stretch for his foe. No champion ever has overshadowed an opponent as much as Willard will overshadow Moran. But 10 to 7 is the best that's been offered to date on Willard's chances of victory.

Are Willardites Afraid?

One thing is certain: Jess Willard will go into the ring next Saturday night backed by less money than ever was carried by a champion. His supporters are loud in their conversational backing of the heavyweight king—but they balk at supporting him with money.

What's the answer? Can there be any other than the secret fear among the Willardites that the champion isn't unbeatable—that Moran, pigmy that he is in comparison with his rival, may achieve an undisputable victory.

Sunday Pictures Popular.

Many persons were turned away from the Y. M. C. A. auditorium Sunday afternoon when motion pictures from "Samson and Delilah" were shown. The Rev. Dr. T. H. Baragwanath, pastor of St. James's M. E. Church, told the story of Samson's life in a brief narrative form and the pictures were pronounced exceptional.

MATTY IS GOLF SHARK

Giant's Pitching Star Can Drive 235 Yards With Putter.

With Cleek and Mid-Iron Christy Gets Long, High Ball, and Takes the Turf Nicely—His Putting Is Only Average.

Now that Christy Mathewson's best days as a baseball player are over, he is beginning to take golf more seriously. As a golfer, it is doubtful if he will ever attain the heights he reached as a pitcher, but Matty is at all times a dangerous player. He hits a long, low ball off the tee, but his direction is a little uncertain, and he still flubs his shot occasionally.

In his desire to get distance with his wooden clubs, he pulls himself up when at the top of the swing with a motion that is entirely "out of order," but his good eye saves him from the fate that usually follows this fault. Most players who do this either hit the turf behind the ball or hit the ball on the upstroke and spoil the shot. With the cleek and the mid-iron Matty gets a long, high ball, and takes the turf nicely, but the supreme test of a golfer lies within 50 yards of the green, and here he falls down. From this distance the champions hole out with almost mechanical precision in two strokes, or three at the most, whereas the average golfer is well satisfied with a three and often takes four strokes. Matty is no exception to this rule, and loses more strokes either on or just off the green than in any other part of his game. His putting is only average, but this can be improved by his taking more care in surveying the contour of the green and more time in making his putt.

Christy Mathewson.

INTERESTING SPORT PARAGRAPHS

Manager Jack Dunn has leased the Federal league park in Baltimore for a period of eight years.

Joe Tinker may have a better opinion of National league players before the Cubs finish their season.

Pittsburgh university will in the near future boast a $2,000,000 athletic stadium, if present plans go through.

San Francisco boxing promoters representing 14 clubs have agreed upon plans to reopen boxing contests in that city.

Even the man who detests the manly art feels grateful to Colonel Jess Willard for not having started a beauty column.

Jimmy Dime, veteran fight manager, now scales at 200 pounds on the hoof. He can't be the original thin dime we read about.

"Let me be an umpire," from Act IV, "Henry VI." Well, there's the peculiar case of Bob Emslie, three years on the job.

It is the fashion to sneeze at chess, but who ever heard of a member of a college chess team being thrown out for failure to keep up in his studies?

President Dunn, newly chosen president of the Cleveland Indians, is an enthusiast of the boxing game and takes a keen interest in other vigorous sports.

They say that Ed Konetchy can't stand riding. If this is the case, he should stuff his right ear with cotton while playing on the Boston infield this season.

Ogden Armour, one of the new stockholders in the Cubs, calls Joe Tinker's army of Cubs a "nine." He will find out differently when the pay envelopes are distributed.

John McGraw says that C. S. Doan and Rariden will do all the catching for the Giants next season. The switch of Meyers to Brooklyn clinches posts for them.

At the Dinner.

Dashaway (nervously)—"Look here, old fellow, don't you think you'd better tell them not to call on me?" Cleverton—"Don't be worried; they won't. I'm quite sure they have all heard you before."—Judge.

The Word "Stunt." A "stunt" is a feat or performance striking for its accomplishment; hence it has come to mean any real feat. The word has made its way into both Webster and the New Standard dictionary, but neither states its origin. Webster suggests a comparison with the old word "stint," which means "a task." It is interesting to note that obsolete provincial English had a word "stunt" which meant "dull" or "stupid."

Tim says:

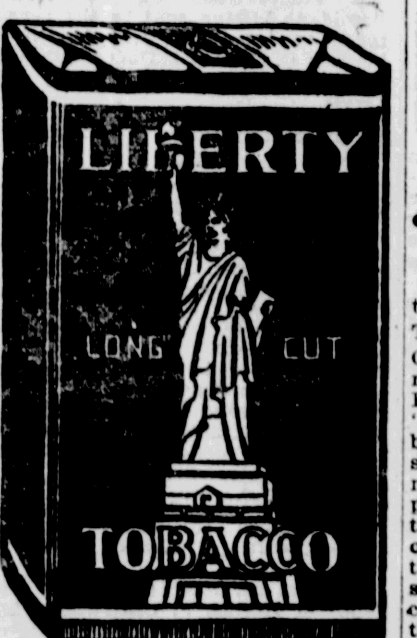

"T'other morning I left my LIBERTY Long Cut at home, and before noon I thought it was a week from Thursday."

"To save me from starvation I borrowed a chew of Bonehead's Joy from the foreman, but I might as well have chewed the rag with the corner cop for all the good I got out of it."

The job that pulls hard on the muscles calls for a snappy, zippy man-size tobacco. LIBERTY gives the big all-day brace to the husky lads who make the world go round.

There's nothing in LIBERTY but clean pure honest Kentucky tobacco. No short, broken leaves—no hard loose stems. And it's aged from three to five years to bring out the sweet mellow flavor of the leaf.

LIBERTY makes a long, free-burning, fragrant smoke and a lasting, juicy chew. Try it for both. Compare LIBERTY with bigger-looking packages filled with——!!—★!—xx!!!

Then you'll know that LIBERTY is the biggest nickel's worth of real tobacco.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

RUG TIME.

Better select your Rugs early. It will pay you well.

S. E. Eighmey

NEW CORSETS.

Many new models for spring $1.00 up to $5.00 R. & G. Nemo and C. B.

NEW SPRING MERCHANDISE

Just a few days and winter must give place to spring. Everybody will want new spring merchandise. There never was a time when the advice to "buy early" could be acted upon to better advantage.

NEW MILLINERY. SMART STYLES FOR EARLY SPRING.

The coming spring season will be one of great variety of color and styles. You will like the style and trimming best after you have tried the hat on, then you can realize that the milliner's art is in knowing just where to place a flower here, and an ornament there, to secure the best effect. You will not only be charmed with the smart styles but more than pleased with the moderate prices.

SILK POPLIN, $1.00.

40 inches wide, in all the popular colors for spring. It will be impossible for us to replace this stock, so take the advice and buy early at $1.00 yard.

NEW WAISTS FOR SPRING. DOZENS AND DOZENS OF THEM.

So many pretty styles can't say which is the prettiest. TUB SILK WAISTS, $1.97. Old Rue, Light Blue, Pink, Green and White; collar can be worn either high or low; would be good value at any time, unusually good at present when silks are advancing in price.

SILK WAISTS AT $2.97 AND $3.97.

Good range of colors, several good styles, made with high or low collars; no two waists just alike; every one different, either in style or color. $2.97 and $3.97

NEW DRESS SKIRTS.

Decidedly new in style, remarkably low in price. Dress skirts that will give real service at $2.50, $3.97, $4.50, $4.97 and $5.50.

The Progressive Downtown Store

WHERE YOU ALWAYS GET MAXIMUM VALUE AT MINIMUM PRICE

26 Broadway (Downtown) Kingston

MIDGETS DEFEAT HUDSON JUNIORS

When the high school Midgets beat the Hudson Juniors by a score of 40 to 7 Saturday afternoon they paid the visiting team back with ample interest for previously inflicting upon the Midgets the only defeat of the basketball season.

The game was played in the high school gymnasium, and the local youngsters took advantage of the fact that they were on their home court, kept their heads and showed the team work that they know how to use when it so strikes their fancy. If the Midgets had hung together up in Hudson last week as they hung together in the game Saturday, there is no doubt but that they would not have had to play this second game in order to lay claim to the little fellows' championship on the Hudson valley.

Some pessimistic person has observed that the Midget team most always puts in a lot of substitutes before the game is over, and claims that this is done because the Midgets have not got the wind to play a whole game. This is far from being the case, and the four fellows whose names appear last in the following summary were only put in for the last five minutes of the game and after the victory was almost a certainty. No, the Midgets have wind enough, and nerve and skill enough, and all they have to worry about, as a team, is that they may some day find themselves putting their hats on with the assistance of a shoe horn.

The summary follows:

Hudson Juniors.	FB	FP	TP
Elgo, rf.	0	0	0
Dolan, lf.	0	1	1
Hughes, c.	1	0	2
Atwood, rg.	1	1	3
Ten Brook, lg.	0	0	0
Mugford, lg.	0	1	1
Totals	2	3	7
M. S. Midgets.	FB	FP	TP
Kirchner, rf.	7	0	14
Martin, lf.	5	2	12
Quick, c.	2	0	8
McAndrew, rg.	2	0	4
Dwyer, lg.	0	0	0
Schoonmaker, rf.	0	0	0
Smith, lf.	0	0	0
Webster, c.	1	0	2
Kenble, rg.	0	0	0
Total	19	2	40

ACTIVITIES OF THE KU KLUX.

Grand Army Paper Attacks Some Scenes in "The Birth of a Nation."

A prominent Grand Army man of the city has a copy of the National Tribune, published in Washington, D. C., in which correspondents of that newspaper attack the part of the Ku Klux Klan as depicted in the films of "The Birth of a Nation," which is to be shown in Kingston this week. Instances of activities of the night-riders who played such a conspicuous part in the reconstruction period in the south were numerous and some of the striking scenes in the production are styled the "glorification of a shameful page in our history." According to the correspondents quoted, the part played by the Ku Klux was anything but heroic and the shooting of a state's attorney by a posse of thirty night-riders is one of the instances to which reference is made.

Thought.

Thinking cannot be clear till it has had expression. We must write, or speak, or act our thoughts, or they will remain in a half torpid form. Our feelings must have expression, or they will be as clouds, which, till they descend in rain, will never bring up fruit or flower. So it is with all the inward feeling; expression gives them development. Thought is the blossom; language the opening bud; action the fruit behind it.—H. W. Beecher.

THE VALUE OF STERLING

For Gift purposes is forcefully demonstrated in our large and diversified showing. You will find here the gift you seek for young or old. You will be pleased with the new designs.

OPPENHEIMER BROS. Inc., Jewelers

678 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y. Near West Shore Crossing.

MURAD

Why have Murads become the leading cigarette in the business and social world? Because smokers have found that the Turkish tobaccos used in Murad are better than they can get in most 25 Cent cigarettes.

Murad has not won its World Leadership in a day or by accident. It has been a question of pure, honest value—Of giving for 15 Cents far more than any other manufacturer ever thought it possible to give—Of offering the consumer a 15 Cent cigarette that can only be compared with the BEST 25 Cent cigarettes.

REMEMBER—Turkish tobacco is the world's most famous tobacco for cigarettes.

Smargyros
Makers of the Highest Grade Turkish and Egyptian Cigarettes in the World

Judge for yourself with any 25 Cent Cigarette

MURAD
THE TURKISH CIGARETTE

World's Oldest Flower. The chrysanthemum is the oldest cultivated flower in the world, and though Japan's national emblem, was first developed in China. Confucius lived approximately 500 years B. C., mentioned it in his writings, and antique Chinese pottery in the British museum is decorated with conventional designs of the same flower.

First American Lace Plant. The first lace plant established in the United States was that of the Jennings Lace works in Brooklyn, N. Y., about thirty years ago. Other plants have been established from time to time until now there are twenty-six factories operating 650 lace machines and employing several thousand persons.

TESTING OUT RANK MAIL SERVICE

Merchants are testing out the mail service from Kingston to Poughkeepsie and other points on the east shore which service the Chamber of Commerce is endeavoring to have improved by the postal authorities. S. E. Elghmer last week made the discovery that parcel post packages to Rhinecliff make the trip via Poughkeepsie, the delay incident thereto being no small item. There is no pouch for Rhinecliff from the Kingston postoffice.

It is said that Superintendent Williams of this division of the railway mail service is giving the local problem careful attention. According to merchants the mail service between this city and Poughkeepsie is susceptible of great improvement.

BRIGGS, THE ICE KING.

Active Business Life of Coeymans Man for 50 Years.

Fifty-nine years ago on Monday of last week John N. Briggs began his career in Coeymans as member in the mercantile establishment of his father, A. N. Briggs, having just completed his education at the McKee Academy at Schoharie. Six years later he started in business on his own account and for fifty-three consecutive years has continued to conduct extensive business enterprises in this village that not only placed him as the foremost business man of this community but earned for him wide prominence in mercantile circles both in and outside the state. It would be impossible to chronicle Mr. Briggs' long years of business in this place, to enumerate the various enterprises which he is one of the largest individual ice dealers along the Hudson river, his houses having a capacity of 100,000 tons. He organized the Atlantic Light & Power Co., equipping one of the finest and best generating plants in this section of the state. Mr. Briggs also owns Baerens Park excursion resort and two palatial excursions—larges. In fact he transformed the island from a barren and desolate place to its present luxuriant and popular summer recreation attractiveness. He owns much property in the village and is the largest individual taxpayer in the town. It may incidentally be mentioned that Mr. Briggs has made a success of every business proposition he even engaged in. His various business enterprises have always furnished occupation for large numbers of mechanics and others and are one of the principal dependencies of the working classes of the community. It is the wish of Mr. Briggs that he may continue in his excellent health for a number of years and enjoy the fruits of his prosperity accumulated through a period of honorable business record that is probably not exceeded by anyone in this vicinity.—Ravena News-Herald.

Concert at Phoenicia.

Tickets for a cantata, the Pilgrim's Progress, are on sale at Meisler's drug store. Cantata is given under the auspices of Phoenicia Choral Society to be held at the O. F. Hall, Phoenicia, Friday evening, March 24, at 8 o'clock. A historical address will be delivered by John W. Eckert of Kingston before the cantata. Refreshments will be served by the ladies.

Shipping Precaution.

To ship a mirror without breaking the glass, paste narrow strips of paper diagonally across the glass. This breaks the vibrations and prevents the damage that often results.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, Southern District of New York, in the matter of Walter E. Wilson, Plaintiff, vs. Elster county, N. Y., Defendant.

Notice is hereby given that John H. Greengard, trustee in the above matter, will sell at public auction, at the court house in the city of Kingston, Ulster county, N. Y., on the 3rd day of April, 1916, at 10 o'clock a. m., the real estate of said defendant located in the city of Kingston, N. Y., described as follows:

All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the village of Rhinecliff, now Kingston city, Ulster county, beginning at a point on the westerly side of Hackett street, being the northwesterly corner of a lot now owned by James Greengard, formerly known as the Upper lot, and runs from thence northerly along the easterly side of said street to a lot lately sold by said James Greengard and wife to Isabella Mullen, being about 150 feet to the same more or less; thence easterly along the south side of said Mullen lot 75 feet to the proposed line of alley-way 16 feet in width; thence southerly and at right angles to the last mentioned line and parallel with Hackett street to the north line of said street, being 150 feet to the same more or less; thence westerly along the north line of said street to the place of beginning. Recorded in Ulster county clerk's office May 31, 1907, being the same property conveyed to said bankrupt by J. J. Wagner.

Then the terms and conditions as follows: Cash. Such sale to be approved by the court.

Dated, March 20th, 1916.

AMOS VAN ETTEN,

Attorney at Law, Kingston, N. Y.

D. G. Atkins, Esq., Attorney for Trustee.

WILLYSON RURAL CEMETERY ASSOCIATION—ANNUAL MEETING.

NOTICE is hereby given, according to law, that the annual meeting of the Willyson Rural Cemetery Association will be held at the office of Judge Clearwater, 230 Wall street, Kingston, N. Y., on the first Monday of April, 1916, (April 3rd), at 10 o'clock in the morning and at such meeting an election will be held for the election of three trustees of the said association in the place and stead of Allen R. Parker, Martha Jacobs and Lewis S. Wine, whose terms of office will then expire, and that the bill of such election will be kept open from 11 to 12 o'clock of that day.

C. M. DE LA VERGNE,

Secretary.

Kingston, N. Y., March 20th, 1916.

TAKE NOTICE that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Cornell Steamboat Company will be held at the general office of the company, 22 Ferry street, Kingston, N. Y., on the 3rd day of April, 1916, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of electing trustees of the company for the ensuing year.

Other business as may come before the meeting.

Dated, Kingston, N. Y., March 20, 1916.

H. B. FLEMING,

Secretary.

Jewelry For a Gentleman

Athlete Won Two Prizes When He Breasted the Tape

By J. N. COLE, Jr.

Copyright by Frank A. Munsey Co.

Because Skeeter Lafferty was a "cat," speaking in terms of the Forest school, and because he had legs like macaroni and a snub nose spotted with freckles, the older members of the track squad took particular account of the fact that Skeeter warmed up with scrupulous care and deposited himself in a blanket to await the time trials for the 440 yard dash.

He did not resent being thus ignored. He was too much elated over the dazzling prospect of running at the Forest track meet, to be held in Washington the following Saturday, providing he won in the trial heats.

In addition, Skeeter knew that he was being observed by a certain person whose fur toque and muff—he hadn't dared go near enough to hear her voice and see her smile—was visible among a little group of enthusiasts which had collected at the turn to watch the races.

The fact that she was there changed all things for Skeeter. Life was intensified and recolor until it became almost unbearable.

If he should win! If he only could! Skeeter's chest swelled at the thought of the coveted letter awarded for athletic attainments. It was an awe inspiring "F" covering eight inches of sweater front.

The starter's gun flashed as he raised it high above his shoulders. "All candidates for the 440," he called, "get to your marks!"

Figures huddled on the benches suddenly came to life; sweaters and bladders were thrown off, and six lithe runners, half naked in running trunks and jerseys, placed themselves at the line, lifting their legs like hockeys in a show ring.

"Get set!"

The runners crouched with muscles tense and quivering. "Bang!"

There was a grating of spiked shoes on the cinder track; the six, as one man, sprang forward, and before the smoke from the gun had vanished were fighting each other on the first turn, a hundred yards away.

A piling cheer and the clapping of gloved hands sounded from the group which clustered at the turn.

Captain Hughes, a powerful, muscular fellow with red hair and a strawberry complexion, scanned the inside lane and began to pull out from the bunch in quick, greedy strides.

Lafferty, with teeth set, dug out after him. Soon they were racing abreast like a well schooled pair of coach horses.

For feet were stirring along the course. At the end of the first round

HE UNCONSCIOUSLY RAN EACH OF THE

It was easily seen that the race lay between Hughes and Skeeter.

The girl of the fur toque and the muff held her breath. With Skeeter and Hughes pitted against each other she almost wished there had been no race at all.

As the pistol spoke again, announcing the beginning of the last turn, Hughes quickened his pace; so did Lafferty.

There came an instant, as always does when two well matched runners are speeding side by side, when both knew what the outcome of the race would be. With Skeeter this consciousness arrived as they were within a few paces of the last turn. Skeeter felt that he would win. He was fresh still. It was his race!

And then, as he gripped himself for a supreme effort to gain the inside track as they were taking the turn, a sharp punch from Hughes' elbow sent him wobbling to the outside. He barely missed tripping himself.

It was but an instant's delay. But it cost him the inside, and—

"Fifty-four!" sang the timer as Hughes crossed the finish.

"Fifty-five, Lafferty!"

Skeeter had whizzed past only a second later.

Skeeter's Christian name was Fitz-ugh Carter Lafferty. No one knew who had detected his resemblance to a mosquito, though the discovery had been made on the day of his arrival at the Forest school. But mosquito was too classic and smooth fitting to be popular with the "student body" and was promptly reduced to Skeeter, while rare, intimate friends in rare, intimate moments were privileged to say Skeet.

But Fitzugh Carter Lafferty, for all this, had failed to beat Hughes. So Hughes would represent the school at Washington! And she had gone without even saying that she was sorry!

He covered himself in a blanket and started for the showers.

"One moment, Lafferty!" called the coach. "I didn't know you were out for the 440. You ran a corking good race for a new man, but you finished with too much left. The 440 takes all any man has in him, and to win you've got to finish dead. I'd rather see you drop on the first lap than come in strong. You could go another now and not feel it, and Hughes is still blowing hard."

Skeeter winced. He wasn't at all in the mood for postmortems. Clearly the coach hadn't seen Hughes foul him on the turn.

Maybe she had seen! That helped some. It was the sole shred of consolation upon which he could build new hopes.

The coach laid a hand on his shoulder.

"That will do. Stick to it, Skeeter. You'll put a kink in somebody's high gear yet."

"What if Hughes wins the point trophy and gives her the medal?" inquired Skeeter bluntly, hardly conscious of speaking about his inmost thoughts.

The coach smiled. "Who is 'her'?" he asked.

Skeeter grew pink even to his neck and ears.

"H-Hughes," he stammered. "He's—his my rival."

The coach was still at sea, but proved himself a human being by saying after a pause:

"Hughes will hardly win; he's"—

"Too much like a bunk of cheese," assisted Skeeter.

Skeeter throughout the remaining days of the week was unable to shake off a nagging, insistent sense of disappointment. Could he have beaten Hughes in the trial heat if he had known what the coach had told him before the race? Could he have beaten him if Hughes had played fair? Skeeter knew that all things are possible.

Perhaps Skeeter's disappointment would have been less had he known, as the coach knew, that Hughes would not last long as a runner, because he refused to train properly.

Nor did Skeeter realize the benefits of his own self denial and sacrifices for the sake of athletics.

When Saturday came Skeeter's tumbled head was one of the thousands that rose in an undulating mass on every side of the vast amphitheater surrounding the track.

There was so much to see that it made Skeeter's eyes hurt. It was worse than trying to watch a three ringed circus.

Leather lunged, brass throated youths swarmed along the course, shouting and yelling; scores of scantily clad runners circled about with numbers pinned to their backs, and Skeeter's trained eye inspected dozens and dozens of pretty girls.

Excitement and confusion were in the atmosphere. The sonorous voice of the megaphoned clerk echoed and vibrated through the hall. Occasionally the starter's pistol spoke above the din of the cheering.

Then came the lush, the patter of running shoes on the resined floor and the breathless instant at the finish. In only a twinkling, it seemed to Skeeter, a race was won or lost.

He unconsciously ran each of them. At the sound of the gun his muscles grew taut, and his fingers gripped the seat. During the intervals between the events his eye scanned tier after tier of seats. He found her at last.

She was sitting in a box, surrounded by a swarm of Forest school cohorts, armed with banners and megaphones, and Hughes, immersed in an imposing orange sweater, was leaning toward her in a most engaging manner.

Skeeter grew pale with envy as he realized that he had been beaten again. Then he muttered:

"He looks like a hunk of schweitzer!"

Bruton won the fifty yard hurdles with ease. The Forest school, however, had lost the pole vault as well as the 880 yard run. The relay would add five points. But the 300 was shaky, and, as Skeeter had predicted, the winning of the 440 yard dash would determine the school to which the point trophy would belong. Would Hughes win?

Involuntarily Skeeter glanced across toward her box. Where was she? Her chair was empty! Where was Hughes?

"First call for the scholastic 440!" The clerk was calling Hughes' race. A moment later he shouted again: "Hughes, Forest school, No. 80!" There was no reply, and the clerk repeated the call.

Again Hughes failed to respond. Skeeter in a panic slipped from his seat and hurried to the dressing room.

"Where is Hughes?" he asked breathlessly. "They have called his race, and he hasn't shown up yet."

"We've looked everywhere for him," spoke up several of Hughes' friends. "He must have gone out with that female."

"He did," announced another. "I heard her tell him she had a headache and asked him if he wouldn't go out with her to a drug store."

Several boys ran out to fetch Hughes. The coach said something under his breath which made the dressing room grow quite still. He turned to Skeeter.

"If Hughes doesn't show up in time you might as well try to take his place for this race. Hustle into a suit and answer to No. 80 at the last call. It's a chance in a thousand!"

The coach peered anxiously through the crowd.

"I am not surprised," he muttered,

MISS BARBARA RUTHERFORD.

CITIZEN NEWS SERVICE.

SOCIETY WOMEN QUALIFY AS RED CROSS NURSES.

New York, March 20.—Scores of society women in New York are qualifying as Red Cross nurses. In event this country is involved in war they will be ready to serve as nurses in the hospitals and back of the lines.

Increased provision is being made at the uptown branch of the Red Cross on Fifth avenue, to increase the number of daily classes. The members have to go through a complete training course and on completion of the instruction are examined by a Red Cross physician from the headquarters at Washington and given a certificate.

Their names will be listed with the National Red Cross office and they will be rated according to their special adaptability. The course includes training in first aid to the injured and home nursing and consists of fifteen lessons.

Among the prominent society women who have already passed the examination and who hold themselves ready to serve should their country need their services are Miss Barbara Rutherford and Mrs. Ogden Livingston Mills, daughters of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Sr., Mrs. Otto Kahn, Mrs. Benjamin Guinness and Mrs. John McCullough.

Enthusiasm is keen among the younger set and scores have signified their intention of joining the classes. Between fifty and seventy-five volunteer workers are helping Mrs. Leonard Wood, wife of General Wood, at the new headquarters, where thousands of bandages and surgical dressings are turned out weekly.

Half of these are sent to Europe and the other half are packed away in the American Red Cross storage rooms.

half to himself. "A boy who hasn't got

HE LUNGED FORWARD. THE TAPE TWANGED ACROSS HIS BREAST!

will power enough to stop smoking and get himself into good shape for a big meet hasn't got enough to keep a girl from making a fool out of him!"

"Last call for the 440!" came a deep summons from the clerk of the course. "Go ahead, Lafferty!"

Skeeter let out a zip of joy.

"Here, take this quietly!" scolded the coach. "You've got the stuff in you, but today you are up against men way out of your class. If you win you've got to get the pole on the first lap and keep it!"

Skeeter nodded gravely and trotted off, thinking in a dazed way:

"The point trophy—the Forest school—the medal—for her—get the pole on the first lap—keep it!"

He took his place at the start, white to the lips.

The starter raised his gun.

"Get to your marks!"

"Get set!" He gave an agonizing pause. Bang!

There was a flash of white, stinging muscle amid a whirl of legs and arms. It was Skeeter!

Never before had the coaches seen such a pace set for a scholastic 440. They smiled. They had often seen inexperienced runners set a killing pace on the first go round and—die on the second. On the second lap the cheer leaders were staring mutely over their megaphones. Not a voice broke the silence.

Three times around, Skeeter was not dead. He was running like a frightened jack rabbit. The words "Get the pole—keep it!" sang through his brain. Around them went, plunging, elbowing. Again.

The pistol rang out. It was the last lap!

Three runners turned for the finish. Skeeter was wheezing. His legs seemed to crumple; his lungs stiffened. The floor waved under him and seemed to rise to meet his feet. A pain throbbled in his side. He felt a man's hot breath on his neck. Then the man began to pull ahead!

But something drew in Skeeter, which had trained him when all hope seemed idle, refused to die now. His will sent life to the macaroni legs and breath to his lungs.

He lunged forward—the tape twanged across his breast!

Later, when Skeeter opened his eyes, the Forest school cohorts were dancing wildly as they pumped cheers of victory from their leather lungs, and the coach at his side was saying:

"Good work, old macaroni! You've just about put one over on the hunk of cheese!"

"Did we win?" asked Skeeter weakly. "Sure—sure you did!" The coach patted the boy on the shoulder. "And what do you think?" he added in a confidential tone. "She got that fellow Hughes out of here on purpose. Can you beat it? Says she didn't dream you'd get to run, but she was determined Hughes shouldn't. Why didn't you tell me he fouled you in the trials?"

Skeeter struggled to his feet. "Where—where is she?" he asked eagerly.

"She's over there, waiting to see you."

Skeeter broke away through the crowd.

"Say," called the coach, smiling. "I guess if she'd do a thing like that for you she wouldn't mind accepting a little jewelry from a gentleman in spite of the old folk."

Wesley and Tea.

In his younger days John Wesley found it difficult to stop drinking tea. He wrote in 1746: "We agreed it would prevent great expense, as well as health as of time and of money. If the poorer people of our society could be persuaded to leave off drinking of tea. We resolved ourselves to begin and set the example. I expect some difficulty in breaking off a custom of six and twenty years' standing, and accordingly the first three days my head ached to night. The third day my memory failed almost entirely. On Thursday my headache was gone, my memory as strong as ever, and I have found no inconvenience, but a sensible benefit in several respects from that day to this."

Later in life Wesley returned to the use of tea, as his biographer preserved in his house in London shows.

Strenuous Piano Playing.

The late Lord Burnham's house was one of the few—perhaps the only one—where the impresario of London opera seasons allowed his fingers to perform at evening parties. In that drawing room you might hear the prima donna of Covent Garden, and for other manners of music also those parties were memorable. Many respectful hearers have sat by while a great pianist has broken the cord of a grand piano, but at Lord Burnham's on one occasion Rubinstein broke not a cord, but a key. That great composer was a strong man of his hands. The key was a "natural," an ivory note, and when it snapped he threw the fragment over his shoulder and went on.—London Chronicle.

An Omnivorous Insect.

There is in Egypt a little shaggy black and tan insect about an eighth of an inch long that eats almost everything under the sun. In most countries ivory brushes are pretty safe from insects. In Egypt this little terror eats the ivory and eats the bristles. It eats your toothbrush and eats your toothpick. It eats the wool with which you are going to mend your husband's socks—the cards as well as the wool. It eats the handles off your knives and forks. It rejects nothing but glass and china and metal.—Sudan's "Egypt and the English."

The Old Men.

"Little Pitchers—Mrs. Fussy, let me see your old hen. Neighbor—What old hen, boy? Little Pitchers—Why, I asked ma this morning when you sent over to borrow some flour and lard if she was sending more chicken feed to the old hen next door.—Baltimore American.

What Beauty Is Called.

Socrates called beauty a short lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Carneades, a solitary kingdom; Aristotle, that it was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that it was a glorious gift of nature.

Blessed is he who, having nothing to say, abstains from giving words of derision of the fact.—Elliot.

C. & K. Spring Hats for Men

One robin may not make the Spring-time, but there is no disputing the fact that our announcement of

Kuppenheimer Clothes for Spring and Summer 1916 comes pretty near sounding the finish of all the worn and wearied winter wearables; likewise it signals the continuance of greater value-giving to men who appreciate quality and seek it with an eye to economy.

$10.50 $20 $22.50 $25 or $30 $10.00 $20 $22.00 $25 or $30

H. MARBLESTONE KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHS HOUSE

On Wall Street Kingston, N. Y.

"Eiberne" Spring Suits For Boys

and I was half asleep from morning to night. The third day my memory failed almost entirely. On Thursday my headache was gone, my memory as strong as ever, and I have found no inconvenience, but a sensible benefit in several respects from that day to this."

Later in life Wesley returned to the use of tea, as his biographer preserved in his house in London shows.

Strenuous Piano Playing.

The late Lord Burnham's house was one of the few—perhaps the only one—where the impresario of London opera seasons allowed his fingers to perform at evening parties. In that drawing room you might hear the prima donna of Covent Garden, and for other manners of music also those parties were memorable. Many respectful hearers have sat by while a great pianist has broken the cord of a grand piano, but at Lord Burnham's on one occasion Rubinstein broke not a cord, but a key. That great composer was a strong man of his hands. The key was a "natural," an ivory note, and when it snapped he threw the fragment over his shoulder and went on.—London Chronicle.

An Omnivorous Insect.

There is in Egypt a little shaggy black and tan insect about an eighth of an inch long that eats almost everything under the sun. In most countries ivory brushes are pretty safe from insects. In Egypt this little terror eats the ivory and eats the bristles. It eats your toothbrush and eats your toothpick. It eats the wool with which you are going to mend your husband's socks—the cards as well as the wool. It eats the handles off your knives and forks. It rejects nothing but glass and china and metal.—Sudan's "Egypt and the English."

The Old Men.

"Little Pitchers—Mrs. Fussy, let me see your old hen. Neighbor—What old hen, boy? Little Pitchers—Why, I asked ma this morning when you sent over to borrow some flour and lard if she was sending more chicken feed to the old hen next door.—Baltimore American.

What Beauty Is Called.

Socrates called beauty a short lived tyranny; Plato, a privilege of nature; Carneades, a solitary kingdom; Aristotle, that it was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world; Homer, that it was a glorious gift of nature.

Blessed is he who, having nothing to say, abstains from giving words of derision of the fact.—Elliot.

SECOND LARGEST CHECK EVER PAID IN U. S. GOES THROUGH CLEARING HOUSE.

New York, March 20.—A check for $43,338,151.11, the second largest ever paid in the United States, has passed through the New York Clearing House. It was drawn on the Mechanics and Metals National Bank by Lee Higginson & Co. to the order of the Guaranty Trust Company. It represents payment for the issue of Midvale Steel convertible 5 per cent bonds recently sold to the three concerns named as a syndicate. The largest check ever drawn was for $62,075,000 in connection with a Pennsylvania Railroad bond sale.

SECOND LARGEST CHECK EVER PAID IN U. S. GOES THROUGH CLEARING HOUSE.

New York, March 20.—A check for $43,338,151.11, the second largest ever paid in the United States, has passed through the New York Clearing House. It was drawn on the Mechanics and Metals National Bank by Lee Higginson & Co. to the order of the Guaranty Trust Company. It represents payment for the issue of Midvale Steel convertible 5 per cent bonds recently sold to the three concerns named as a syndicate. The largest check ever drawn was for $62

Spring Coats

We pride ourselves on the selection of spring coats. They bear the distinction of being the most of the ordinary. Included are sport coats, suit coats and coats of varied mixtures, prices are moderate.

Covert Coats, collar of silk, poplin, in contrasting colors $14.50 Field Sport Coats, with silk and pocket, trimmed in buttons $12.50 Wool Mixtures, unlined, trimmed in buttons and contrasting collar $12.50 Cravette Auto Coat, poplin back and belt $15.00	Check Box Coats, trimmed in black, velvet collar, cuffs and fold $14.50 Fawn Check, line check, broad cloth, in delicate colorings, collar and cuffs trimmed in contrasting cloth and buttons $12.50 Chickadee Check, in black and white, fancy button trimmings $12.50 Poplin Coat, all wool, corded belt effect, false pockets, semi-lined $15.00
--	---

Children's Spring Coats

Just arrived, the smartest looking lot of children's spring coats that has ever been shown, such pretty little silk coats, neat checks and plain serges, for children from 3 years to 12 years.

Children's Silk Poplin Coats, lined throughout, colors, rose, Belgium and navy and black, double collar $8.50

Children's French Serge Coats, belted and lined, double collar $8.00

Children's Golf Cord Coats, unlined, belted and pockets, colors, rose and green $8.00

Children's Shepherd Check Coats, contrasting plain collar, belted, lined throughout $8.00

Children's Shepherd Check Coats, box coat, silk braid trimmed with pockets, very stylish $6.75

Children's All Wool Field Coats, unlined, box effect $9.00

Dainty Silk Underwear

G. A. Hart & Co. always had the reputation for fine underwear. This season surpasses all others. Such dainty, silky undergarments in the delicate shades of flesh and white.

Envelope Chemises, in crepe de chene, hand embroidered and val lace trimmed $2.25 and $2.50

Envelope Chemises, in crepe de chene, hand embroidered and ribbed lace trimmed $2.50

Envelope Chemises, in crepe de chene, shoulder straps of ribbon, lace trimmed, pink and white $2.50

Envelope Chemises, in china silk lace trimmed, pink and white $2.50

SILK GOWNS—Crepe de chene and china silk, lace trimmed in white, flesh and blue $2.50 to $3.50

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

G. A. HART & CO.

KINGSTON N.Y.

OUR EFFICIENT PLATE DEPARTMENT

This branch of our business is in charge of a dentist who specializes in this kind of work and possesses unusual ability. He selects the proper tooth and tries the case, and, in fact, follows the plate through to completion. This unusual service will meet with quick appreciation from people who have worn unsatisfactory plates and those who are to wear plates for the first time.

E. P. BAYLOR, Manager
216 Wall St., Kingston

Tooth Nerves Killed Without Pain. Lady in Attendance.

NOT A LOST CHORD.

Such Had the Melody in Him and Just Had to Get It Out.

The Duke of Exa-Weimar once invited John Sebastian Bach, the Nestor of German music, to attend a dinner at the palace. Before the guests sat down to the feast Bach was asked to give an improvisation. The composer seated himself at the harpsichord and straightway forgot all about dinner and everything else. He played so long that at last the duke touched his shoulder and said: "We are very much obliged, master, but we must not let the soup get cold."

Bach sprang to his feet and followed the duke to the dining room without uttering a word. But he was scarcely seated when he sprang up, rushed back to the instrument like one demented, struck a few chords and returned to the dining room, evidently feeling much better. "I beg your pardon, your highness," he said, "but you interrupted me in a series of chords and arpeggios on the dominant seventh, and I could not find at once which they were supposed to be. It is as if you had scattered a glass of water from the top of a man dying of thirst. Now I have drunk the glass out and am content."

Plucking the Worry.

King—I don't see how Bregoe can stand to wear a fifty dollar suit of clothes. King—Oh, he can afford it, all right, but I don't see how his tailor could afford to make it.

True Patriot.

"What's your idea of a true patriot?" "A man who can smile while he is being shot at."—Washington Statesman.

Gallo Different.

Postmaster—Did you say he was working for the government now? Businessman—Why, no! I said he had a government job.—Kansas Statesman.

Has the Wrong Man.

"I have just been thinking," said a man, "that the best way to get a job is to get a man who has the wrong man."—Boston Transcript.

J. C. T. PREPARING FOR CONVENTION

At the annual meeting of Kingston Council, No. 356, United Commercial Travelers, held Saturday night, at Pythian Hall, officers were elected and plans discussed for the state convention in Kingston June 8, 9 and 10. It is the intention of the local drummers to make this annual meeting of council from every part of the state the "best ever."

The following officers were elected: Charles B. Everett, senior councillor; William H. Niles, junior councillor; William C. Dutton, past councillor; Mason Shultz, secretary-treasurer; James W. Scott, conductor; Edward S. Morris, page; Harold H. Cole, sentinel; George L. Phillips and Joseph P. Hittorf, members of the executive committee for two years; Tracy Tillson and C. B. Everett, delegates to the grand council; William R. Harrison and W. C. Van Anden, alternates to grand council, which will meet in Kingston in June.

Following are the names of the chairmen of the committees who will have charge of the convention: each chairman choosing several members to serve on his committee: General and finance committee for grand council meeting, William Dugan, chairman; M. E. Shultz, secretary and treasurer; William R. Harrison, chairman of entertainment committee; C. B. Everett, chairman reception and automobile committee; William C. Van Anden, chairman parade committee; William C. Dutton, chairman of hotel and traffic committee; Louis Low, music committee; Joseph P. Hittorf, chairman decoration and souvenir committee.

Mason Shultz has charge of the work of preparing a souvenir program and is doing well.

Three candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order and then a smoker was enjoyed at which the knights of the grip chatted about the big convention which they have brought to this city for June. All the members are filled with enthusiasm over the affair and several novel stunts will be pulled off during the three days of high merriment when the travelers will be Kingston's guests. It is expected that 1,000 men will be here during the convention.

IN SPECIAL TERM.

Various Matters Before Justice Hasbroeck on Saturday.

Among litigation before Supreme Court Justice G. D. B. Hasbroeck in special term Saturday morning was the case of Richard Overbaugh, doing business under the name of the Saugerties Coal and Lumber Company, against Ernest and Lulu Mower. Attorney George D. Kaufman appeared for the defendant, Ernest Mower, and Mayor Palmer Canfield, Jr., for Lulu Mower. After hearing a brief argument the court modified the judgment so that the referee can take up the question of a disposition between the defendants of the surplus, if any, arising from the foreclosure of a mechanic's lien. Attorney Arthur C. Connelly represented the plaintiff.

Attorney Hector Sears of Gardiner was granted an order in the case of Leo Clinton against Nellie Clinton and others authorizing the county treasurer to pay over certain moneys in a foreclosure proceeding.

In the matter of the Kingston Coal Company against Benjamin F. Belmont, Attorney Henry Klein obtained an order making a judgment a lien on certain real estate of the defendant.

Attorney Percy W. Decker of Catskill was given permission to amend the summons and complaint in a Greene county action entitled Charles E. Horn and one against Charles Besonaks and another.

Judge Hasbroeck signed the incorporation papers of the Ellenville W. C. T. U. which has incorporated for the purpose of erecting a building, a step made possible under the will of the late John R. Hunt which left the organization the residuary estate of $70,000 for such purpose. The directors are Mary E. Smiley, Minnie F. Anderson, Mary A. Danman, Libbie M. Potter, Carrie Cookingham, Eva Van Kirk and Lizzie D. Van.

Motion for a change of venue in the action of Viola M. Youngs against Robert E. Lent and Fred T. Robbins was heard, the defendants being constables in Westchester county from whom the plaintiff seeks $5,000 damages alleged to have been suffered by her through a levy on some of her goods at her former home near Ossining. Mrs. Youngs now resides in Lakawack and Attorney John R. DeVary opposed the motion in her behalf. Attorney Edgar L. Rider, of White Plains who was one of the attorneys, asked that the trial be held in Westchester county. The court took the papers and named Attorney Dey as referee to take testimony in both counties if both parties agree on such course.

In the mortgage foreclosure proceeding of Abraham J. Post against Pasquale Galdacchi, a Greene county case, Attorney Daniel B. Dey was appointed referee to compute the amount due the Attorney Howard C. Wilbur was named referee to sell.

In the action of Herman Stemmerman against William H. Brewster and Edward Moran, a suit brought to recover payment for a bungalow constructed for the defendants near Saugerties, an order was granted permitting substituted service on Brewster at his place of business, 372 East 28th street, New York. Attorney Benjamin Howe of Saugerties appeared for the plaintiff.

A Cup and Saucer Shower.

A cup and saucer shower will be given in connection with the meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association of School No. 6 on Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be served.

WINTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, faded eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine", simply a highly concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—renewed subscription. Scott & Bown, New York, N.Y. 15-2

SAUGERTIES.

Saugerties, March 20.—On Saturday two employees of the Saugerties Foundry Co., were injured while at work on the moulding department. Ralph Falk by a piece of casting falling on him, bruising his knee, and a moulder's helper falling with a ladle of molten iron, burned about the eyes; his injuries necessitating his removal to the Kingston City Hospital.

Misses Jennie Hanna and Fannie Post of Ulster avenue have returned from a business trip in New York city.

Miss Jane Hotelling of Main street spent the week end in New York city.

Miss Anna Herring of the South Side has returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

Hoyt Overbagh of Main street has returned from New York city.

W. W. Bohr of Brooklyn is visiting at Charles Coon's on Post street.

Mrs. Marchant of Kingston spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dederick on Main street.

La Vergne Bovee and wife of Poughkeepsie spent Sunday with his parents on Market street.

Samuel L. Goldberg of Sulzberger and Co., is in Bridgeport and New York on business.

Daniel Nutley of Second street is spending a few days in New York city.

Mrs. George Colburn of Division street is spending a few days in New York city.

Belmont Whittaker and wife of Partition street have returned from a week's visit in Germantown.

Chalmers Becker, a former resident and now residing in Red Hook spent Sunday in town.

Uses For Old Bones.

Bones are not wasted. The chief product is glue, and among other materials which are obtained from them are soap, glycerin and fertilizers. After being carefully separated by workmen they are soaked in a weak solution of sulphuric acid. From the soaking tanks the bones emerge white and perfectly clean. They are then placed in steam tanks, where, after being subjected to a pressure of steam for several hours, a trapdoor is opened at the bottom of the digester, as it is called, and the liquid glue that has been extracted is drawn off. The liquid glue is partly evaporated, and a portion is allowed to harden for commercial use as glue, and a part is refined and sold for gelatin for table use. Floating on the top of the glue in the digester is a quantity of fat that has been also extracted from the bones by the steam. This is drawn off into cooling tanks, where in its crude state it is made into scouring soaps. By refining and adding vegetable oils and perfumes toilet soaps are made.—London Globe.

Chest Measurements.

Put a tape measure round your chest and note the measurement. Puff your chest out by taking a deep breath and note the number of inches that you increase. One inch of expansion would be very feeble; two is rather poor. We all ought to put on three inches, and four is good. It is right and proper that the lungs should be well expanded at each breath. The air penetrates more easily into some parts of the lungs. The apex, at the base of the neck, just behind the collar bone, is rather a sluggish part of the incoming air current. That is considered to be one of the reasons why the apex is the commonest site for consumption. All children should be taught breathing exercises. The ribs are set in childhood and youth and can be molded into shape. When once growth has stopped the ribs are in their position and shaped for life. Therefore take pains to cultivate a good chest that expands several inches.

Monster Jellyfish.

An interesting feature of the bay of Naples is the great quantity of large jellyfish found there. It is not unusual to find them fully two feet in diameter and weighing up to sixty pounds. Some of them shine at night with a greenish light and are known as medusae (night lanterns) by the natives. The jellyfish sometimes make migrations in great groups, sometimes so large and so thick as to impede the navigation of vessels, like the floating plants in the Sargasso sea of the tropics. These shoals of medusae, as they are called, may at times be so dense that a piece of timber plunged in among them will be held upright as if stuck in the mud, and ordinary row-boats cannot force their way through them. Their migrations have never been explained.

Poor Guess.

Sunday School Teacher—"Children, do you know the house that is open to all—the poor, the rich, the sad, the happy, to men and to women, to young and to old—do you know the house I mean?" Small Boy—"Yes, mine—the station house."—Boston Transcript.

SAM BERNSTEIN & Co.

Wall Street Kingston, N. Y. Phone 14

SPRING MODELS NOW ON SHOW

$9.85

Style, quality and price that will interest you. All the good points you would expect to find in garments of higher prices.

$11.75

GOLF-BACK NORFOLK. Has three flap patch pockets. Stitched down belt. High cut vest. Very stylish.

$14.75

SLANT POCKET COAT. This is a very smart model. Coat has top and lower slant pocket, and smart peak lapels. High cut vest and semi-English trousers.

$18.00

THREE BUTTON MODEL. Suit is well tailored and well lined. It is an ideal conservative suit, with medium lapel, high cut vest and medium trousers.

$22.00

One of the smartest garments offered for Spring wear. In all the new popular shades and patterns.

$25.00

"Equal to Custom Made." Comes in the newest and best patterns and fabrics. We invite your most critical examination of this garment.

BOYS' SPRING SUITS

$2.98

TWO PAIRS OF PANTS. Sewed on Belt, Norfolk, Patch Pockets, in stylish mixtures.

$4.85

Boy's Gathered Back Norfolk. Three Patch Pockets. Three piece of pants. Some with two pairs of pants.

$6.85, $7.85

Swell serge, Check and Mixtures.

Continued Sale on

$18.00
$14.75
$11.75

LIGHT WEIGHT
Overcoats
$9.75

HATS
98c, $1.88

This season's shapes and colors. The largest assortment in the city.

SHOES
$3.50 AND $4
CRAWFORD

Blacks and tans. Every pair guaranteed.

SHIRTS
New Spring Patterns
48c

Princely Dress Shirts. A big variety, all sizes.

98c

Guaranteed Laundry Proof. Soft or stiff cuffs.

$1.50

Arrow Shirts, none better for style and quality.

$2.85

All the newest pattern shades in silk.

BROADWAY CASINO

NOTE: "The Girl and the Game" every Tues. "The Strange Case of Mary Page" every Friday.

SOME PICTURES

TONIGHT

'As a Woman Sows'

Mutual Master Picture
De Luxe Edition

Coming Next Week—The Great Triangle Plays

TOMORROW

"The Girl and the Game"

MAYOR AND COUNCIL OF RHEIMS IN GAS MASKS. (Anti-Gas Picture)

MAYOR OF RHEIMS AND CITY COUNCIL WEAR GAS MASKS.

The poison gases used by the Germans are no respecters of persons. Even the mayor and the councilmen of the city of Rheims, in France, often subjected the gaseous attacks, are forced to have gas masks constantly at hand to prevent suffocation. Practice drills are held once or twice a week. This picture shows the mayor, with his wife and members of the council wearing their gas masks.

L. HOYT GREEN
39 North Front St.
Phone 1400 Free Delivery
THE RELIABLE STORE

TUESDAY SPECIALS.
3 Pkgs Jello 25c
3 Pkgs Tryphosa 25c
3 Pkgs Cooper's Gelatine 25c
Evaporated Apples 11c pkg
Evaporated Peaches, 3 lbs. 25c
Evaporated Apricots 14c lb
Large Prunes 12c lb
Strictly Fresh Eggs 30c doz
Pure Lard 14c lb
Fresh Creamery Butter 40c lb
15c Jar Peanut Butter 10c
25c Jar Peanut Butter 15c
Chuck Steak 18c lb
Stew Beef 13c lb
Bologna 19c lb

Paramount Pictures
V-L-S-E
Blue Bird and Gold
Rooster World Features

Orpheum
Telephone 324

Matinee 3:00 P. M.
Evening 7:15 9:00

Admission 10c

TONIGHT
Henry W. Savage presents
MADAME X
The great Broadway success—featuring
"DOROTHY DONNELLY"
In Six Parts

COMING TOMORROW, MAR. 21.
One day only, the beautiful scenic production of

"Along the Kennebec"
THIS IS NO PICTURE, BUT A ROAD SHOW.

Matinee, 3 p. m., 10-15c; evening, 8:15, balcony, 10c; orchestra, 20 and 30 cents.
Reserved seats now on sale.
Watch out for the Rube Band tomorrow at noon.

ADVERTISERS ESTIMATE THE
VALUE BY THE CIRCULATION.
And The Freeman has a circulation double that of all other Kingston dailies combined.

THE OCTOPUS TURNS TURTLE

An embargo was laid on one consignement of gasoline and kerosene for a half hour this morning when Tank Sleigh 4547 of the Standard
Oil slipped off a drift in North Front street and capsized on the street car track. The big tank weighing nearly four tons presented quite a problem for a quarter of an hour and the advice contributed by the Committee of Forty-seven which quickly gathered would have made a bulky volume for the efficiency department of John D.'s Kingston branch.

Finally after the mule team had been unhitched and a chain obtained.
Manager Joseph Hutton took charge. He quickly grasped the situation and the tank, the latter being righted in the course of the next few minutes by the combined power of two mules and six men.
The tank bumped heavily on its runners but no great amount of damage was done and not a drop of the precious gasoline irrigated the pavement.

A car on the Colonial line was landlocked by the upset and operated on the Washington avenue section while passengers were obliged to detour around the scene of the hold-up. Drifts at this point have been left in a dangerous condition by snow from the trolley plows and the traffic.

Crescents Want Games.

The Crescent A. C. baseball team of Newburgh would like to hear from teams in and around Kingston.
They play no games at home. Any team wishing to play this club at their home grounds should communicate with their manager, H. Ladue, 29 Benkart avenue, Newburgh, N. Y., stating their guarantee.

Annual Regatta at Poughkeepsie.
The intercollegiate regatta this season will be held as usual on the Hudson river at Poughkeepsie on Saturday, June 17. The three events will be staged at approximately the same time as in previous years. There was some talk at first of not holding the regatta at Poughkeepsie this year.

Dance at Hebrew School.

A dance will be held on Saturday evening, March 25, at 8 o'clock at the Hebrew School hall. Refreshments will be served. A small admission will be charged. The public is invited and assured of a good time. An orchestra will furnish music.

Optimistic Thought.

Men were at first upright; then came an era of insincerity.

STRANGE STABLE ACCIDENT.

Horse Scared by a Cat Injures Harley Man Painfully.

Harley, March 20.—Charles Snyder met with an odd but painful accident, on Friday evening last, which laid him up for a few days. He was shaking the bedding under one of his horses when a cat, which had been sitting on a beam overhead, jumped suddenly down and alighted on the horse's back. This scared the animal so much, that he plunged, jumped and kicked and before he knew how, Mr. Snyder was down on the floor of the stall, under the horse's feet. A few words of encouragement calmed the excited animal down enough to allow Mr. Snyder to crawl out of the stall and get out of danger. On reaching the house, he went to bed. The side of his head showed a large lump, where the horse had kicked him a glancing blow, while his arm showed similar marks; his principal ailment, however, beyond many black and blue spots, was a badly lamed back from spraining or wrenching. His condition is improving so much after such a narrow escape, that he intends getting out of bed soon.

Miss Hazel Brodhead spent a few days at her home last week.

Miss Newkirk with her sister, Mrs.
Von Schlieder went to the home of the latter in Hackensack for a more or less prolonged visit, for a much needed rest.

There is a very flattering notice of Master Aubrey Arnot as a debater in the Saturday evening Freeman, in the last item of academy news on page six. The young man must have achieved quite a success.

Arnold Hillier is engaged in New York city, working on the reports of the charities investigation.

Mrs. Della DuMont celebrated her
84th birthday on Sunday last, March 19.

Mrs. Peter Brink has returned from a long and pleasant visit in
New York city and vicinity.

Mrs. John Ostrander has gone to Woodstock to a double birthday celebration of herself and her brother.

Miss Helen Hotelling's condition is improving most pleasingly after the operation on her eye of last week.
The sight is quite clear and distinct.

Basketball at Y. M. C. A.

Basketball was the main attraction at the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday and that morning the last games in the Student C League were played. The Colonials closed the season in first place and each player on the team will be awarded a medal. The fortunate athletes are McGrane, Albright, Wolff, Bonesteel, Garrison and Flemming.

Saturday evening a fast game was played between the team of Troop
No. 1, Boy Scouts, and the Triangle
Five, which was won by the scouts by a score of 33 to 22. The scouts were Rymer, Every, Rodie, Rosenthal and Straley, while the Triangle players were Ryan, Schoonmaker, Buestis, Vignes, Cooper and Van Buren.

ABOVE—GEN CHARLES ROQUES.
BELOW—GEN JOSEPH GALLIENI.

GENERAL ROQUES SUCCEEDS GEN. GALLIENI AS FRENCH WAR MINISTER.

General Joseph Gallieni, the famous one-armed defender of Paris last year, has been succeeded by General Charles Roques as minister of war in the French cabinet.

Rumors of friction between Genera Gallieni and the French senate have been current for some time. He was appointed as minister of war in October, 1915.

General Roques, who succeeds General Gallieni, was formerly inspector-general of the air service and is an authority on military aviation.

A Blithesome Profession.

From a paper read in San Francisco: "The true funeral director is serious, but not gloomy; dignified, but not morose; gentle, but not fawning;
self-possessed, but not self-conscious;
quietly masterful, but not bossy; alert, but not fussy; watchful, but not nervous; a kindly, unassuming master of ceremonies."—Boston Herald.

WALTER OSTRANDER—Who is He
The short, stout fellow, was for years with Sam Bernstein & Co.

Ostrander & Woolsey

Head of Wall St.
Next to Carls Dept. Store
Kingston, N. Y.

Spring Suits for the Young Felo

Roberts Wicks Make.
Stein Bloch Make.
Rochester Quality Make.
Michaels Stern Make.
Post Graduate Make.

Our spring suits are snappy, have the style that's wanted by the young fellows and "without the usual big profit."

We are showing the largest line of "up to the minute" spring suits in the city of Kingston.

$11.75	$10.75
$14.75	$22.50
$16.50	$25.00
$18.00	$28.00

Copyright, 1915.
ROBERTS-WICKS COMPANY

"Post Graduate" Suits for Boys New Spring Styles

Ages 7 to 18 years.
Mothers say, "My, how nice your boy's suits fit."
So many new patterns in gray or brown.
The newest models in coats.

Boys' "Bell" or "Puritan" Blouses

Boys' clothing on second floor.
Prices: $2.98, $3.85, $4.85,
$5.85, $6.85, $7.85.

Great Line of Men's Worsted Pants at $2.85

Something to wear with that coat and vest that's partly worn out and pants all gone.

We have a big line to pick from at $2.85. All kinds of colors and patterns—and they fit right.

The Roof of the World

Copyright 1916 General Roofing Manufacturing Co.

"From Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Africa's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their heads from sun and rain."

You will find CERTAIN-TEED affording equal protection from the snow and ice of the Arctic, and the sun and rain of the Tropics. It is literally "the roof of the world".

Making roofing is the General's chief business. He makes one third of all roll roofing made in America—39 other manufacturers make the balance. Such predominance is due to the General's ability to make the highest quality roofing at the lowest cost.
Every advantage that men, money, mills and machinery can offer is used to increase production, maintain quality and lower the cost.

The result is that today CERTAIN-TEED, the world's best quality, costs less than inferior roofing cost 10 years ago.

CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with a scientific blend of soft asphalt, the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphalt, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out process so destructive to ordinary roofing.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3).
Experience proves that it lasts longer.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

Certain-teed Roofing

GENERAL ROOFING MANUFACTURING COMPANY
World's Largest Manufacturers of Roofing and Building Papers

New York City Chicago Philadelphia St. Louis Boston Cleveland Pittsburgh Detroit San Francisco Cincinnati New Orleans
Los Angeles Minneapolis Kansas City Seattle Indianapolis Atlanta Savannah London Sydney

MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1916.
Sun rises, 6:03; sets, 6:13.
Weather, clear. Humidity, 33 to 42.

The Temperature.

The lowest point registered by The Freeman's thermometer last night was 10 degrees. The highest point reached up until noon today was 28 degrees.

Weather Forecast.

Washington, March 20.—Increasing cloudiness and warmer tonight, followed by snow in west portion. Tuesday snow or rain and warmer; moderate winds, becoming southerly.

TRIBUTE TO PASTOR.

Winners' Bible Class Expresses Appreciation of Mr. Cranston.

An unexpected testimonial was that given to the Rev. George M. Cranston, pastor of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church, at the close of the Sunday school sessions when members of the Winners' Bible Class, nearly ninety strong, expressed their appreciation of their pastor's labors. Principal John H. Garrison of School No. 8, was the spokesman and he paid tribute to the energy and loyalty of the Rev. Mr. Cranston, stating that the Winners' Class stood firmly behind his leadership. This fact he desired to be made known before the conference at Peekskill next week. A brief response was made by the pastor who was taken by surprise by the unexpected tribute.

Stone Ridge Man Buys Some Pig.

Many Ulster county farmers will remember the fine quality of Chester White swine exhibited last August at Ulster county fair by Ridgely Manor Farm. It will interest them to learn that Kenneth Scott has just purchased from Hiland Stock Farm, Ames, Iowa, a son of the great boar, "Wildwood Prince," 2853. "Wildwood Prince" weighed 1,110 pounds when 3 years old and was first senior champion and grand champion at Iowa state fair, 1914. His son, "Ridgely Wildwood," is a very fine individual and arrived at Stone Ridge on Friday after being in his crate since Tuesday. He is none the worse for his 1,000 mile train ride. It is impossible to overestimate the good to be obtained by the introduction of blood such as this for this locality. This boar's breeding is the outcome of many years of careful selection by the best breeders of Chester White swine.

From Andrew St. to Albany Ave.

E. H. Powell, the well known truckman, will move his business from No. 78 Andrew street to No. 367 Albany avenue about the first of the month. The removal to the new location is due to the fact that he will have more buildings at the new location. He will also open a fire proof storage for furniture and will continue the trucking business as usual.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Last Dodge Subscription Concert, this Wednesday evening, High School.

LIVE CIGARS, SOUTHERN, Alex. Bloch, violinist. Tickets at Rider's Music Store.

Electrical treatment given by appointment. MRS. A. B. MAEEN, 75 Pearl street.

TIME NOW

to think about your Easter flowers. We are getting ready. VALENTIN BURGEVIN, INC., Fair and Main streets.

SEED POTATOES.

Early Oblos, Early Rose, and Burbank, also timothy clover seed, corn, peas and set onions, for sale at A. H. GILDERSLER'S, 613 Broadway.

RUBBER STAMPS.

All kinds made to order. Notary public seals, daters, stencils, time stamps, numbering machines, sign making outfits. O'REILLY'S, 520 Broadway.

LADIES!

We sell cloth by the yard 56 inches wide, from $1.50 to $2.00 per yard.

A. KUNST, Merchant Tailor, 65 Broadway, Downtown Tel 747-R.

Miss Margaret Elizabeth Sullivan, Teacher of Expression, Poetic, Dramatic and Literary Interpretation. Phone 1039-J.

Big classy Chalmers, seats 8. Peck's Taxi Service. Tel. 1161.

ST PATRICK'S DAY

Novelties, favors, pins, place cards, post cards and booklets, from 10 cts. up. O'REILLY'S, 530 Broadway.

At the public's service, day or night. Miller's Taxi. Phone 17.

Awning, Upholstering, Furniture Repairs, Auto Tops Recovered. HENRY EIGHMEY, 94 Highland avenue.

THE FREEMAN IN NEW YORK

The Freeman is on sale each evening by 10:30 at Hoteling's News Stand, North end Times Building, 43rd street and Broadway, New York city. This stand remains open until midnight.

MENKE'S DAILY SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke.)

New York, March 20.—Talk to any enthusiastic supporter of Jess Willard and he'll assure you, in unmistakable language, that the champion will "kill" Frank Moran next Saturday night. Then ask the Willardites what odds he'll lay against Moran's chances—and you get a shock.

Despite Willard's tremendous physical superiority over Moran—50 to 55 pounds in weight, six inches in height and six inches in reach—the best odds that the Willard folks offer are as follows:

10 to 7 that Willard will win the popular decision, this to be decided by the consensus of opinion among the sporting writers of the New York papers.

1 to 3 that Willard scores a knockout.

4 to 1 that Moran doesn't win by a knockout.

Conversational Confidence Only.

Tom Jones, the most magnificent razor wielder that ever escaped from the confines of Kewange, is the greatest Willard booster in the wide, wide world. Converse with him for a spell and you'll get the idea that no living man can hurt the champion; that none can hit him; that none can stop the Willard right-handed crusher and that whenever that blow lands the recipient of it goes down and out.

And yet, Tom, as boastful as he is about Willard's prowess, won't back up his statements any stronger than to offer to bet one of his dollars to every three of yours that Willard will win by a knockout.

Does that bespeak real confidence? Isn't it obvious that the Willardites are confident only conversationally? If the champion is such a superior being, and such a "sure thing" winner, why do the Willard folks refuse to risk their bankrolls?

Little Betting So Far.

There has been less betting to date on the Willard-Moran affair than on any battle in which a heavyweight champion has figured. The real reason is the ridiculous odds being offered by the Willard folks.

Ring tradition always makes the champion a betting favorite in any battle in which he mingles. Even though outbunked, the champions of the past have carried the long end of the bets into the ring with them. Taking ring tradition into consideration, together with Willard's enormous physical advantages over Moran, the champion ought to be an overwhelming favorite. But he isn't.

There is plenty of Moran money in this town and elsewhere. Thousands of ring followers have confidence in the blond Pittsburgher. They are willing to back him to the limit of their resources. But they want fair odds. And 10 to 7 on Willard are not fair. They are much too small. Willard ought to be a 2½ or 3 to 1 favorite at least. But he isn't—and he won't be. His rooters won't back him that way.

Odds Are Ridiculous.

Willard is the champion. He never has been knocked out or down. No man, according to Tom Jones, has ever hit him hard enough to sting him. Willard is physical perfection, says Jones. The other Willardites chant "amen." The Willard folks regard Moran as a joke. They claim he hasn't a punch that could give Willard even momentary pain. They say that Willard's right handed wallop will send any man into dreamland.

And yet the Willard folks will bet you 10 to 7 on Willard's chances to win on points—just that and nothing more. As to his chances of scoring a knockout? Well, they tell you it's a cinch. He'll do it sure. And then they offer 1 to 3 on it. A ridiculous proposition in the minds of the non-partisan.

Willard will weigh between 250 and 255 against Moran's 202; he'll measure 6 feet and 7 inches against a trifle over 6 feet for Moran; his reach is 54 against a champion stretch for his foe. No champion ever has overshadowed an opponent as much as Willard will overshadow Moran. But 10 to 7 is the best that's been offered to date on Willard's chances of victory.

Are Willardites Afraid?

One thing is certain: Jess Willard will go into the ring next Saturday night backed by less money than ever was carried by a champion. His supporters are loud in their conversational backing of the heavyweight king—but they balk at supporting him with money.

What's the answer? Can there be any other than the secret fear among the Willardites that the champion isn't unbeatable—that Moran, pigmy that he is in comparison with his rival, may achieve an undisputable victory.

Sunday Pictures Popular.

Many persons were turned away from the Y. M. C. A. auditorium Sunday afternoon when motion pictures from "Samson and Delilah" were shown. The Rev. Dr. T. H. Baragwanath, pastor of St. James's M. E. Church told the story of Samson's life in brief narrative form and the pictures were pronounced exceptional.

MATTY IS GOLF SHARK

Giant's Pitching Star Can Drive 235 Yards With Putter.

With Cleek and Mid-Iron Christy Gets Long, High Ball, and Takes the Turf Nicely—His Putting Is Only Average.

Now that Christy Mathewson's best days as a baseball player are over, he is beginning to take golf more seriously. As a golfer, it is doubtful if he will ever attain the heights he reached as a pitcher, but Matty is at all times a dangerous player. He hits a long, low ball off the tee, but his direction is a little uncertain, and he still flubs his shot occasionally.

In his desire to get distance with his wooden clubs, he pulls himself up when at the top of the swing with a motion that is entirely "out of order," but his good eye saves him from the fate that usually follows this fault. Most players who do this either hit the turf behind the ball or hit the ball on the upstroke and spoil the shot. With the cleek and the mid-iron Matty gets a long, high ball, and takes the turf nicely, but the supreme test of a golfer lies within 50 yards of the green, and here he falls down. From this distance the champions hole out with almost mechanical precision in two strokes, or three at the most, whereas the average golfer is well satisfied with a three and often takes four strokes. Matty is no exception to this rule, and loses more strokes either on or just off the green than in any other part of his game. His putting is only average, but this can be improved by his taking more care in surveying the contour of the green and more time in making his putt.

Christy Mathewson.

INTERESTING SPORT PARAGRAPHS

Manager Jack Dunn has leased the Federal league park in Baltimore for a period of eight years.

Joe Tinker may have a better opinion of National league players before the Cubs finish their season.

Pittsburgh university will in the near future boast a $2,000,000 athletic stadium, if present plans go through.

San Francisco boxing promoters representing 14 clubs have agreed upon plans to reopen boxing contests in that city.

Even the man who detests the manly art feels grateful to Colonel Jess Willard for not having started a beauty column.

Jimmy Dime, veteran fight manager, now scales at 200 pounds on the hoof. He can't be the original thin dime we read about.

"Let me be an umpire," from Act IV, "Henry VI." Well, there's the peculiar case of Bob Emslie, thirty years on the job.

It is the fashion to sneeze at chess, but who ever heard of a member of a college chess team being thrown out for failure to keep up in his studies?

President Dunn, newly chosen president of the Cleveland Indians, is an enthusiast of the boxing game and takes a keen interest in other vigorous sports.

They say that Ed Konetchy can't stand riding. If this is the case, he should stuff his right ear with cotton while playing on the Boston infield this season.

Ogden Armour, one of the new stockholders in the Cubs, calls Joe Tinker's army of Cubs a "nine." He will find out differently when the pay envelopes are distributed.

John McGraw says that C. S. Doota and Rariden will do all the catching for the Giants next season. The switch of Meyers to Brooklyn clinches posts for them.

At the Dinner.

Dashaway (nervously)—"Look here, old fellow, don't you think you'd better tell them not to call on me?" Cleverton—"Don't be worried; they won't. I'm quite sure they have all heard you before."—Judge.

The Word "Stunt." A "stunt" is a feat or performance striking for its strength or skill required for its accomplishment; hence it has come to mean any real feat. The word has made its way into both Webster and the New Standard dictionary, but neither states its origin. Webster suggests a comparison with the old word "stunt," which means "a task." It is interesting to note that obsolete provincial English had a word "stunt" which meant "dull" or "stupid."

Tim says:

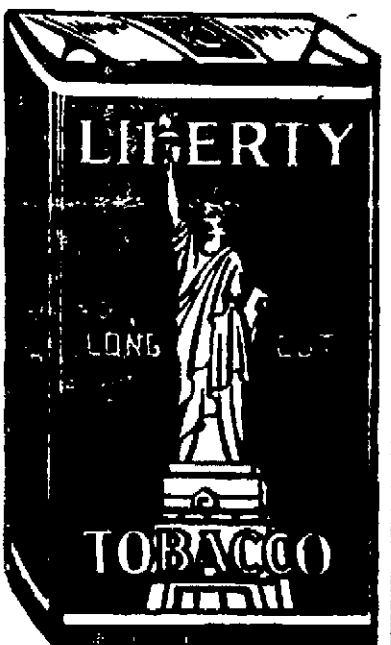

"T'other morning I left my LIBERTY Long Cut at home, and before noon I thought it was a week from Thursday."

"To save me from starvation I borrowed a chew of Bonehead's Joy from the foreman, but I might as well have chewed the rag with the corner cop for all the good I got out of it."

The job that puts hard on the muscles calls for a snappy, zippy man's-size tobacco. LIBERTY gives the big all-day brace to the husky lads who make the world go round.

There's nothing in LIBERTY but clean pure honest Kentucky tobacco. No short, broken leaves—no hard loose stems. And it's aged from three to five years to bring out the sweet mellow flavor of the leaf.

LIBERTY makes a long, free-burning, fragrant smoke and a lasting, juicy chew. Try it for both. Compare LIBERTY with bigger-looking packages filled with—? —!!—★!—xx!!!

Then you'll know that LIBERTY is the biggest nickel's worth of real tobacco.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

RUG TIME.

Better select your Rugs early, it will pay you well.

NEW CORSETS.

Many new models for spring $1.00 up to $5.00. R. & G. Nemo and C. N.

NEW SPRING MERCHANDISE

Just a few days and winter must give place to spring. Everybody will want new spring merchandise. There never was a time when the advice to "buy early" could be acted upon to better advantage.

NEW MILLINERY.

SMART STYLES FOR EARLY SPRING.

The coming spring season will be one of great variety of color and styles. You will like the style and trimming best after you have tried the hat on, then you can realize that the milliner's art is in knowing just where to place a flower here, and an ornament there, to secure the best effect. You will not only be charmed with the smart styles but more than pleased with the moderate prices.

SILK POPLIN, $1.00.

40 inches wide, in all the popular colors for spring. It will be impossible for us to replace this stock, so take the advice and buy early at $1.00 yard.

NEW WAISTS FOR SPRING.

DOZENS AND DOZENS OF THEM.

So many pretty styles can't say which is the prettiest.

TUB SILK WAISTS, $1.97.

Old Rue, Light Blue, Pink, Green and White; collar can be worn either high or low; would be good value at any time, unusually good at present when silks are advancing in price.

SILK WAISTS AT $2.97 AND $3.97.

Good range of colors, several good styles, made with high or low collars; no two waists just alike; every one different, either in style or color. $2.97 and $3.97

NEW DRESS SKIRTS.

Decidedly new in style, remarkably low in price. Dress skirts that will give real service at $2.50, $3.97, $4.50, $4.97 and $5.50.

The Progressive Downtown Store

WHERE YOU ALWAYS GET MAXIMUM VALUE AT MINIMUM PRICE

26 Broadway (Downtown) Kingston

MIDGETS DEFEAT HUDSON JUNIORS

When the high school Midgets beat the Hudson Juniors by a score of 40 to 7 Saturday afternoon they paid the visiting team back with ample interest for previously inflicting upon the Midgets the only defeat of the basketball season.

The game was played in the high school gymnasium, and the local youngsters took advantage of the fact that they were on their home court, kept their heads and showed the team work that they know how to use when it so strikes their fancy. If the Midgets had hung together up in Hudson last week as they hung together in the game Saturday, there is no doubt but that they would not have had to play this second game in order to lay claim to the little fellows' championship on the Hudson valley.

Some pessimistic person has observed that the Midget team most always puts in a lot of substitutes before the game is over, and claims that this is done because the Midgets have not got the wind to play a whole game. This is far from being the case, and the four fellows whose names appear last in the following summary were only put in for the last five minutes of the game and after the victory was almost a certainty. No, the Midgets have wind enough, and nerve and skill enough, and all they have to worry about, as a team, is that they may some day find themselves putting their hats on with the assistance of a shoe horn.

The summary follows:

Hudson Juniors.	FB	FP	TP
Elgo, rf, rg	0	0	0
Dolan, lf	0	1	1
Hughes, c	1	0	2
Atwood, rg, rf	1	1	3
Ten Brook, lg	0	0	0
Mugford, lg	0	1	1
Totals	2	3	7

H. S. Midgets.	FB	FP	TP
Kirchner, rf	7	0	14
Martin, lf	5	2	12
Quick, c	4	0	8
McAndrew, rg	2	0	4
Dwyer, lg	0	0	0
Schoonmaker, rf	0	0	0
Smith, lf	0	0	0
Webster, c	1	0	2
Kemble, rg	0	0	0
Total	19	2	40

ACTIVITIES OF THE KU KLUX.

Grand Army Paper Attacks Some Scenes in "The Birth of a Nation."

A prominent Grand Army man of the city has a copy of the National Tribune, published in Washington, D. C., in which correspondents of that newspaper attack the part of the Ku Klux Klan as depicted in the films of "The Birth of a Nation," which is to be shown in Kingston this week. Instances of activities of the night-riders who played such a conspicuous part in the reconstruction period in the south were numerous and some of the striking scenes in the production are styled the "glorification of a shameful page in our history." According to the correspondents quoted, the part played by the Ku Klux was anything but heroic and the shooting of a state's attorney by a posse of thirty night-riders is one of the instances to which reference is made.

Thought.

Thinking cannot be clear till it has had expression. We must write, or speak, or act our thoughts, or they will remain in a half torpid form. Our feelings must have expression, or they will be as clouds, which, till they descend in rain, will never bring up fruit or flower. So it is with all the inward feeling: expression gives them development. Thought is the blossom; language the opening bud; action the fruit behind it.—H. W. Beecher.

FIFTEEN CENTS.

Why have Murads

become the leading cigarette in the business and social world?

Because smokers have found that the Turkish tobaccos used in Murad are better than they can get in most 25 Cent cigarettes.

Murad has not won its World Leadership in a day or by accident.

It has been a question of pure, honest value—

Of giving for 15 Cents far more than any other manufacturer ever thought it possible to give—

Of offering the consumer a 15 Cent cigarette that can only be compared with the BEST 25 Cent cigarettes.

REMEMBER—Turkish tobacco is the world's most famous tobacco for cigarettes.

Smargyros

Makers of the Highest Grade Turkish and Egyptian Cigarettes in the World

Judge for yourself with any 25 Cent Cigarette

Everywhere Why?

MURAD

THE TURKISH CIGARETTE

World's Oldest Flower.

The chrysanthemum is the oldest cultivated flower in the world, and though Japan's national emblem, was first developed in China. Confucius, who lived approximately 500 years B. C., mentioned it in his writings, and antique Chinese pottery in the British museum is decorated with conventional designs of the same flower.

First American Lace Plant.

The first lace plant established in the United States was that of the Jennings Lace works in Brooklyn, N. Y., about thirty years ago. Other plants have been established from time to time until now there are about twenty-six factories operating 554 lace machines and employing several thousand persons.

THE VALUE OF STERLING

For Gift purposes is forcefully demonstrated in our large and diversified showing. You will find here the gift you seek for young or old. You will be pleased with the new designs.

OPPENHEIMER BROS. Inc., Jewelers

678 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y. Near West Shore Crossing.